[T. S. No. 922]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a Convention for the Maintenance, Preservation and Reestablishment of Peace was signed at Buenos Aires on December 23, 1936, by the respective plenipotentiaries of the United States of America and the twenty other American Republics represented at the Inter-American Conference for the Maintenance of Peace, a true copy of which Convention, in the English, Spanish, Portuguese and French languages, is word for word as follows:¹

ervation, and reestablishment of peace.
Preamble.

CONVENTION FOR THE MAINTENANCE, PRESERVATION AND REESTABLISHMENT OF PEACE

The Governments represented at the Inter-American Conference for the Maintenance of Peace,

CONSIDERING:

That according to the statement of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the President of the United States, to whose lofty ideals the meeting of this Conference is due, the measures to be adopted by it "would advance the cause of world peace, inasmuch as the agreements which might be reached would supplement and reinforce the efforts of the League of Nations and of all other existing or future peace agencies in seeking to prevent war";

That every war or threat of war affects directly or indirectly all civilized peoples and endangers the great principles of liberty and justice which constitute the American ideal and the standard of American international policy;

That the Treaty of Paris of 1928 (Kellogg-Briand Pact) has been accepted by almost all the civilized states, whether or not members of other peace organizations, and that the Treaty of Non-Aggression and Conciliation of 1933 (Saavedra Lamas Pact signed at Rio de Janeiro) has the approval of the twenty-one American Republics represented in this Conference, 46 Stat. 2343.

49 Stat. 3363.

¹ The texts follow literally the certified copy of the convention furnished by the Argentine Government.—The editor.

Have resolved to give contractual form to these purposes by concluding the present Convention, to which end they have appointed the Plenipotentiaries hereafter mentioned:

Article I.—Dans le cas où la Paix des Républiques Américaines serait menacée et afin de coordonner leurs efforts pour empêcher la guerre, chacun des Gouvernements des Républiques Américaines signataires du Traité de Paris de 1928, ou du Traité de Non Aggression et de Conciliation de 1933, ou des deux, qu'elles soient membres ou non d'autres Organisations de Paix, consultera les autres Gouvernements des Républiques Américaines qui, en pareil cas, se consulteront entre eux dans le but de trouver et d'adopter des méthodes de coopération pacifique.

Article II.—En cas de guerre ou d'un état virtuel de guerre entre des Etats Américains, les Gouvernements des Républiques Américaines, représentées à cette Conférence, entreprendront sans délai les consultations nécessaires dans le but d'échanger leurs vues et de trouver dans la limite des obligations qui résultent des Pactes susmentionnés et des règles de la morale internationale, un procédé de collaboration pacifique; et, dans le cas d'une guerre internationale hors d'Amérique, qui menacerait la paix des Républiques Américaines, des consultations semblables auront également lieu afin de déterminer le moment opportun où, et la manière d'après laquelle les Etats signataires, s'ils le désirent, pourront éventuellement coopérer à une action tendant à préserver la paix du Continent Américain.

Article III.—Il est entendu que toute difficulté relative à l'interprétation de la présente Convention, qu'il n'aurait pas été possible de régler par la voie diplomatique, sera soumise à la procédure de conciliation prévue par les accords existants, ou à l'arbitrage, ou à un règlement judiciaire.

Article IV.—La Présente Convention sera ratifiée par les Hautes Parties Contractantes conformément à leurs procédures constitutionnelles. La Convention originale et les instruments de ratification seront déposés au Ministère des Affaires Etrangères de la République Argentine qui fera part des ratifications aux autres Etats signataires. La Convention entrera en vigueur entre les Hautes Parties Contractantes suivant l'ordre dans lequel elles auront déposé leurs ratifications.

Article V.—La Présente Convention restera en vigueur indéfiniment, mais elle pourra être dénoncée par un préavis d'un an. A l'expiration de ce terme, les effets de cette Convention cesseront en ce qui concerne la partie qui l'aura dénoncée, mais demeureront en vigueur à l'égard des autres Etats signataires. Les dénonciations seront adressées au Gouvernement de la République Argentine qui les transmettra aux autres Parties Contractantes.

En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires plus haut mentionnés ont signé la présente Convention, en anglais, espagnol, portugais et français et y ont apposé leurs sceaux dans la ville de Buenos Aires, Capitale de la République Argentine, le vingt-trois Décembre, mil neuf cent trente-six.

Each Government shall appoint its own representative to the said commission, the meetings of which are to be held, alternatively, in the capital city of one and the other Governments represented in each of them. The first meeting shall be held at the seat of the Government which convokes it.

Art. 2.—The duty of the aforementioned commissions shall be to study, with the primary object of eliminating them, as far as possible, the causes of future difficulties or controversies; and to propose additional or detailed lawful measures which it might be convenient to take in order to promote, as far as possible, the due and regular application of treaties in force between the respective parties, and also to promote the development of increasingly good relations in all ways between the two countries dealt with in each case.

Art. 3.—After each meeting of any of the said preventive Commissions a minute shall be drawn and signed by its members setting out the considerations and decisions thereof and such minute shall be transmitted to the governments represented in the commissions.

Art. 4.—The present treaty shall not affect obligations previously entered into by the High Contracting Parties by virtue of international agreements.

Art. 5.—The present Treaty shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in conformity with their respective constitutional procedures. The original instrument shall be deposited in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Argentine Republic which shall transmit authentic certified copies to the Governments for the aforementioned purpose of ratification. The instruments of ratification shall be deposited in the archives of the Pan American Union in Washington, which shall notify the signatory Governments of said deposit. Such notification shall be considered as an exchange of ratifications.

Art. 6.—The present Treaty will come into effect between the High Contracting Parties in the order in which they deposit their respective ratifications.

Art. 7.—The present Treaty shall remain in effect indefinitely but may be denounced by means of one year's notice given to the Pan American Union, which shall transmit it to the other signatory governments. After the expiration of this period the Treaty shall cease in its effects as regards the party which denounces it but shall remain in effect for the remaining High Contracting Parties.

In witness whereof, the above mentioned Plenipotentiaries sign the present Treaty in English, Spanish, Portuguese and French and hereunto affix their respective seals, at the City of Buenos Aires, Capital of the Argentine Republic, on the twenty-third day of the month of December, 1936.

Who, after having deposited their full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

Art. I.—When a controversy arises between them, that cannot be settled by the usual diplomatic means, the High Contracting Parties may have recourse to the good offices or mediation of an eminent citizen of any of the other American countries, preferably chosen from a general list made up in accordance with the following article.

Art. II.—To prepare the aforementioned list, each Government, as soon as the present treaty is ratified, shall name two citizens selected from among the most eminent by reason of their high character and juridical learning.

The designations shall immediately be communicated to the Pan American Union, which shall prepare the list and shall forward copies thereof to the contracting parties.

Art. III.—According to the hypothesis set forth in Article I, the countries in controversy shall, by common agreement, select one of the persons named on this list, for the purposes indicated in this treaty.

The person selected shall name the place where, under his chairmanship, one duly authorized representative of each of the parties shall meet in order to seek a peaceful and equitable solution of the difference.

If the parties are unable to agree concerning the selection of the person lending his good offices or mediation, each one shall choose one of those named on the list. The two citizens chosen in this way shall select, from among the names listed, a third person who shall undertake the functions referred to, endeavoring, in so far as possible, to make a choice that shall be acceptable to both parties.

Art. IV.—The mediator shall determine a period of time, not to exceed six nor be less than three months for the parties to arrive at some peaceful settlement. Should this period expire before the parties have reached some solution, the controversy shall be submitted to the procedure of conciliation provided for in existing inter-American agreements.

Art. V.—During the procedure established in this Treaty each of the interested parties shall provide for its own expense and shall contribute equally to common costs or honoraria.

Art. VI.—The present Treaty shall not affect obligations previously entered into by the High Contracting Parties by virtue of international agreements.

Art. VII.—The present Treaty shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in conformity with their respective constitutional procedures. The original instrument shall be deposited in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Argentine Republic which shall transmit authentic certified copies to the Governments for the aforementioned purpose of ratification. The instruments of ratification shall be deposited in the archives of the Pan American Union in Washington, which shall notify the signatory governments of said deposit. Such notification shall be considered as an exchange of ratifications.

Art. VIII.—The present Treaty will come into effect between the High Contracting Parties in the order in which they deposit their respective ratifications.

Art. IX.—The present Treaty shall remain in effect indefinitely but may be denounced by means of one year's notice given to the Pan American Union, which shall transmit it to the other signatory Governments. After the expiration of this period the Treaty shall cease in its effects as regards the Party which denounces it, but shall remain in effect for the remaining High Contracting Parties.

Quienes, después de haber exhibido sus Plenos Poderes, que fueron hallados en buena y debida forma, han convenido en lo siguiente:

Artículo 1º—Las Altas Partes Contratantes podrán recurrir en primer término, a los buenos oficios o a la mediación de un ciudadano eminente de cualquiera de los demás países americanos, escogido, de preferencia, de una lista general, formada de acuerdo con el artículo siguiente, cuando surja entre ellas una controversia que no pueda ser resuelta por los medios diplomáticos usuales.

Art. 2º—Para formar la lista mencionada en el artículo anterior cada Gobierno nombrará, tan pronto como ratifique el presente Tratado, dos de sus ciudadanos elegidos de entre los más eminentes por sus virtudes y versación jurídica.

Estas designaciones serán inmediatamente comunicadas a la Unión Panamericana, que se encargará de elaborar la lista y de comunicarla a las Partes Contratantes.

Art. 3º—En la hipótesis prevista en el artículo 1º, los países en controversia elegirán, de común acuerdo, para las funciones indicadas en este Tratado, a uno de los componentes de dicha lista.

El elegido indicará el lugar en el cual deberán reunirse bajo su presidencia, sendos representantes de las Partes, debidamente autorizados, con el fin de procurar una solución pacífica y equitativa de la diferencia.

Si las Partes no se pusieren de acuerdo en cuanto a la elección de la persona que debe prestar sus buenos oficios o su mediación, cada una de ellas escogerá uno de los componentes de la lista. Los dos ciudadanos así nombrados elegirán, de entre los nombres de la misma lista, la persona que haya de desempeñar las mencionadas funciones, procurando, en lo posible, que ella sea del agrado de ambas Partes.

Art. 4º—El mediador fijará un plazo que no excederá de seis meses ni será menor de tres, para que las Partes lleguen a alguna solución pacífica. Expirado este plazo sin haberse alcanzado algún acuerdo entre las Partes, la controversia será sometida al procedimiento de conciliación previsto en los Convenios interamericanos vigentes.

Art. 5º—Durante el procedimiento establecido en este Tratado, cada una de las Partes interesadas proveerá a sus propios gastos y contribuirá, por mitad, a los gastos u honorarios comunes.

Art. 6º—El presente Tratado no afecta los compromisos contraídos anteriormente por las Altas Partes Contratantes en virtud de Acuerdos internacionales.

Art. 7º—El presente Tratado será ratificado por las Altas Partes Contratantes, de acuerdo con sus procedimientos constitucionales. El Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores de la República Argentina guardará los originales del presente Tratado y queda encargado de enviar copias certificadas auténticas a los Gobiernos para el referido fin. Los instrumentos de ratificación serán depositados en los archivos de la Unión Panamericana, en Washington, que notificará dicho depósito a los Gobiernos signatarios; tal notificación valdrá como canje de ratificaciones.

Art. 8º—El presente Tratado entrará en vigor entre las Altas Partes Contratantes en el orden en que vayan depositando sus respectivas ratificaciones.

Art. 9º—El presente Tratado regirá indefinidamente, pero podrá ser denunciado mediante aviso anticipado de un año a la Unión Panamericana, que lo transmitirá a los demás Gobiernos signatarios. Transcurrido este plazo, el Tratado cesará en sus efectos para el denunciante, quedando subsistente para las demás Altas Partes Contratantes.

Art. 10.—En fe de lo cual, los Plenipotenciarios arriba mencionados, firman y sellan el presente Tratado en español, inglés, portugués y francés, en la ciudad de Buenos Aires, Capital de la República Argentina, a los veintitres días del mes de diciembre del año mil novecientos treinta y seis.

Lesquels, après avoir déposé leurs Pleins Pouvoirs qui ont été trouvés en bonne et due forme, ont convenu ce qui suit:

Article I.—Les Hautes Parties Contractantes pourront recourir en premier lieu aux bons offices ou à la médiation d'un citoyen éminent de l'un quelconque des autres pays américains, choisi de préférence sur une liste générale établie conformément à l'article suivant, quand surgira entre elles une controverse qui n'aura pu être résolue par les moyens diplomatiques usuels.

Article II.—Pour former la liste dont il est question à l'article précédent, chaque gouvernement nommera, dès qu'il aura ratifié le présent Traité, deux citoyens choisis parmi les plus remarquables par leurs qualités morales et leur compétence juridique.

Ce choix sera immédiatement notifié à l'Union Panaméricaine qui se chargera de dresser la liste et de la communiquer aux Hautes Parties Contractantes.

Article III.—Dans l'hypothèse prévue à l'article I, les pays en controverse choisiront, d'un commun accord, pour remplir le rôle indiqué dans le présent Traité, l'une des personnes figurant sur ladite liste.

Celui qui aurait été choisi indiquera le lieu où devront se réunir sous sa présidence les représentants dûment autorisés des pays intéressés et s'efforcera de trouver une solution pacifique et équitable du différend.

Si les Parties ne se mettent pas d'accord sur le choix de la personne qui doit prêter ses bons offices ou sa médiation, chacune d'elles choisira un des noms de la liste. Les deux citoyens ainsi désignés choisiront à leur tour, parmi les noms de ladite liste, la personne qui aura à remplir les susdites fonctions en faisant en sorte qu'elle puisse être agréée par les deux parties.

Article IV.—Le médiateur fixera un délai qui ne dépassera pas six mois et qui ne sera pas moindre de trois mois, pour que les Parties arrivent à une solution pacifique. Ce délai expiré sans que les Parties soient parvenues à un accord, la controverse sera soumise à la procédure de conciliation prévue dans les conventions interaméricaines existantes.

Article V.—Pendant la durée de la procédure établie dans ce Traité, chacune des Parties pourvoira à ses propres frais et contribuera pour la moitié aux frais et honoraires communs.

Article VI.—Le présent Traité ne porte pas atteinte aux obligations contractées antérieurement par les Hautes Parties Contractantes en vertu d'accords internationaux.

Article VII.—Le présent Traité sera ratifié par les Hautes Parties Contractantes selon leurs procédures constitutionnelles. Le Ministère des Affaires Etrangères de la République Argentine, conservera les originaux du présent Traité. Il est chargé d'en envoyer des copies certifiées authentiques aux Gouvernements pour les fins envisagées. Les instruments de ratification seront déposés à Washington, aux archives de l'Union Panaméricaine, qui notifiera ledit dépôt aux Gouvernements signataires. Cette notification vaudra comme un échange de ratifications.

Article VIII.—Le présent Traité entrera en vigueur entre les Hautes Parties Contractantes suivant l'ordre dans lequel elles auront déposé leurs ratifications respectives.

Article IX.—Le présent Traité restera indéfiniment en vigueur, mais il pourra être dénoncé par un préavis d'un an à l'Union Panaméricaine qui le transmettra aux autres Gouvernements signataires. Passé ce délai, le Traité cessera d'être en vigueur pour les autres Hautes Parties Contractantes.

Article X.—En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires ci-après indiqués, ont signé le présent Traité, en espagnol, en anglais, en portugais et en français, et y ont apposé leurs sceaux respectifs.

Fait à Buenos Aires, Capitale de la République Argentine, ce 23 Décembre 1936.

Who, after having deposited their full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon the following provisions:

Article 1.—Taking into consideration that, by the Treaty to Avoid and Prevent Conflicts between the American States, signed at Santiago, May 3, 1923, (known as the Gondra Treaty) the High Contracting Parties agree that all controversies which it has been impossible to settle through diplomatic channels or to submit to arbitration in accordance with existing treaties shall be submitted for investigation and report to a Commission of Inquiry;

That by the Treaty for the Renunciation of War, signed at Paris on August 28, 1928 (known as the Kellogg-Briand Pact, or Pact of Paris) the High Contracting Parties solemnly declare in the names of their respective peoples that they condemn recourse to war for the solution of international controversies and renounce it as an instrument of national policy in their relations with one another;

 46 Stat. 2343.

That by the General Convention of Inter-American Conciliation, signed at Washington, January 5, 1929, the High Contracting Parties agree to submit to the procedure of conciliation all controversies between them, which it may not have been possible to settle through diplomatic channels, and to establish a "Commission of Conciliation" to carry out the obligations assumed in the Convention;

 46 Stat. 2209.

That by the General Treaty of Inter-American Arbitration, signed at Washington, January 5, 1929, the High Contracting Parties bind themselves to submit to arbitration, subject to certain exceptions, all differences between them of an international character, which it has not been possible to adjust by diplomacy and which are juridical in their nature by reason of being susceptible of decision by the application of the principles of law, and moreover, to create a procedure of arbitration to be followed; and Inter-American arbitration treaty.

 49 Stat. 3153.

That by the Treaty of Non-Aggression and Conciliation, signed at Rio de Janeiro October 10, 1933, (known as the Saavedra Lamas Treaty), the High Contracting Parties solemnly declare that they condemn wars of aggression in their mutual relations or in those with other states and that the settlement of disputes or controversies between them shall be effected only by pacific means which have the sanction of international law, and also declare that as between them territorial questions must not be settled by violence, and that they will not recognize any territorial arrangement not obtained by pacific means, nor the validity of the occupation or acquisition of territories brought about by force of arms, and, moreover, in a case of non-compliance with these obligations, the contracting states undertake to adopt, in their character as neutrals, a common and solidary attitude and to exercise the political, juridical or economic means authorized by international law, and to bring the influence of public opinion to bear, without, however, resorting to intervention, either diplomatic or armed, subject nevertheless to the attitude that may be incumbent upon them by virtue of their collective treaties; and, furthermore, undertake to create a procedure of conciliation;

The High Contracting Parties reaffirm the obligations entered into to settle, by pacific means, controversies of an international character that may arise between them.

Article 2.—The High Contracting Parties, convinced of the necessity for the co-operation and consultation provided for in the Convention for the Maintenance, Preservation and Reestablishment of Peace signed by them on this same day, agree that in all matters which affect peace on the Continent, such consultation and co-operation shall have as their object to assist, through the tender of friendly good offices and of mediation, the fulfillment by the American Republics of existing obligations for pacific settlement, and to take counsel together, with full recognition of their juridical equality, as sovereign and independent states, and of their general right to individual liberty of action, when an emergency arises which affects their common interest in the maintenance of peace.

Article 3.—In case of threat of war, the High Contracting Parties shall apply the provisions contained in Articles 1 and 2 of the Convention for the Maintenance, Preservation and Reestablishment of Peace, above referred to, it being understood that, while such consultation is in progress and for a period of not more than six months, the parties in dispute will not have recourse to hostilities or take any military action whatever.

Article 4.—The High Contracting Parties further agree that, in the event of a dispute between two or more of them, they will seek to settle it in a spirit of mutual regard for their respective rights, having recourse for this purpose to direct diplomatic negotiation or to the alternative procedures of mediation, commissions of inquiry, commissions of conciliation, tribunals of arbitration, and courts of justice, as provided in the treaties to which they may be parties; and they also agree that, should it be impossible to settle the dispute by diplomatic negotiation and should the States in dispute have recourse to the other procedures provided in the present Article, they will report this fact and the progress of the negotiations to the other signatory States. These provisions do not affect controversies already submitted to a diplomatic or juridical procedure by virtue of special agreements.

Article 5.—The High Contracting Parties agree that, in the event that the methods provided by the present Convention or by agreements previously concluded should fail to bring about a pacific settlement of differences that may arise between any two or more of them, and hostilities should break out between two or more of them, they shall be governed by the following stipulations:

(a) They shall, in accordance with the terms of the Treaty of Non-Aggression and Conciliation (Saavedra Lamas Treaty), adopt in their character as neutrals a common and solidary attitude; and shall consult immediately with one another, and take cognizance of the outbreak of hostilities in order to determine either jointly or individually, whether such hostilities shall be regarded as constituting a state of war so as to call into effect the provisions of the present Convention.

(b) It is understood that, in regard to the question whether hostilities actually in progress constitute a state of war, each of the High Contracting Parties shall reach a prompt decision. In any event, should hostilities be actually in progress between two or more of the Contracting Parties, or between two or more signatory States not at the time parties to this Convention by reason of failure to ratify it, each Contracting Party shall take notice of the situation and shall adopt such an attitude as would be consistent with other multilateral treaties to which it is a party or in accordance with its municipal legislation. Such action shall not be deemed an unfriendly act on the part of any state affected thereby.

Article 6.—Without prejudice to the universal principles of neutrality provided for in the case of an international war outside of America and without affecting the duties contracted by those American States members of the League of Nations, the High Contracting Parties reaffirm their loyalty to the principles enunciated in the five agreements referred to in Article 1, and they agree that in the case of an outbreak of hostilities or threat of an outbreak of hostilities between two or more of them, they shall, through consultation, immediately endeavor to adapt in their character as neutrals a common and solidary attitude, in order to discourage or prevent the spread or prolongation of hostilities.

Loyalty to principles enunciated in designated agreements reaffirmed.

With this object, and having in mind the diversity of cases and circumstances, they may consider the imposition of prohibitions or restrictions on the sale or shipment of arms, munitions and implements of war, loans or other financial help to the states in conflict, in accordance with the municipal legislation of the High Contracting Parties, and without detriment to their obligations derived from other treaties to which they are or may become parties.

Arms, etc., embargo.

Article 7.—Nothing contained in the present Convention shall be understood as affecting the rights and duties of the High Contracting Parties which are at the same time members of the League of Nations.

Rights and duties of signatories which are members of League of Nations.

Article 8.—The present Convention shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their constitutional procedures. The original convention and the instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Argentine Republic, which shall communicate the ratifications to the other Signatory States. Notices of denunciation shall be communicated to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Argentine Republic which shall transmit copies thereof to the other Signatory States. (4.) In signing this Convention, the Delegation of Colombia understands that the phrase "in their character as neutrals," which appears in Articles V and VI, implies a new concept of international law which allows a distinction to be drawn between the aggressor and the attacked, and to treat them differently. At the same time, the Delegation of Colombia considers it necessary, in order to assure the full and effective application of this Pact, to set down in writing the following definition of the aggressor:

That State shall be considered as an aggressor which becomes responsible for one or several of the following acts:

a) That its armed forces, to whatever branch they may belong, illegally cross the land, sea or air frontiers of other States. When the violation of the territory of a State has been effected by irresponsible bands organized within or outside of its territory and which have received direct or indirect help from another State, such violation shall be considered equivalent, for the purposes of the present Article, to that effected by the regular forces of the State responsible for the aggression;

b) That it has intervened in a unilateral or illegal way in the internal or external affairs of another State;

c) That it has refused to fulfil a legally given arbitral decision or sentence of international justice.

No consideration of any kind, whether political, military, economic or of any other kind, may serve as an excuse or justification for the aggression here anticipated.

Quienes, después de depositar sus Plenos Poderes, que fueron hallados en buena y debida forma, han convenido lo siguiente:

Artículo I.—Teniendo en cuenta: Que por el Tratado para evitar o prevenir conflictos entre los Estados Americanos, subscripto en Santiago el 3 de mayo de 1923, (conocido como el Tratado Gondra), las Altas Partes Contratantes acuerdan que toda cuestión que no hubiera podido ser resuelta por la vía diplomática ni llevada al arbitraje en virtud de Tratados existentes, será sometida a la investigación e informe de una Comisión de Investigación;

Que por el Tratado de Proscripción de la Guerra, subscripto en París el 28 de agosto de 1928 (conocido como el Pacto Kellogg-Briand o el Pacto de París), las Altas Partes Contratantes declaran solemnemente, a nombre de sus respectivas Naciones, que condenan el recurso de la guerra para la solución de las controversias internacionales, y renuncian a ella como instrumento de política nacional en sus relaciones mutuas;

Que por la Convención General de Conciliación Interamericana, subscripta en Washington el 5 de enero de 1929, las Altas Partes Contratantes se obligan a someter al procedimiento de conciliación todas sus controversias que no haya sido posible resolver por la vía diplomática, y a establecer una "Comisión de Conciliación" para llevar a efecto las obligaciones que asumen en la Convención;

Que por el Tratado General de Arbitraje Interamericano, subscripto en Washington el 5 de enero de 1929, las Altas Partes Contratantes se obligan a someter a arbitraje, con ciertas excepciones, todas sus diferencias de carácter internacional, que no haya sido posible ajustar por la vía diplomática y que sean de naturaleza jurídica por ser susceptibles de decisión mediante la aplicación de los principios del derecho, y, además, a crear el procedimiento de arbitraje a seguir; y,

Que por el Tratado Antibélico de No Agresión y Conciliación, subscripto en Río de Janeiro el 10 de octubre de 1933, (conocido como el Tratado Saavedra Lamas), las Altas Partes Contratantes declaran solemnemente que condenan las guerras de agresión en sus relaciones mutuas o con otros Estados, y que el arreglo de los conflictos o divergencias de cualquier clase que se susciten entre ellas, no deberá realizarse sino por los medios pacíficos que consagra el derecho internacional, y también declaran que entre ellas las cuestiones territoriales no deben resolverse por la violencia, y que no reconocerán arreglo territorial alguno que no sea obtenido por medios pacíficos, ni la validez de la ocupación o adquisición de territorios que sea lograda por la fuerza de las armas; y además, en caso de incumplimiento de estas obligaciones, los Estados contratantes se comprometen a adoptar, en su calidad de neutrales, una actitud común y solidaria y a ejercer los medios políticos, jurídicos o económicos autorizados por el derecho internacional, y a hacer gravitar la influencia de la opinión pública, sin recurrir, no obstante, a la intervención, sea diplomática o armada, salvo la actitud que pudiera corresponderles en virtud de sus Tratados colectivos; y se comprometen, además, a crear un procedimiento de conciliación;

Las Altas Partes Contratantes reafirman las obligaciones contraídas de solucionar, por medios pacíficos, las controversias de carácter internacional que puedan surgir entre ellas.

Art. II.—Las Altas Partes Contratantes, convencidas de la necesidad de la cooperación y de la consulta estipulada en la Convención sobre el mantenimiento, afianzamiento y restablecimiento de la Paz, celebrada en esta misma fecha entre ellas, acuerdan que en todo asunto que afecte la paz en el continente, dichas consultas y cooperación tendrán por objeto facilitar por el ofrecimiento amigable de sus buenos oficios y de su mediación, el cumplimiento por parte de las Repúblicas Americanas de las obligaciones existentes para una solución pacífica y deliberar, dentro de su plena igualdad jurídica como Estados soberanos e independientes y con su derecho a la libertad de acción individual, cuando surja una divergencia que afecte su interés común de mantener la paz.

Art. III.—En caso de amenaza de guerra, las Altas Partes Contratantes promoverán la aplicación de las disposiciones contenidas en los artículos I y II de la Convención sobre el mantenimiento, afianzamiento y restablecimiento de la paz, celebrada en esta misma fecha, entendiéndose que mientras duren las consultas, y por un plazo no mayor de seis meses, las Partes en conflicto no recurrirán a las hostilidades ni ejercerán acción militar alguna.

Art. IV.—Las Altas Partes Contratantes acuerdan, además que, en caso de que surja una controversia entre dos o más de ellas, tratarán de resolverla dentro de un espíritu de mutuo respeto de sus respectivos derechos, recurriendo con este propósito a negociaciones diplomáticas directas o a los procedimientos alternativos de mediación: comisiones de investigación, comisiones de conciliación, tribunales de arbitraje, y cortes de justicia, según estipulen los Tratados de que sean parte; y también acuerdan que si la controversia no ha podido resolverse por la negociación diplomática, y los países en disputa recurrieren a los otros procedimientos previstos en el presente artículo, deberán informar de ello y de la marcha de las negociaciones a los demás Estados signatarios. Estas estipulaciones no afectan las controversias ya sometidas a un procedimiento diplomático o jurídico en virtud de pactos especiales.

Art. V.—Las Altas Partes Contratantes acuerdan que si mediante los métodos establecidos por la presente Convención, o por los acuerdos anteriormente celebrados, no se lograre obtener una solución pacífica de las diferencias que puedan surgir entre dos o más de ellas, y llegare a producirse el rompimiento de las hostilidades, procederán de acuerdo con las siguientes estipulaciones:

a) — Adoptarán, según los términos del Tratado de No Agresión y Conciliación (Tratado Saavedra Lamas), en su calidad de neutrales, una actitud común y solidaria; consultarán inmediatamente las unas con las otras, y tomarán conocimiento de la ruptura de las hostilidades para determinar, conjunta o individualmente, si ha de considerarse que dichas hostilidades constituyen un estado de guerra, a efecto de poner en vigor las disposiciones de la presente Convención.

b) — Queda entendido que, respecto de la cuestión de si las hostilidades que están desarrollándose constituyen o no un estado de guerra, cada una de las Altas Partes Contratantes adoptará una pronta decisión. De todos modos, si están desarrollándose hostilidades entre dos o más de las Partes Contratantes, o entre dos o más Estados signatarios que en esa fecha no sean parte de esta Convención, cada Parte Contratante tomará conocimiento de la situación y adoptará la actitud que le corresponda conforme con los otros Tratados colectivos de que sea parte o según su legislación interna. Este acto no será considerado hostil por ningún Estado afectado por el mismo.

Art. VI. — Sin perjuicio de los principios universales sobre neutralidad previstos para el caso de guerra internacional fuera de América, y sin que se afecten los deberes contraídos por los Estados Americanos que sean miembros de la Sociedad de las Naciones, las Altas Partes Contratantes reafirman su fidelidad a los principios enunciados en los cinco pactos referidos en el artículo I y acuerdan que en caso de ruptura de hostilidades o amenaza de ruptura de hostilidades entre dos o más de ellas, inmediatamente tratarán de adoptar, en su calidad de neutrales, por medio de la consulta, una actitud común y solidaria con el fin de desalentar o evitar la propagación o prolongación de las hostilidades.

Con este objeto, y teniendo en cuenta la diversidad de los casos y de las circunstancias, podrán considerar la imposición de prohibiciones o restricciones a la venta o embarque de armas, municiones y pertrechos de guerra, empréstitos u otra ayuda financiera a los Estados en conflicto, de acuerdo con la legislación interna de las Altas Partes Contratantes, y sin detrimento de sus obligaciones derivadas de otros tratados de que sean o llegaren a ser partes.

Art. VII.—Nada de lo establecido en la presente Convención se entenderá como que afecta los derechos y deberes de las Altas Partes Contratantes que fueren al propio tiempo miembros de la Sociedad de las Naciones.

Art. VIII.—La presente Convención será ratificada por las Altas Partes Contratantes de acuerdo con sus procedimientos constitucionales. La Convención original y los instrumentos de ratificación serán depositados en el Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores de la República Argentina, que comunicará las ratificaciones a los demás Estados signatarios. Entrará en vigencia cuando hayan depositado sus ratificaciones no menos de once Estados signatarios.

La Convención regirá indefinidamente, pero podrá ser denunciada por cualquiera de las Altas Partes Contratantes, entrando en vigor la denuncia un año después de la fecha en que se hiciera la notificación al respecto. La denuncia será dirigida al Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores de la República Argentina, el que transmitirá copias de ella a los demás Estados signatarios. La denuncia no se considerará válida si la Parte denunciante se encontrara en estado de guerra o entrara en hostilidades sin llenar los requisitos establecidos en la presente Convención.

En testimonio de lo cual, los Plenipotenciarios arriba mencionados firman la presente Convención en español, inglés, portugués y francés, y estampan sus respectivos sellos en la ciudad de Buenos Aires, Capital de la República Argentina, a los veintitrés días del mes de diciembre del año 1936.

Reserva de la Delegación de Colombia.

4.—La Delegación de Colombia entiende al suscribir esta Convención, que la frase “en su calidad de neutrales”, que aparece en los artículos V y VI implica un nuevo concepto del Derecho Internacional que permite distinguir entre el agresor y el agredido y darles un tratamiento diferente. Al propio tiempo, la Delegación de Colombia considera necesario, para asegurar la plena y efectiva aplicación de este Pacto, dejar consignada la siguiente definición del agresor:

Se considerará como agresor al Estado que se haga responsable de uno o varios de los actos siguientes:

- a) Que sus fuerzas armadas, a cualquier arma a que pertenezcan, hayan traspasado indebidamente las fronteras terrestres, marítimas o aéreas de otros Estados. Cuando la violación del territorio de un Estado haya sido efectuada por bandas de irregulares organizadas dentro o fuera de su territorio, y que hayan recibido apoyo directo o indirecto de otro Estado, tal violación será asimilada, para los efectos del presente artículo, a la efectuada por las fuerzas regulares del Estado responsable de la agresión;
- b) Que haya intervenido de una manera unilateral o ilegal en los asuntos interiores o exteriores de otro Estado;
- c) Que se haya negado al cumplimiento de un fallo arbitral o de una sentencia de la justicia internacional, legalmente pronunciado.

Ninguna consideración de orden político, militar, económico o de otra clase, podrá servir de excusa o de justificación a la agresión aquí prevista.

Artigo I

CONSIDERANDO:

Lesquels, ayant déposé leurs Pleins Pouvoirs trouvés en bonne et due forme, ont convenu ce qui suit:

Article I.—Considérant que, par le Traité pour éviter ou empêcher les Conflits Internationaux entre les Etats Américains, signé à Santiago le 3 Mai 1923 (connu sous le nom de traité Gondra), les Hautes Parties Contractantes ont convenu que toute question qui n'aurait pu être résolue par la voie diplomatique ni soumise à l'arbitrage, en vertu des traités existants, sera soumise à une Commission d'enquête qui en fera rapport;

Que, par le Traité de Renonciation à la Guerre, signé à Paris le 28 août 1928 (connu sous le nom de Pacte Kellogg-Briand ou Pacte de Paris), les Hautes Parties Contractantes ont déclaré solennellement, au nom de leurs nations respectives, qu'elles condamnent tout recours à la guerre pour le règlement des différends internationaux et y renoncent comme instrument de politique nationale dans leurs relations mutuelles;

Que, par la Convention Générale de Conciliation Interaméricaine, signée à Washington le 5 janvier 1929, les Hautes Parties Contractantes ont convenu de soumettre à la procédure de conciliation tous les différends qui peuvent s'élever entre elles et qu'il n'aurait pas été possible de régler par la voie diplomatique, et d'établir une Commission de Conciliation pour exécuter les obligations assumées dans la dite Convention;

Que, par le Traité Général d'Arbitrage Interaméricain, signé à Washington le 5 janvier 1929, les Hautes Parties Contractantes se sont engagées à soumettre à l'arbitrage, sauf certaines exceptions, tous les différends de caractère international, qui n'auraient pas été réglés par la voie diplomatique, et ayant un caractère juridique, c'est-à-dire susceptibles d'être décidés par l'application des principes de droit, et en outre, à établir entre elles et à suivre une procédure d'arbitrage;

Que par le Traité de Non Aggression et de Conciliation, signé à Rio de Janeiro, le 10 octobre 1933 (connu sous le nom de Traité Saavedra Lamas), les Hautes Parties Contractantes ont déclaré solennellement qu'elles condamnent les guerres d'agression dans leurs relations mutuelles ou avec d'autres Etats; que le règlement des conflits ou différends de toutes sortes qui s'élèveront entre elles ne devra être obtenu que par des moyens pacifiques consacrés par le droit international, qu'elles ont également déclaré, en ce qui les concerne, que les questions territoriales ne doivent pas être réglées par la violence, et qu'elles ne reconnaîtront aucun règlement territorial qui ne soit pas obtenu par des moyens pacifiques, ni la validité de l'occupation ou de l'acquisition de territoires, effectuée par la force des armes, en outre, qu'en cas de non-accomplissement de ces engagements, les Etats Contractants adopteront, en leur qualité de neutres, une attitude commune et solidaire, et mettront en oeuvre les moyens politiques, juridiques ou économiques autorisés par le Droit International et qu'ils porteront l'opinion publique à agir par son influence, tout en évitant de recourir à aucune intervention diplomatique ou armée, sans cependant renoncer à l'attitude que leur imposent leurs traités collectifs;

Et qu'ils s'engagent, en outre, à établir une procédure de conciliation;

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes réaffirment les engagements contractés par elles de donner une solution par des moyens pacifiques, aux controverses d'ordre international qui peuvent surgir entre elles.

Art. II.—Les Hautes Parties Contractantes, convaincues de l'utilité de la coopération et de la consultation stipulées dans la Convention pour le Maintien, la Préservation et le Rétablissement de la Paix, signée entre elles le 23 décembre 1936, conviennent qu'en toutes questions qui affectent la paix sur le continent, la consultation et la coopération susmentionnées auront pour objet de faciliter, par l'offre amicale de leurs bons offices, et de leur médiation l'accomplissement par les Républiques Américaines, des engagements existants pour un règlement pacifique, et de délibérer, en pleine reconnaissance de leur égalité juridique comme Etats souverains et indépendants et de tous leurs droits à la liberté d'action individuelle, lorsque surgira une divergence capable d'affecter leur intérêt commun ou le maintien de la paix.

Art. III.—En cas de menace de guerre, les Hautes Parties Contractantes exécuteront les dispositions contenues dans les articles I et II de la Convention pour le Maintien, la Préservation et le Rétablissement de la Paix; il est entendu que, pendant la durée de la consultation et pour une période ne dépassant pas six mois, les Parties en désaccord ne recourront pas aux hostilités et s'abstiendront de toute action militaire.

Art. IV.—Les Hautes Parties Contractantes conviennent de plus qu'en cas de difficultés entre deux ou plus d'entre elles, elles chercheront à les régler dans un esprit de respect mutuel de leurs droits respectifs, en recourant, pour cet objet, à des négociations diplomatiques ou successivement à des procédures de médiation, aux commissions d'enquête, aux commissions de conciliation, aux tribunaux d'arbitrage et aux cours de justice comme il est prévu dans les traités auxquels elles sont parties; elles conviennent également que s'il était impossible de régler ces différends par la voie diplomatique et si les Etats en désaccord ont recours aux autres procédures prévues dans le présent article, elles en informeront les autres Etats signataires et les tiendront au courant de la marche des négociations.

Ces stipulations ne concernent pas les différends déjà soumis à une procédure diplomatique ou judiciaire en vertu d'accords spéciaux.

Art. V.—Les Hautes Parties Contractantes conviennent que, dans le cas où les méthodes prévues par la présente Convention ou par des accords antérieurs n'aboutiraient pas à un règlement pacifique des différends qui peuvent s'élever entre deux ou plus d'entre elles, et que s'ouvriraient les hostilités, elles procéderont conformément aux stipulations suivantes:

a) Elles adopteront, selon les termes du Traité de Non Aggression et de Conciliation (Traité Saavedra Lamas), en leur qualité de neutres, une attitude commune et solidaire; elles se consulteront immédiatement entre elles et prendront connaissance de l'ouverture des hostilités pour déterminer, conjointement ou séparément, si les dites hostilités constituent un état de guerre afin d'appliquer les stipulations de la présente Convention.

b) Il est entendu qu'en ce qui concerne la question de savoir si les hostilités en cours constituent ou non un état de guerre, chacune des Hautes Parties Contractantes devra prendre une prompte décision. Dans tous les cas, si les hostilités se poursuivent entre deux ou plus des Parties Contractantes ou entre deux ou plus des Etats signataires qui, à ce moment, ne seraient pas parties à cette Convention pour ne l'avoir pas ratifiée, chacune des Parties Contractantes prendra connaissance de la situation et adoptera l'attitude qui lui incombe en vertu d'autres traités multilatéraux dont elle est partie ou conformément à sa législation interne. Cet acte ne devra pas être considéré comme inamical de la part d'aucun état qu'il affecterait.

Art. VI.—Sans préjudice des principes universels sur la neutralité prévus pour le cas de guerre internationale hors d'Amérique, et des obligations contractées par les Etats américains qui seraient membres de la Société des Nations, les Hautes Parties Contractantes réaffirment leur fidélité aux principes énoncés dans les cinq Pactes visés à l'article I, et conviennent que, dans le cas d'ouverture d'hostilités ou de menace d'ouverture d'hostilités entre deux ou plus d'entre elles, elles s'efforceront immédiatement d'adopter, en leur qualité de neutres, au moyen d'une consultation, une attitude commune et solidaire dans le but de décourager ou de prévenir l'extension ou la prolongation des hostilités.

Dans ce but, et tenant compte de la diversité des cas et des circonstances, elles pourront envisager des mesures de prohibition ou de restriction concernant la vente ou l'expédition d'armes, munitions et matériel de guerre, emprunts ou autre aide financière aux Etats en conflit, selon la législation interne des Hautes Parties Contractantes, et sans préjudice de leurs obligations dérivant d'autres Traités dont elles sont ou peuvent devenir parties.

Art. VII.—Rien de ce qui est stipulé dans la présente Convention ne pourra être interprété comme affectant les droits et les obligations de celles des Hautes Parties Contractantes qui seraient en même temps membres de la Société des Nations.

Art. VIII.—La présente Convention sera ratifiée par les Hautes Parties Contractantes conformément à leurs procédures constitutionnelles. La Convention originale et les instruments de ratification seront déposés au Ministère des Affaires Etrangères de la République Argentine, qui fera part des ratifications aux autres Etats signataires. Elle entrera en vigueur lorsque onze au moins des Etats signataires auront fait le dépôt de leurs instruments de ratification.

La Convention restera indéfiniment en vigueur mais elle pourra être dénoncée par l'une quelconque des Parties Contractantes; cette dénonciation deviendra effective un an après la date de sa notification. La dénonciation sera adressée au Ministère des Affaires Etrangères de la République Argentine, qui en transmettra copie aux autres États signataires. Aucune dénonciation ne sera considérée valable si la Partie qui dénonce se trouve en état de guerre ou est engagée dans des hostilités sans avoir accompli les obligations stipulées dans la présente Convention.

En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires précités ont signé la présente Convention, en espagnol, en anglais, en portugais et en français, et y ont apposé leurs sceaux. Fait dans la ville de Buenos Aires, Capitale de la République Argentine, le 23 Décembre 1936.

2. De par l'Article VI, dans aucun cas ne pourront être considérées comme contrebande de guerre les denrées alimentaires ou matières premières destinées aux populations civiles des pays belligérants, et il n'existera pas le devoir de prohiber les crédits destinés à l'acquisition desdites denrées ou matières premières qui auraient la destination sus-mentionnée.

3. Sous la réserve de l'idée de solidarité continentale face à l'agression étrangère.

Réserve de la Délégation de Colombie

4. La Délégation de Colombie entend, en signant cette Convention, que la phrase "en leur qualité de neutres", qui figure aux Articles V et VI, implique un nouveau concept du Droit International qui permet de distinguer l'attaquant de l'attaqué et de leur octroyer un traitement différent. En même temps, la Délégation de Colombie juge utile, afin d'assurer la pleine et effective application de ce Pacte, de consigner la définition suivante de l'agresseur:

On considérera comme agresseur l'État qui se rendra responsable d'un ou de plusieurs des actes suivants:

a) Dont les forces armées, de n'importe quelle arme, auront franchi indûment les frontières terrestres, maritimes ou aériennes, d'autres États. Lorsque la violation du territoire d'un État aura été effectuée par des bandes irrégulières, organisées à l'intérieur ou hors de son territoire, et qu'elles auront reçu un appui direct ou indirect d'un autre État, la violation sera assimilée, aux effets du présent Article, à celle effectuée par les forces régulières de l'État responsable de l'agression;

b) Qui sera intervenu d'une manière unilatérale ou illégale dans les affaires intérieures ou étrangères d'un autre Etat;

c) Qui se sera refusé à accomplir une sentence arbitrale ou une sentence de la justice internationale, légalement rendue.

Aucune considération d'ordre politique, militaire, économique ou d'un autre ordre, ne pourra servir d'excuse ou de justification à l'agression ici prévue.

Purpose.

The Governments represented at the Inter-American Conference for the Maintenance of Peace,

Cognizant of the fact that the primary purpose of the Inter-American Conference is the strengthening of the bonds of friendship already existing between the countries of this Continent;

Convinced that direct and material contact between the American peoples necessarily would strengthen those bonds, consolidating therefore the peace of the Continent;

Knowing that the general welfare will be greater when there is greater facility for the exchange of the products of said countries;

Considering, finally, that one of the most adequate and efficient means for the attainment of the moral and material end aimed at jointly by the American Republics, is the termination of a highway which establishes a permanent communication between their respective territories, Article I.—Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à collaborer de tout leur zèle et par les moyens appropriés, au prompt achèvement d'une route panaméricaine qui permette, en tout temps, le transit de véhicules à moteur.

Art. II.—Les Hautes Parties créent une Commission composée de leurs respectifs représentants techniques, qui aura pour but de coordonner les travaux des divers Gouvernements, de réaliser les études et de formuler les projets nécessaires, dans les pays qui, ne les ayant pas réalisés, solliciteraient la collaboration de la Commission.

Art. III.—Immédiatement après que les Hautes Parties Contractantes auront ratifié la présente Convention, elles se consulteront dans le but de nommer une Commission Financière composée par les représentants de trois des Gouvernements qui l'auraient ratifiée. Cette Commission étudiera les problèmes se rapportant au prompt achèvement de la route panaméricaine, et, dans un délai qui ne devra pas dépasser six mois, comptés à partir de la date de sa constitution, elle soumettra un rapport détaillé à la considération des Gouvernements, rapport auquel sera joint un plan qui permette la solution des dits problèmes.

Art. IV.—Les Hautes Parties s'engagent finalement à établir ou à désigner, tout d'abord, dans les limites de leurs territoires respectifs, au moins un bureau public permanent qui fera connaître l'état où se trouvent les travaux qui se réaliseront, les parties de la route qui seront voiturables, les règlements locaux de transit et tous les autres renseignements dont pourraient avoir besoin les ressortissants et les touristes des pays étrangers.

Art. V.—La présente Convention n'affecte pas les engagements pris antérieurement par les Hautes Parties Contractantes, en vertu d'accords internationaux.

Art. VI.—La présente Convention sera ratifiée par les Hautes Parties Contractantes, conformément à leurs procédures constitutionnelles. Le Ministère des Affaires Etrangères de la République Argentine conservera les originaux de la présente Convention, et est chargé d'en envoyer des copies certifiées authentiques aux Gouvernements pour la ratification. Les instruments de ratification seront déposés aux Archives de l'Union Panaméricaine, à Washington, qui fera part du dépôt aux Gouvernements signataires; cette notification vaudra comme échange de ratifications.

Art. VII.—La présente Convention entrera en vigueur entre les Hautes Parties Contractantes, suivant l'ordre dans lequel elles auront déposé leurs ratifications respectives.

Art. VIII.—La présente Convention restera indéfiniment en vigueur, mais elle pourra être dénoncée moyennant un préavis d'un an à l'Union Panaméricaine qui le transmettra aux autres Gouvernements signataires. Passé ce délai, les effets de cette Convention cesseront à l'égard de la partie qui l'aura dénoncée, mais la Convention restera en vigueur à l'égard des autres Parties Contractantes.

Quienes, después de haber exhibido sus Plenos Poderes, que fueron hallados en buena y debida forma, han convenido lo siguiente:

Artículo I.—Todos los años cada Gobierno concederá a dos estudiantes graduados o maestros de cada uno de los otros países, escogidos conforme al procedimiento que establece el artículo II de la presente Convención, una beca para el año escolar siguiente. Las becas se concederán después que los dos gobiernos interesados canjeen las nóminas a que se refiere el artículo II de la presente Convención. Cada beca proporcionará derechos de matrícula y gastos subsidiarios y pensión en una institución de enseñanza superior designada por el país que concede la beca, por intermedio del órgano que considere apropiado y, en cuanto sea posible, en cooperación con el favorecido. Los gastos de ida y vuelta al lugar de la institución designada, y otros gastos incidentales, serán sufragados por el favorecido o por el Gobierno que lo nombre. Además, cada Gobierno conviene en alentar, por medios apropiados, el intercambio de estudiantes y maestros durante los períodos usuales de vacaciones, entre instituciones dentro de su territorio y otras en los demás países contratantes.

Art. II.—Cada Gobierno tendrá la facultad de preparar y entregar a cada uno de los otros Gobiernos, a más tardar en la fecha fijada al final de este artículo, una nómina de cinco estudiantes graduados o maestros, junto con las informaciones respecto a ellos que el Gobierno que concede la beca considere necesarias. Este último escogerá de dicha nómina los nombres de dos personas. Los mismos estudiantes no deberán ser designados durante más de dos años consecutivos y, excepto en casos excepcionales, para más de un año. Ningún país estará obligado a considerar la nómina de cualquier otro país si no ha sido formada y presentada con anterioridad a la fecha estatuida al final de este artículo, y las becas para las cuales no se hubiere presentado una nómina con anterioridad a la fecha fijada, podrán ser otorgadas a solicitantes indicados en las nóminas de cualquier otro país, que no hayan recibido becas.

Salvo que los países interesados convengan otra cosa, regirán las siguientes fechas:

Países de América del Sur, 30 de noviembre, y los demás países, 31 de marzo.

Art. III.—Si por cualquier motivo fuese necesario repatriar a un estudiante, el Gobierno que concede la beca podrá efectuar la repatriación por cuenta del Gobierno que lo designó.

Art. IV.—Cada una de las Altas Partes Contratantes enviará a las demás, por la vía diplomática, el 1º de enero, año por medio, una lista completa de los catedráticos reconocidos de las principales universidades, instituciones científicas y escuelas técnicas de cada país, que estén en disposición para un intercambio de servicios. De esta lista cada una de las Altas Partes Contratantes dispondrá que se escoja un profesor visitante, quien dictará conferencias en diversos centros, o explicará cursos regulares de estudios, o hará investigaciones especiales en la institución que se designe, y de otras maneras adecuadas fomentará el buen entendimiento entre las Partes que cooperan, debiendo entenderse, sin embargo, que se dará preferencia a la obra de enseñanza más bien que a la labor de investigación. El Gobierno que envía al profesor visitante cubrirá sus gastos de viaje de ida y vuelta a la ciudad donde resida y los gastos de mantenimiento y de viajes locales mientras el profesor desempeñe las funciones para las que fué escogido. El sueldo de los profesores será pagado por el país que los envía.

Art. V.—Las Altas Partes Contratantes acuerdan que cada Gobierno designará o creará un órgano apropiado, o nombrará un funcionario especial, que tenga la responsabilidad de llevar a efecto, de la manera más eficiente posible, las obligaciones que tal Gobierno asume en esta Convención.

Art. VI.—Nada en esta Convención será interpretado por las Altas Partes Contratantes como una obligación de cualquiera de ellas de interferir con la independencia de sus instituciones docentes o su libertad académica y administrativa.

Art. VII.—En cada uno de los países Contratantes, y por el órgano que se estime adecuado, se dictarán reglamentos acerca de los detalles que se considere necesario estipular y, con la debida premura, se proporcionarán copias de tales reglamentos, por conducto diplomático, a los Gobiernos de las otras Altas Partes Contratantes.

Art. VIII.—La presente Convención no afecta los compromisos contraídos anteriormente por las Altas Partes Contratantes en virtud de acuerdos internacionales.

Art. IX.—La presente Convención será ratificada por las Altas Partes Contratantes, de acuerdo con sus procedimientos constitucionales. El Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores de la República Argentina guardará los originales de la presente Convención y queda encargado de enviar copias certificadas auténticas a los Gobiernos para el referido fin. Los instrumentos de ratificación serán depositados en los archivos de la Unión Panamericana, en Wáshington, que notificará dicho depósito a los Gobiernos signatarios; tal notificación valdrá como canje de ratificaciones.

Art. X.—La presente Convención entrará en vigor entre las Altas Partes Contratantes en el orden en que vayan depositando sus respectivas ratificaciones.

Art. XI.—La presente Convención regirá indefinidamente, pero podrá ser denunciada mediante aviso anticipado de un año a la Unión Panamericana, que lo transmitirá a los demás Gobiernos signatarios.

Transcurrido este plazo, la Convención cesará en sus efectos para el denunciante, quedando subsistente para las demás Altas Partes Contratantes.

En fe de lo cual, los Plenipotenciarios arriba mencionados, firman y sellan la presente Convención en español, inglés, portugués y francés, en la ciudad de Buenos Aires, Capital de la República Argentina, a los veintitrés días del mes de diciembre del año mil novecientos treinta y seis.

Lesquels, après avoir déposé leurs Pleins Pouvoirs trouvés en bonne et due forme, ont convenu ce qui suit:

Article I.—Tous les ans, chaque Gouvernement concèdera à deux étudiants diplômés ou instituteurs de chacun des autres pays, désignés conformément au procédé établi par l'article II de la présente Convention, une bourse pour l'année scolaire suivante. Les bourses seront accordées après que les deux Gouvernements intéressés aient échangé les listes visées à l'article II de la présente Convention. Chaque bourse donnera droit à la matricule, au subside et à la pension dans une institution d'enseignement supérieur désignée par le pays qui concède la bourse, par l'intermédiaire de l'organe qu'il considérera approprié et, dans la mesure du possible, en coopération avec le bénéficiaire. Les frais de voyage (aller et retour) au pays où se trouvera l'institution désignée et tous autres frais, seront à la charge du bénéficiaire ou du Gouvernement qui l'aura désigné. Chaque Gouvernement convient d'encourager, par des moyens appropriés, l'échange d'étudiants et d'instituteurs pendant les périodes normales de vacances, entre les institutions de son propre territoire et celles des autres pays contractants.

Article II.—Chaque Gouvernement aura la faculté de préparer et de remettre à chacun des autres Gouvernements, au plus tard à la date établie par le tableau final de cet article, une liste de cinq étudiants diplômés ou d'instituteurs, ainsi que les renseignements concernant leurs personnes, qu'il jugera nécessaires. Ces derniers choisiront deux noms sur ladite liste. Les mêmes étudiants ne pourront pas être désignés pendant plus de deux ans consécutifs, et, sauf dans les cas exceptionnels, pour plus d'un an. Aucun pays ne sera obligé de prendre en considération la liste d'un autre pays si elle n'a pas été établie et présentée antérieurement à la date fixée à la fin du présent article, et les bourses pour lesquelles n'aurait pas été présentée une liste antérieurement à la date établie, pourront être concédées aux personnes indiquées sur les listes de n'importe quel autre pays, qui n'aurait pas eu de bourse.

Sauf dans le cas où les pays intéressés en conviendraient autrement, les dates suivantes régiront: pays de l'Amérique du Sud: 30 Novembre; autres pays: 31 Mars.

Article III.—Si pour n'importe quel motif il était nécessaire de rapatrier un étudiant, le Gouvernement qui accorde la bourse pourrait effectuer le rapatriement pour compte du Gouvernement qui avait désigné l'étudiant.

Article IV.—Chacune des Hautes Parties Contractantes enverra aux autres, par la voie diplomatique, le premier Janvier, tous les deux ans, une liste complète des professeurs reconnus des principales universités, institutions scientifiques et écoles techniques de chaque pays, qui puissent être désignés pour un échange de services. Chacune des Hautes Parties Contractantes disposera qu'il soit choisi sur ladite liste un professeur visiteur qui dictera des conférences dans divers centres, ou expliquera des cours réguliers d'études ou fera des investigations spéciales à l'institution que l'on désignera, et de toute autre façon appropriée, encouragera la bonne entente entre les Parties qui coopèrent; il doit être entendu cependant, que l'on donnera la préférence à l'oeuvre d'enseignement plutôt qu'à celle d'investigation. Le Gouvernement qui envoie le professeur visiteur paiera ses frais de voyage (aller et retour) jusqu'à la ville où il résidera ainsi que les frais d'entretien et de voyages locaux pendant que le professeur remplira les fonctions pour lesquelles il a été désigné. Le traitement des professeurs sera payé par le pays qui les enverra.

Article V.—Les Hautes Parties Contractantes conviennent que chaque Gouvernement désignera ou créera un organe approprié, ou désignera un fonctionnaire spécial qui aura la responsabilité de mettre en pratique, de la façon la plus efficace possible, les obligations assumées par ce Gouvernement, en vertu de cette Convention.

Article VI.—Rien dans cette Convention ne sera interprété par les Hautes Parties Contractantes comme une obligation pour aucune d'entre elles de porter atteinte à l'indépendance de ses institutions pédagogiques ou à sa liberté académique et administrative.

Article VII.—Dans chacun des pays contractants et par l'intermédiaire de l'organe que l'on jugera approprié, on établira des règlements relativement aux détails qui seraient jugés nécessaires, et, avec l'anticipation voulue, on fournira des copies de ces règlements par la voie diplomatique, aux Gouvernements des autres Hautes Parties Contractantes.

Article VIII.—La présente Convention n'affecte pas les engagements contractés antérieurement par les Hautes Parties Contractantes, en vertu d'accords internationaux.

Article IX.—La présente Convention sera ratifiée par les Hautes Parties Contractantes conformément à leurs procédures constitutionnelles. Le Ministère des Affaires Etrangères de la République Argentine conservera les originaux de la présente Convention et est chargé d'en envoyer des copies certifiées authentiques aux Gouvernements. Les instruments de ratification seront déposés aux archives de l'Union Panaméricaine, à Washington, qui fera part de ce dépôt aux Gouvernements signataires; cette notification équivaldra à l'échange des ratifications.

Article X.—La présente Convention entrera en vigueur entre les Hautes Parties Contractantes suivant l'ordre où elles déposeront leurs respectives ratifications.

Article XI.—La présente Convention restera indéfiniment la vigueur, mais pourra être dénoncée moyennant un préavis d'un an à l'Union Panaméricaine qui le transmettra aux autres Gouvernements signataires.

Une fois ce délai écoulé, les effets de la Convention cesseront en ce qui concerne le dénonciateur et elle restera en vigueur pour les autres Hautes Parties Contractantes.

En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires indiqués ci-après, signent et scellent la présente Convention, en espagnol, en anglais, en portugais et en français, dans la ville de Buenos Aires, Capitale de la République Argentine, ce 23 Décembre 1936.

Lesquels, à ce dûment autorisés, sont convenus de ce qui suit:

ARTICLE PREMIER.

Dans la présente Convention les mots suivants sont employés dans le sens précis indiqué ci-dessous:

(a) «Transporteur» comprend le propriétaire du navire ou l'affréteur, partie à un contrat de transport avec un chargeur.

(b) «Contrat de transport» s'applique uniquement au contrat de transport constaté par un connaissement ou par tout document similaire formant titre pour le transport des marchandises par mer; il s'applique également au connaissement ou document similaire émis en vertu d'une charte-partie à partir du moment où ce titre régit les rapports du transporteur et du porteur du connaissement.

(c) «Marchandises» comprend biens, objets, marchandises et articles de nature quelconque, à l'exception des animaux vivants et de la cargaison qui, par le contrat de transport, est déclarée comme mise sur le pont et, en fait, est ainsi transportée.

(d) «Navire» signifie tout bâtiment employé pour le transport des marchandises par mer.

(e) «Transport de marchandises» couvre le temps écoulé depuis le chargement des marchandises à bord du navire jusqu'à leur déchargement du navire.

ARTICLE 2.

Sous réserve des dispositions de l'article 6, le transporteur dans tous les contrats de transport des marchandises par mer sera, quant au chargement, à la manutention, à l'arrimage, au transport, à la garde, aux soins et au déchargement des dites marchandises, soumis aux responsabilités et obligations, comme il bénéficiera des droits et exonérations ci-dessous énoncés.

ARTICLE 3.

1. Le transporteur sera tenu avant et au début du voyage d'exercer une diligence raisonnable pour:

- (a) Mettre le navire en état de navigabilité;
- (b) Convenablement armer, équiper et approvisionner le navire;
- (c) Approprier et mettre en bon état les cales, chambres froides et frigorifiques et toutes autres parties du navire où des marchandises sont chargées pour leur réception, transport et conservation.

2. Le transporteur, sous réserve des dispositions de l'article 4, procédera de façon appropriée et soigneuse au chargement, à la manutention, à l'arrimage, au transport, à la garde, aux soins et au déchargement des marchandises transportées.

3. Après avoir reçu et pris en charge les marchandises, le transporteur ou le capitaine ou agent du transporteur devra, sur demande du chargeur, délivrer au chargeur un connaissement portant entre autres choses:

(a) Les marques principales nécessaires à l'identification des marchandises telles qu'elles sont fournies par écrit par le chargeur avant que le chargement de ces marchandises ne commence, pourvu que ces marques soient imprimées ou apposées clairement de toute autre façon sur les marchandises non emballées ou sur les caisses ou emballages dans lesquelles les marchandises sont contenues, de telle sorte qu'elles devraient normalement rester lisibles jusqu'à la fin du voyage;

(b) Ou le nombre de colis, ou de pièces, ou la quantité ou le poids, suivant les cas, tels qu'ils sont fournis par écrit par le chargeur;

(c) L'état et le conditionnement apparent des marchandises.

Cependant aucun transporteur, capitaine ou agent du transporteur, ne sera tenu de déclarer ou de mentionner, dans le connaissement des marques, un nombre, une quantité ou un poids, dont il a une raison sérieuse de soupçonner qu'ils ne représentent pas exactement les marchandises actuellement reçues par lui, ou qu'il n'a pas eu des moyens raisonnables de vérifier.

4. Un tel connaissement vaudra présomption, sauf preuve contraire, de la réception par le transporteur des marchandises telles qu'elles y sont décrites conformément au § 3, a), b) et c).

5. Le chargeur sera considéré avoir garanti au transporteur, au moment du chargement, l'exactitude des marques, du nombre, de la quantité et du poids tels qu'ils sont fournis par lui, et le chargeur indemniserà le transporteur de toutes pertes, dommages et dépenses provenant ou résultant d'inexactitudes sur ces points. Le droit du transporteur à pareille indemnité ne limitera d'aucune façon sa responsabilité et ses engagements sous l'empire du contrat de transport vis-à-vis de toute personne autre que le chargeur.

6. A moins qu'un avis des pertes ou dommages et de la nature générale de ces pertes ou dommages ne soit donné par écrit au transporteur ou à son agent au port de déchargement, avant ou au moment de l'enlèvement des marchandises, et de leur remise sous la garde de la personne ayant droit à la délivrance sous l'empire du contrat de transport, cet enlèvement constituera, jusqu'à preuve contraire, une présomption que les marchandises ont été délivrées par le transporteur telles qu'elles sont décrites au connaissement.

Si les pertes ou dommages ne sont pas apparents, l'avis doit être donné dans les trois jours de la délivrance.

Les réserves écrites sont inutiles si l'état de la marchandise a été contradictoirement constaté au moment de la réception.

En tous cas le transporteur et le navire seront déchargés de toute responsabilité pour pertes ou dommages à moins qu'une action ne soit intentée dans l'année de la délivrance des marchandises ou de la date à laquelle elles eussent dû être délivrées.

En cas de perte ou dommage certains ou présumés, le transporteur et le réceptionnaire se donneront réciproquement toutes les facilités raisonnables pour l'inspection de la marchandise et la vérification du nombre de colis.

7. Lorsque les marchandises auront été chargées, le connaissement que délivrera le transporteur, capitaine ou agent du transporteur, au chargeur sera, si le chargeur le demande, un connaissement libellé «Embarqué» pourvu que, si le chargeur a auparavant reçu quelque document donnant droit à ces marchandises, il restitue ce document contre remise d'un connaissement «Embarqué». Le transporteur, le capitaine ou l'agent aura également la faculté d'annoter au port d'embarquement, sur le document remis en premier lieu, le ou les noms du ou des navires sur lesquels les marchandises ont été embarquées et la date ou les dates de l'embarquement, et lorsque ce document sera ainsi annoté, il sera, s'il contient les mentions de l'article 3, § 3, considéré aux fins de cet article comme constituant un connaissement libellé «Embarqué».

8. Toute clause, convention ou accord dans un contrat de transport exonérant le transporteur ou le navire de responsabilité pour perte ou dommage concernant des marchandises provenant de négligence, faute ou manquement aux devoirs ou obligations édictées dans cet article ou atténuant cette responsabilité autrement que ne le prescrit la présente Convention, sera nulle, non avenue et sans effet. Une clause cédant le bénéfice de l'assurance au transporteur ou toute clause semblable sera considérée comme exonérant le transporteur de sa responsabilité.

ARTICLE 4.

1. Ni le transporteur ni le navire ne seront responsables des pertes ou dommages provenant ou résultant de l'état d'innavigabilité, à moins qu'il ne soit imputable à un manque de diligence raisonnable de la part du transporteur à mettre le navire en état de navigabilité ou à assurer au navire un armement, équipement ou approvisionnement convenables, ou à approprier et mettre en bon état les cales, chambres froides et frigorifiques et toutes autres parties du navire où des marchandises sont chargées, de façon qu'elles soient aptes à la réception, au transport et à la préservation des marchandises, le tout conformément aux prescriptions de l'article 3, § 1^{er}. Toutes les fois qu'une perte ou un dommage aura résulté de l'innavigabilité, le fardeau de la preuve en ce qui concerne l'exercice de la diligence raisonnable tombera sur le transporteur ou sur toute autre personne se prévalant de l'exonération prévue au présent article.

2. Ni le transporteur ni le navire ne seront responsables pour perte ou dommage résultant ou provenant:

(a) Des actes, négligence ou défaut du capitaine, marin, pilote ou des préposés du transporteur dans la navigation ou dans l'administration du navire;

(b) D'un incendie, à moins qu'il ne soit causé par le fait ou la faute du transporteur;

(c) Des périls, dangers ou accidents de la mer ou d'autres eaux navigables;

(d) D'un « acte de Dieu »;

(e) De faits de guerre;

(f) Du fait d'ennemis publics;

(g) D'un arrêt ou contrainte de prince, autorités ou peuple, ou d'une saisie judiciaire;

(h) D'une restriction de quarantaine;

(i) D'un acte ou d'une omission du chargeur ou propriétaire des marchandises, de son agent ou représentant;

(j) De grèves ou lock-outs ou d'arrêts ou entraves apportés au travail, pour quelque cause que ce soit, partiellement ou complètement;

(k) D'émeutes ou de troubles civils;

(l) D'un sauvetage ou tentative de sauvetage de vies ou de biens en mer;

(m) De la freinte en volume ou en poids ou de toute autre perte ou dommage résultant de vice caché, nature spéciale ou vice propre de la marchandise;

(n) D'une insuffisance d'emballage;

(o) D'une insuffisance ou imperfection de marques;

(p) De vices cachés échappant à une diligence raisonnable;

(q) De toute autre cause ne provenant pas du fait ou de la faute du transporteur ou du fait ou de la faute des agents ou préposés du transporteur, mais le fardeau de la preuve incombera à la personne réclamant le bénéfice de cette exception et il lui appartiendra de montrer que ni la faute personnelle ni le fait du transporteur ni la faute ou le fait des agents ou préposés du transporteur n'ont contribué à la perte ou au dommage.

3. Le chargeur ne sera pas responsable des pertes ou dommages subis par le transporteur ou le navire et qui proviendraient ou résulteraient de toute cause quelconque sans qu'il y ait acte, faute ou négligence du chargeur, de ses agents ou de ses préposés.

4. Aucun déroutement pour sauver ou tenter de sauver des vies ou des biens en mer, ni aucun déroutement raisonnable ne sera considéré comme une infraction à la présente Convention ou au contrat de transport, et le transporteur ne sera responsable d'aucune perte ou dommage en résultant.

5. Le transporteur comme le navire ne seront tenus en aucun cas des pertes ou dommages causés aux marchandises ou les concernant pour une somme dépassant 100 liv. sterl. par colis ou unité, ou l'équivalent de cette somme en une autre monnaie, à moins que la nature et la valeur de ces marchandises n'aient été déclarées par le chargeur avant leur embarquement et que cette déclaration ait été insérée au connaissement.

Cette déclaration ainsi insérée dans le connaissement constituera une présomption, sauf preuve contraire, mais elle ne liera pas le transporteur, qui pourra la contester.

Par convention entre le transporteur, capitaine ou agent du transporteur et le chargeur, une somme maximum différente de celle inscrite dans ce paragraphe peut être déterminée, pourvu que ce maximum conventionnel ne soit pas inférieur au chiffre ci-dessus fixé.

Ni le transporteur ni le navire ne seront en aucun cas responsables pour perte ou dommage causé aux marchandises ou les concernant, si dans le connaissement le chargeur a fait sciemment une déclaration fausse de leur nature ou de leur valeur.

6. Les marchandises de nature inflammable, explosive ou dangereuse, à l'embarquement desquelles le transporteur, le capitaine ou l'agent du transporteur n'auraient pas consenti, en connaissant leur nature ou leur caractère, pourront à tout moment, avant déchargement, être débarquées à tout endroit ou détruites ou rendues inoffensives par le transporteur sans indemnité et le chargeur de ces marchandises sera responsable de tout dommage et dépenses provenant ou résultant directement ou indirectement de leur embarquement. Si quelque-une de ces marchandises embarquées à la connaissance et avec le consentement du transporteur devenait un danger pour le navire ou la cargaison, elle pourrait de même façon être débarquée ou détruite ou rendue inoffensive par le transporteur, sans responsabilité de la part du transporteur si ce n'est du chef d'avaries communes, s'il y a lieu.

ARTICLE 5.

Un transporteur sera libre d'abandonner tout ou partie de ses droits et exonérations ou d'augmenter ses responsabilités et obligations tels que les uns et les autres sont prévus par la présente Convention, pourvu que cet abandon ou cette augmentation soit inséré dans le connaissement délivré au chargeur.

Aucune disposition de la présente Convention ne s'applique aux chartes-parties; mais si des connaissements sont émis dans le cas d'un navire sous l'empire d'une charte-partie, ils sont soumis aux termes de la présente Convention. Aucune disposition dans ces règles ne sera considérée comme empêchant l'insertion dans un connaissement d'une disposition licite quelconque ou sujet d'avaries communes.

ARTICLE 6.

Nonobstant les dispositions des articles précédents, un transporteur, capitaine ou agent du transporteur et un chargeur seront libres, pour des marchandises déterminées, quelles qu'elles soient, de passer un contrat quelconque avec des conditions quelconques concernant la responsabilité et les obligations du transporteur pour ces marchan-disés, ainsi que les droits et exonérations du transporteur au sujet de ces mêmes marchandises, ou concernant ses obligations quant à l'état de navigabilité du navire dans la mesure où cette stipulation n'est pas contraire à l'ordre public, ou concernant les soins ou diligence de ses préposés ou agents quant au chargement, à la manutention, à l'arrimage, au transport, à la garde, aux soins et au déchargement des marchandises transportées par mer, pourvu qu'en ce cas aucun connaissement n'ait été ou ne soit émis et que les conditions de l'accord intervenu soient insérées dans un récépissé qui sera un document non négociable et portera mention de ce caractère.

Toute convention ainsi conclue aura plein effet légal.

Il est toutefois convenu que cet article ne s'appliquera pas aux cargaisons commerciales ordinaires, faites au cours d'opérations commerciales ordinaires, mais seulement à d'autres chargements où le caractère et la condition des biens à transporter et les circonstances, les termes et les conditions auxquels le transport doit se faire sont de nature à justifier une convention spéciale.

ARTICLE 7.

Aucune disposition de la présente Convention ne défend à un transporteur ou à un chargeur d'insérer dans un contrat des stipulations, conditions, réserves ou exonérations relatives aux obligations et responsabilités du transporteur ou du navire pour la perte ou les dommages survenant aux marchandises, ou concernant leur garde, soin et manutention, antérieurement au chargement et postérieurement au déchargement du navire sur lequel les marchandises sont transportées par mer.

ARTICLE 8.

Les dispositions de la présente Convention ne modifient ni les droits ni les obligations du transporteur tels qu'ils résultent de toute loi en vigueur en ce moment relativement à la limitation de la responsabilité des propriétaires de navires de mer.

ARTICLE 9.

Les unités monétaires dont il s'agit dans la présente Convention s'entendent valeur or.

Ceux des Etats contractants où la livre sterling n'est pas employée comme unité monétaire se réservent le droit de convertir en chiffres ronds, d'après leur système monétaire, les sommes indiquées en livres sterling dans la présente Convention.

Les lois nationales peuvent réserver au débiteur la faculté de se libérer dans la monnaie nationale, d'après le cours du change au jour de l'arrivée du navire au port de déchargement de la marchandise dont il s'agit.

ARTICLE 10.

Les dispositions de la présente Convention s'appliqueront à tout connaissement créé dans un des Etats contractants.

ARTICLE 11.

A l'expiration du délai de deux ans au plus tard à compter du jour de la signature de la Convention, le Gouvernement belge entrera en rapport avec les Gouvernements des Hautes Parties contractantes qui se seront déclarées prêtes à la ratifier, à l'effet de faire décider s'il y a lieu de la mettre en vigueur. Les ratifications seront déposées à Bruxelles à la date qui sera fixée de commun accord entre les dits Gouvernements. Le premier dépôt de ratifications sera constaté par un procès-verbal signé par les représentants des États qui y prendront part et par le Ministre des Affaires Étrangères de Belgique.

Les dépôts ultérieurs se feront au moyen d'une notification écrite, adressée au Gouvernement belge et accompagnée de l'instrument de ratification.

Copie certifiée conforme au procès-verbal relatif au premier dépôt de ratifications, de notifications mentionnées à l'alinéa précédent, ainsi que des instruments de ratifications qui les accompagnent sera immédiatement, par les soins du Gouvernement belge et par la voie diplomatique, remise aux États qui ont signé la présente Convention ou qui auront adhéré. Dans les cas visés à l'alinéa précédent, ledit Gouvernement fera connaître, en même temps, la date à laquelle il a reçu la notification.

ARTICLE 12.

Les États non signataires pourront adhérer à la présente Convention, qu'ils aient été ou non représentés à la Conférence internationale de Bruxelles.

L'État qui désire adhérer notifie par écrit son intention au Gouvernement belge, en lui transmettant l'acte d'adhésion, qui sera déposé dans les archives du dit Gouvernement.

Le Gouvernement belge transmettra immédiatement à tous les États signataires ou adhérents copie certifiée conforme de la notification ainsi que de l'acte d'adhésion en indiquant la date à laquelle il a reçu la notification.

ARTICLE 13.

Les Hautes Parties contractantes peuvent, au moment de la signature, du dépôt des ratifications ou lors de leur adhésion, déclarer que l'acceptation qu'elles donnent à la présente Convention ne s'applique pas soit à certains soit à aucun des Dominions autonomes, colonies, possessions, protectorats ou territoires d'outre-mer, se trouvant sous leur souveraineté ou autorité. En conséquence, elles peuvent ultérieurement adhérer séparément au nom de l'un ou de l'autre de ces Dominions autonomes, colonies, possessions, protectorats ou territoires d'outre-mer, ainsi exclus dans leur déclaration originale. Elles peuvent aussi, en se conformant à ces dispositions, dénoncer la présente Convention séparément pour l'un ou plusieurs des Dominions autonomes, colonies, possessions, protectorats ou territoires d'outre-mer se trouvant sous leur souveraineté ou autorité.

ARTICLE 14.

A l'égard des États qui auront participé au premier dépôt de ratifications, la présente Convention produira effet un an après la date du procès-verbal de ce dépôt. Quant aux États qui la ratifieront ultérieurement ou qui y adhéreront, ainsi que dans les cas où la mise en vigueur se fera ultérieurement et selon l'article 13, elle produira effet six mois après que les notifications prévues à l'article 11, alinéa 2, et à l'article 12, alinéa 2, auront été reçues par le Gouvernement belge.

ARTICLE 15.

S'il arrivait qu'un des États contractants voulut dénoncer la présente Convention, la dénonciation sera notifiée par écrit au Gouvernement belge, qui communiquera immédiatement copie certifiée conforme de la notification à tous les autres États, en leur faisant savoir la date à laquelle il l'a reçue.

La dénonciation produira ses effets à l'égard de l'État seul qui l'aura notifiée et un an après que la notification en sera parvenue au Gouvernement belge.

ARTICLE 16.

Chaque État contractant aura la faculté de provoquer la réunion d'une nouvelle conférence, dans le but de rechercher les améliorations qui pourraient être apportées à la présente Convention.

Celui des États qui ferait usage de cette faculté aurait à notifier un an à l'avance son intention aux autres États, par l'intermédiaire du Gouvernement belge, qui se chargerait de convoquer la conférence.

AMBASSADE IMPÉRIALE DU

Note annexée à la lettre de S. Exc. M. l'Ambassadeur du Japon à M. le Ministre des Affaires Étrangères de Belgique, du 25 août 1925.

Au moment de procéder à la signature de la Convention internationale pour l'unification de certaines règles en matière de connaissement, le soussigné, Plénipotentiaire du Japon, fait les réserves suivantes:

a) A L'ARTICLE 4:

Le Japon se réserve, jusqu'à nouvel ordre l'acceptation des dispositions du a) à l'alinéa 2 de l'article 4.

b) Le Japon est d'avis que la Convention, dans sa totalité, ne s'applique pas au cabotage national; par conséquent, il n'y aurait pas lieu d'en faire l'objet de dispositions au Protocole. Toutefois, s'il n'en est pas ainsi, le Japon se réserve le droit de régler librement le cabotage national par sa propre législation.

M. ADATCI.

Bruxelles, le 25 août 1925.

AND WHEREAS the said convention, in accordance with a provision in Article 14 thereof, came into force on June 2, 1931, one year after the deposit with the Government of Belgium of the ratifications of the States which took part in the first deposit of ratifications on June 2, 1930, namely, Belgium, Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Spain, and Hungary;

AND WHEREAS the said convention was duly ratified on May 26, 1937, on the part of the United States of America, subject to two understandings as follows:

1. ARTICLE 1

In this convention the following words are employed with the meanings set out below:

Definitions.

(a) "Carrier" includes the owner of the vessel or the charterer who enters into a contract of carriage with a shipper.

(b) "Contract of carriage" applies only to contracts of carriage covered by a bill of lading or any similar document of title, insofar as such document relates to the carriage of goods by sea; it also applies to any bill of lading or any similar document as aforesaid issued under or pursuant to a charter party from the moment at which such instrument regulates the relations between a carrier and a holder of the same.

(c) "Goods" includes goods, wares, merchandise, and articles of every kind whatsoever except live animals and cargo which by the contract of carriage is stated as being carried on deck and is so carried.

(d) "Ship" means any vessel used for the carriage of goods by sea.

(e) "Carriage of goods" covers the period from the time when the goods are loaded on to the time they are discharged from the ship.

ARTICLE 2

Subject to the provisions of Article 6 under every contract of carriage of goods by sea the carrier, in relation to the loading, handling, stowage, carriage, custody, care, and discharge of such goods shall be subject to the responsibilities and liabilities, and entitled to the rights and immunities hereinafter set forth.

Carrier: responsibilities, rights, etc.
Post, p. 252.

ARTICLE 3

1. The carrier shall be bound before and at the beginning of the voyage to exercise due diligence to:—

Duties, before and at beginning of voyage.

(a) Make the ship seaworthy;

(b) Properly man, equip, and supply the ship;

(c) Make the holds, refrigerating and cool chambers, and all other parts of the ship in which goods are carried, fit and safe for their reception, carriage, and preservation.

2. Subject to the provisions of Article 4 the carrier shall properly and carefully load, handle, stow, carry, keep, care for, and discharge the goods carried.

Loading, etc., of goods.
Post, p. 251.

3. After receiving the goods into his charge the carrier or the master or agent of the carrier shall, on demand of the shipper, issue to the shipper a bill of lading showing among other things:

Bill of lading; issuance to shipper.

(a) The leading marks necessary for identification of the goods as the same are furnished in writing by the shipper before the loading of such goods starts, provided such marks are stamped or otherwise shown clearly upon the goods if uncovered, or on the cases or coverings in which such goods are contained, in such a manner as should ordinarily remain legible until the end of the voyage;

(b) Either the number of packages or pieces, or the quantity, or weight, as the case may be, as furnished in writing by the shipper;

	(c) The apparent order and condition of the goods;
Proviso. Checking goods.	Provided that no carrier, master, or agent of the carrier shall be bound to state or show in the bill of lading any marks, number, quantity, or weight which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting not accurately to represent the goods actually received or which he has had no reasonable means of checking.
Evidence of receipt.	4. Such a bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the carrier of the goods as therein described in accordance with paragraph 3 (a), (b), and (c).
Accuracy of marks, etc.	5. The shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the carrier the accuracy at the time of shipment of the marks, number, quantity, and weight, as furnished by him, and the shipper shall indemnify the carrier against all loss, damages, and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in such particulars. The right of the carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper.
Indemnity for error.	6. Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of carriage, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the carrier of the goods as described in the bill of lading.
Removal to be prima facie evidence of delivery.	If the loss or damage is not apparent, the notice must be given within three days of the delivery.
Notice of loss when damage not apparent.	The notice in writing need not be given if the state of the goods has at the time of their receipt been the subject of joint survey or inspection.
Exception.	In any event the carrier and the ship shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss or damage unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.
Failure to bring suit; discharge of liability.	In the case of any actual or apprehended loss or damage the carrier and the receiver shall give all reasonable facilities to each other for inspecting and tallying the goods.
Mutual rights, in case of loss.	7. After the goods are loaded the bill of lading to be issued by the carrier, master, or agent of the carrier to the shipper shall, if the shipper so demands, be a "shipped" bill of lading, provided that if the shipper shall have previously taken up any document of title to such goods, he shall surrender the same as against the issue of the "shipped" bill of lading. At the option of the carrier such document of title may be noted at the port of shipment by the carrier, master, or agent with the name or names of the ship or ships upon which the goods have been shipped and the date or dates of shipment, and when so noted, if it shows the particulars mentioned in paragraph 3 of Article 3, it shall for the purpose of this article be deemed to constitute a "shipped" bill of lading.
"Shipped" bill of lading.	8. Any clause, covenant, or agreement in a contract of carriage relieving the carrier or the ship from liability for loss or damage to or in connection with goods arising from negligence, fault, or failure in the duties and obligations provided in this article, or lessening such liability otherwise than as provided in this convention, shall be null and void and of no effect. A benefit of insurance in favor of the carrier or similar clause shall be deemed to be a clause relieving the carrier from liability.

ARTICLE 4

1. Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be liable for loss or damage arising or resulting from unseaworthiness unless caused by want of due diligence on the part of the carrier to make the ship seaworthy and to secure that the ship is properly manned, equipped, and supplied and to make the holds, refrigerating and cool chambers, and all other parts of the ship in which goods are carried fit and safe for their reception, carriage, and preservation in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 3. Whenever loss or damage has resulted from unseaworthiness, the burden of proving the exercise of due diligence shall be on the carrier or other person claiming exemption under this article.

Rights and immunities of carriers.
Loss from unseaworthiness.

Burden of proof.

2. Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible for loss or damage arising or resulting from:

Exemption from liability from designated causes.

(a) Act, neglect, or default of the master, mariner, pilot, or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship;

(b) Fire, unless caused by the actual fault or privity of the carrier;

(c) Perils, dangers, and accidents of the sea or other navigable waters;

(d) Act of God;

(e) Act of war;

(f) Act of public enemies;

(g) Arrest or restraint of princes, rulers, or people or seizure under legal process;

(h) Quarantine restrictions;

(i) Act or omission of the shipper or owner of the goods, his agent, or representative;

(j) Strikes or lockouts or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, whether partial or general;

(k) Riots and civil commotions;

(l) Saving or attempting to save life or property at sea;

(m) Wastage in bulk or weight or any other loss or damage arising from inherent defect, quality, or vice of the goods;

(n) Insufficiency of packing;

(o) Insufficiency or inadequacy of marks;

(p) Latent defects not discoverable by due diligence;

(q) Any other cause arising without the actual fault or privity of the carrier, or without the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier, but the burden of proof shall be on the person claiming the benefit of this exception to show that neither the actual fault or privity of the carrier nor the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier contributed to the loss or damage.

Other causes not fault of carrier.

Burden of proof.

3. The shipper shall not be responsible for loss or damage sustained by the carrier or the ship arising or resulting from any cause without the act, fault, or neglect of the shipper, his agents, or his servants.

Shipper not responsible for damage to carrier without fault.

Certain deviations not breaches.

4. Any deviation in saving or attempting to save life or property at sea or any reasonable deviation shall not be deemed to be an infringement or breach of this convention or of the contract of carriage, and the carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom.

Limitation on carrier's liability.

5. Neither the carrier nor the ship shall in any event be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with goods in an amount exceeding 100 pounds sterling per package or unit or the equivalent of that sum in other currency unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the shipper before shipment and inserted in the bill of lading.

This declaration if embodied in the bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence but shall not be binding or conclusive on the carrier.

Different maximum by agreement.

By agreement between the carrier, master, or agent of the carrier and the shipper another maximum amount than that mentioned in this paragraph may be fixed, provided that such maximum shall not be less than the figure above named.

Misstatements, effect of.

Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible in any event for loss or damage to, or in connection with, goods if the nature or value thereof has been knowingly misstated by the shipper in the bill of lading.

Inflammable, etc.,
position, etc.

6. Goods of an inflammable, explosive, or dangerous nature to the shipment whereof the carrier, master, or agent of the carrier has not consented with knowledge of their nature and character may at any time before discharge be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the carrier without compensation, and the shipper of such goods shall be liable for all damages and expenses directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from such shipment. If any such goods shipped with such knowledge and consent shall become a danger to the ship or cargo, they may in like manner be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the carrier without liability on the part of the carrier except to general average, if any.

ARTICLE 5

Surrender of rights, etc., and increase of responsibilities, etc.

A carrier shall be at liberty to surrender in whole or in part all or any of his rights and immunities, or to increase any of his responsibilities and liabilities under this convention provided such surrender or increase shall be embodied in the bill of lading issued to the shipper.

Inapplicability to charter parties.

The provisions of this convention shall not be applicable to charter parties, but if bills of lading are issued in the case of a ship under a charter-party they shall comply with the terms of this convention. Nothing in these rules shall be held to prevent the insertion in a bill of lading of any lawful provision regarding general average.

ARTICLE 6

Special conditions.
Agreements between carrier and shipper, effect of.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding articles, a carrier, master, or agent of the carrier and a shipper shall in regard to any particular goods be at liberty to enter into any agreement in any terms as to the responsibility and liability of the carrier for such goods, and as to the rights and immunities of the carrier in respect of such goods, or concerning his obligation as to seaworthiness so far as this stipulation is not contrary to public policy, or concerning the care or diligence of his servants or agents in regard to the loading, handling, stowage, carriage, custody, care, and discharge of the goods carried by sea, provided that in this case no bill of lading has been or shall be issued and that the terms agreed shall be embodied in a receipt which shall be a nonnegotiable document and shall be marked as such.

Any agreement so entered into shall have full legal effect:

Provided that this article shall not apply to ordinary commercial shipments made in the ordinary course of trade, but only to other shipments where the character or condition of the property to be carried or the circumstances, terms, and conditions under which the carriage is to be performed are such as reasonably to justify a special agreement.

*Proviso.
Exceptions.*

ARTICLE 7

Nothing herein contained shall prevent a carrier or a shipper from entering into any agreement, stipulation, condition, reservation, or exemption as to the responsibility and liability of the carrier or the ship for the loss or damage to, or in connection with, the custody and care and handling of goods prior to the loading on, and subsequent to the discharge from, the ship on which the goods are carried by sea.

*Liability for goods

They may also denounce the convention separately in accordance with its provisions in respect of any self-governing dominion, or any colony, overseas possession, protectorate, or territory under their sovereignty or authority.

Effective dates.

The present convention shall take effect, in the case of the States which have taken part in the first deposit of ratifications, one year after the date of the procès-verbal recording such deposit. As respects the States which ratify subsequently or which accede, and also in cases in which the convention is subsequently put into effect in

In the event of one of the contracting States wishing to denounce the present convention, the denunciation shall be notified in writing to the Belgian Government, which shall immediately communicate a duly certified copy of the notification to all the other States informing them of the date on which it was received.

Denunciation.

The denunciation shall only operate in respect of the State which made the notification, and on the expiry of one year after the notification has reached the Belgian Government.

The American Chargé d'Affaires ad interim (Sussdorff) to the Belgian Minister for Foreign Affairs and Foreign Commerce (Spaak)

No. 965

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Brussels, June 26, 1937.

EXCELLENCY,

Notification effecting deposit of ratification of the United States of America.

Acting under instructions from my Government, I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that the United States of America has ratified the convention for the unification of certain rules relating to bills of lading for the carriage of goods by sea and a protocol of signature thereto, dated and opened for signature at Brussels on August 25, 1924, and signed on behalf of the United States of America at Brussels on June 23, 1925.

Subject to designated understandings.

The convention is ratified by the United States of America with two understandings, to which the Senate made its advice and consent subject, namely:

"that notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4, Section 5, and the first paragraph of Article 9 of the convention, neither the carrier nor the ship shall in any event be or become liable within the jurisdiction of the United States of America for any loss or damage to or in connection with goods in an amount exceeding $500.00, lawful money of the United States of America, per package or unit unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the shipper before shipment and inserted in the bill of lading"; and

"that should any conflict arise between the provisions of the convention and the provisions of the act of April 16, 1936, known as the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, the provisions of said act shall prevail."

In accordance with the second paragraph of Article 11 of the convention, which provides that ratifications deposited subsequent to the signature of the procès-verbal relating to the first deposit of ratifications shall be made by means of a written notification addressed to Your Excellency's Government and accompanied by the instrument of ratification, I have the honor to transmit herewith the instrument of ratification of the United States of America, signed by the President on May 26, 1937.¹

There are also enclosed for the information of Your Excellency's Government a copy of the "Carriage of Goods by Sea Act" of 1936,¹ and of a memorandum prepared by my Government showing a comparison between the Act and the Convention.² Additional copies of the Act and the memorandum will be made available to Your Excellency at an early date for transmission to the other signatory Governments.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest consideration.

[Enclosure 2]

Carriage of Goods

[CARRIAGE OF GOODS BY SEA ACT ¹]

AN ACT

Relating to the carriage of goods by sea.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every bill of lading or similar document of title which is evidence of a contract for the carriage of goods by sea to or from ports of the United States, in foreign trade, shall have effect subject to the provisions of this Act.

TITLE I

SECTION 1. When used in this Act—

(a) The term “carrier” includes the owner or the charterer who enters into a contract of carriage with a shipper.

¹ Public, No. 521, 74th Cong., 49 Stat. 1207.

(b) The term "contract of carriage" applies only to contracts of carriage covered by a bill of lading or any similar document of title, insofar as such document relates to the carriage of goods by sea, including any bill of lading or any similar document as aforesaid issued under or pursuant to a charter party from the moment at which such bill of lading or similar document of title regulates the relations between a carrier and a holder of the same.

(c) The term "goods" includes goods, wares, merchandise, and articles of every kind whatsoever, except live animals and cargo which by the contract of carriage is stated as being carried on deck and is so carried.

(d) The term "ship" means any vessel used for the carriage of goods by sea.

(e) The term "carriage of goods" covers the period from the time when the goods are loaded on to the time when they are discharged from the ship.

RISKS

SEC. 2. Subject to the provisions of section 6, under every contract of carriage of goods by sea, the carrier in relation to the loading, handling, stowage, carriage, custody, care, and discharge of such goods, shall be subject to the responsibilities and liabilities and entitled to the rights and immunities hereinafter set forth.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITIES

SEC. 3. (1) The carrier shall be bound, before and at the beginning of the voyage, to exercise due diligence to—

(a) Make the ship seaworthy;

(b) Properly man, equip, and supply the ship;

(c) Make the holds, refrigerating and cooling chambers, and all other parts of the ship in which goods are carried, fit and safe for their reception, carriage, and preservation.

(2) The carrier shall properly and carefully load, handle, stow, carry, keep, care for, and discharge the goods carried.

(3) After receiving the goods into his charge the carrier, or the master or agent of the carrier, shall, on demand of the shipper, issue to the shipper a bill of lading showing among other things—

(a) The leading marks necessary for identification of the goods as the same are furnished in writing by the shipper before the loading of such goods starts, provided such marks are stamped or otherwise shown clearly upon the goods if uncovered, or on the cases or coverings in which such goods are contained, in such a manner as should ordinarily remain legible until the end of the voyage.

(b) Either the number of packages or pieces, or the quantity or weight, as the case may be, as furnished in writing by the shipper.

(c) The apparent order and condition of the goods: Provided, That no carrier, master, or agent of the carrier, shall be bound to state or show in the bill of lading any marks, number, quantity, or weight which he has reasonable ground for suspecting not accurately to represent the goods actually received, or which he has had no reasonable means of checking.

(4) Such a bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the carrier of the goods as therein described in accordance with paragraphs (3) (a), (b), and (c), of this section: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing or limiting the application of any part of the Act, as amended, entitled "An Act relating to bills of lading in interstate and foreign commerce", approved August 29, 1916 (U. S. C., title 49, secs. 81-124), commonly known as the "Pomerene Bills of Lading Act."

(5) The shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the carrier the accuracy at the time of shipment of the marks, number, quantity, and weight, as furnished by him; and the shipper shall indemnify the carrier against all loss, damages, and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in such particulars. The right of the carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper.

(6) Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of carriage, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the carrier of the goods as described in the bill of lading. If the loss or damage is not apparent, the notice must be given within three days of the delivery.

Said notice of loss or damage may be endorsed upon the receipt for the goods given by the person taking delivery thereof.

The notice in writing need not be given if the state of the goods has at the time of their receipt been the subject of joint survey or inspection.

In any event the carrier and the ship shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss or damage unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered: Provided, That if a notice of loss or damage, either apparent or concealed, is not given as provided for in this section, that fact shall not affect or prejudice the right of the shipper to bring suit within one year after the delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.

In the case of any actual or apprehended loss or damage the carrier and the receiver shall give all reasonable facilities to each other for inspecting and tallying the goods.

(7) After the goods are loaded the bill of lading to be issued by the carrier, master, or agent of the carrier to the shipper shall, if the shipper so demands, be a "shipped" bill of lading: Provided, That if the shipper shall have previously taken up any document of title to such goods, he shall surrender the same as against the issue of the "shipped" bill of lading, but at the option of the carrier such document of title may be noted at the port of shipment by the carrier, master, or agent with the name or names of the ship or ships upon which the goods have been shipped and the date or dates of shipment, and when so noted the same shall for the purpose of this section be deemed to constitute a "shipped" bill of lading.

(8) Any clause, covenant, or agreement in a contract of carriage relieving the carrier or the ship from liability for loss or damage to or in connection with the goods, arising from negligence, fault, or failure in the duties and obligations provided in this section, or lessening such liability otherwise than as provided in this Act, shall be null and void and of no effect. A benefit of insurance in favor of the carrier, or similar clause, shall be deemed to be a clause relieving the carrier from liability.

RIGHTS AND IMMUNITIES

SEC. 4. (1) Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be liable for loss or damage arising or resulting from unseaworthiness unless caused by want of due diligence on the part of the carrier to make the ship seaworthy, and to secure that the ship is properly manned, equipped, and supplied, and to make the holds, refrigerating and cool chambers, and all other parts of the ship in which goods are carried fit and safe for their reception, carriage, and preservation in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of section 3. Whenever loss or damage has resulted from unseaworthiness, the burden of proving the exercise of due diligence shall be on the carrier or other persons claiming exemption under this section.

(2) Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible for loss or damage arising or resulting from—

(a) Act, neglect, or default of the master, mariner, pilot, or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship;

(b) Fire, unless caused by the actual fault or privity of the carrier;

(c) Perils, dangers, and accidents of the sea or other navigable waters;

(d) Act of God;

(e) Act of war;

(f) Act of public enemies;

(g) Arrest or restraint of princes, rulers, or people, or seizure under legal process;

(h) Quarantine restrictions;

(i) Act or omission of the shipper or owner of the goods, his agent or representative;

(j) Strikes or lockouts or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, whether partial or general: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve a carrier from responsibility for the carrier's own acts;

(k) Riots and civil commotions;

(l) Saving or attempting to save life or property at sea;

(m) Wastage in bulk or weight or any other loss or damage arising from inherent defect, quality, or vice of the goods;

(n) Insufficiency of packing;

(o) Insufficiency or inadequacy of marks;
(p) Latent defects not discoverable by due diligence; and
(q) Any other cause arising without the actual fault and privity of the carrier and without the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier, but the burden of proof shall be on the person claiming the benefit of this exception to show that neither the actual fault or privity of the carrier nor the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier contributed to the loss or damage.

(3) The shipper shall not be responsible for loss or damage sustained by the carrier or the ship arising or resulting from any cause without the act, fault, or neglect of the shipper, his agents, or his servants.

(4) Any deviation in saving or attempting to save life or property at sea, or any reasonable deviation shall not be deemed to be an infringement or breach of this Act or of the contract of carriage, and the carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom: Provided, however, That if the deviation is for the purpose of loading or unloading cargo or passengers it shall, prima facie, be regarded as unreasonable.

(5) Neither the carrier nor the ship shall in any event be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the transportation of goods in an amount exceeding $500 per package lawful money of the United States, or in case of goods not shipped in packages, per customary freight unit, or the equivalent of that sum in other currency, unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the shipper before shipment and inserted in the bill of lading. This declaration, if embodied in the bill of lading, shall be prima facie evidence, but shall not be conclusive on the carrier.

By agreement between the carrier, master, or agent of the carrier, and the shipper another maximum amount than that mentioned in this paragraph may be fixed: Provided, That such maximum shall not be less than the figure above named. In no event shall the carrier be liable for more than the amount of damage actually sustained.

Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible in any event for loss or damage to or in connection with the transportation of the goods if the nature or value thereof has been knowingly and fraudulently misstated by the shipper in the bill of lading.

(6) Goods of an inflammable, explosive, or dangerous nature to the shipment whereof the carrier, master or agent of the carrier, has not consented with knowledge of their nature and character, may at any time before discharge be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the carrier without compensation, and the shipper of such goods shall be liable for all damages and expenses directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from such shipment. If any such goods shipped with such knowledge and consent shall become a danger to the ship or cargo, they may in like manner be landed at any place, or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the carrier without liability on the part of the carrier except to general average, if any.

SURRENDER OF RIGHTS AND IMMUNITIES AND INCREASE OF RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITIES

SEC. 5. A carrier shall be at liberty to surrender in whole or in part all or any of his rights and immunities or to increase any of his responsibilities and liabilities under this Act, provided such surrender or increase shall be embodied in the bill of lading issued to the shipper.

The provisions of this Act shall not be applicable to charter parties; but if bills of lading are issued in the case of a ship under a charter party, they shall comply with the terms of this Act. Nothing in this Act shall be held to prevent the insertion in a bill of lading of any lawful provision regarding general average.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sections, a carrier, master or agent of the carrier, and a shipper shall, in regard to any particular goods be at liberty to enter into any agreement in any terms as to the responsibility and liability of the carrier for such goods, and as to the rights and immunities of the carrier in respect of such goods, or his obligation as to seaworthiness (so far as the stipulation regarding seaworthiness is not contrary to public policy), or the care or diligence of his servants or agents in regard to the loading, handling, stowage, carriage, custody, care, and discharge of the goods carried by sea: Provided, That in this case no bill of lading has been or shall be issued and that the terms agreed shall be embodied in a receipt which shall be a nonnegotiable document and shall be marked as such.

Any agreement so entered into shall have full legal effect: Provided, That this section shall not apply to ordinary commercial shipments made in the ordinary course of trade but only to other shipments where the character or condition of the property to be carried or the circumstances, terms, and conditions under which the carriage is to be performed are such as reasonably to justify a special agreement.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Act shall prevent a carrier or a shipper from entering into any agreement, stipulation, condition, reservation, or exemption as to the responsibility and liability of the carrier or the ship for the loss or damage to or in connection with the custody and care and handling of goods prior to the loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the ship on which the goods are carried by sea.

SEC. 8. The provisions of this Act shall not affect the rights and obligations of the carrier under the provisions of the Shipping Act, 1916, or under the provisions of sections 4281 to 4289, inclusive, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or of any amendments thereto; or under the provisions of any other enactment for the time being in force relating to the limitation of the liability of the owners of seagoing vessels.

TITLE II

SECTION 9. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as permitting a common carrier by water to discriminate between competing shippers similarly placed in time and circumstances, either (a) with respect to their right to demand and receive bills of lading subject to the provisions of this Act; or (b) when issuing such bills of lading, either in the surrender of any of the carrier's rights and immunities or in the increase of any of the carrier's responsibilities and liabilities pursuant to section 5, title I, of this Act; or (c) in any other way prohibited by the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended.

SEC. 10. Section 25 of the Interstate Commerce Act is hereby amended by adding the following proviso at the end of paragraph 4 thereof: "Provided, however, That insofar as any bill of lading authorized hereunder relates to the carriage of goods by sea, such bill of lading shall be subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act."

SEC. 11. Where under the customs of any trade the weight of any bulk cargo inserted in the bill of lading is a weight ascertained or accepted by a third party other than the carrier or the shipper, and the fact that the weight is so ascertained or accepted is stated in the bill of lading, then, notwithstanding anything in this Act, the bill of lading shall not be deemed to be prima facie evidence against the carrier of the receipt of goods of the weight so inserted in the bill of lading, and the accuracy thereof at the time of shipment shall not be deemed to have been guaranteed by the shipper.

SEC. 12. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as superseding any part of the Act entitled "An Act relating to navigation of vessels, bills of lading, and to certain obligations, duties, and rights in connection with the carriage of property", approved February 13, 1893, or of any other law which would be applicable in the absence of this Act, insofar as they relate to the duties, responsibilities, and liabilities of the ship or carrier prior to the time when the goods are loaded on or after the time they are discharged from the ship.

SEC. 13. This Act shall apply to all contracts for carriage of goods by sea to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade. As used in this Act the term "United States" includes its districts, territories, and possessions: Provided, however, That the Philippine Legislature may by law exclude its application to transportation to or from ports of the Philippine Islands. The term "foreign trade" means the transportation of goods between the ports of the United States and ports of foreign countries. Nothing in this Act shall be held to apply to contracts for carriage of goods by sea between any port of the United States or its possessions, and any other port of the United States or its possessions: Provided, however, That any bill of lading or similar document of title which is evidence of a contract for the carriage of goods by sea between such ports, containing an express statement that it shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, shall be subjected hereto as fully as if subject hereto by the express provisions of this Act: Provided further, That every bill of lading or similar document of title which is evidence of a contract for the carriage of goods by sea from ports of the United States, in foreign trade, shall contain a statement that it shall have effect subject to the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 14. Upon the certification of the Secretary of Commerce that the foreign commerce of the United States in its competition with that of foreign nations is prejudiced by the provisions, or any of them, of title I of this Act, or by the laws of any foreign country or countries relating to the carriage of goods by sea, the President of the United States may, from time to time, by proclamation, suspend any or all provisions of title I of this Act for such periods of time or indefinitely as may be designated in the proclamation. The President may at any time rescind such suspension of title I hereof, and any provisions thereof which may have been suspended shall thereby be reinstated and again apply to contracts thereafter made for the carriage of goods by sea. Any proclamation of suspension or rescission of any such suspension shall take effect on a date named therein, which date shall be not less than ten days from the issue of the proclamation.

Any contract for the carriage of goods by sea, subject to the provisions of this Act, effective during any period when title I hereof, or any part thereof, is suspended, shall be subject to all provisions of law now or hereafter applicable to that part of title I which may have thus been suspended.

SEC. 15. This Act shall take effect ninety days after the date of its approval; but nothing in this Act shall apply during a period not to exceed one year following its approval to any contract for the carriage of goods by sea, made before the date on which this Act is approved, nor to any bill of lading or similar document of title issued, whether before or after such date of approval in pursuance of any such contract as aforesaid.

SEC. 16. This Act may be cited as the "Carriage of Goods by Sea Act."

Approved, April 16, 1936.

[Enclosure 3]

[MEMORANDUM OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE]

Comparison of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States of America, Approved April 16, 1936, and the Bills of Lading Convention concluded at Brussels, August 25, 1924.

Memorandum showing a comparison between the Act and the Convention.

By the enacting clause of the Act Relating to the Carriage of Goods by Sea, approved April 16, 1936, every bill of lading or similar document of title which is evidence of a contract for the carriage of goods by sea to or from ports of the United States, in foreign trade, shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Act.

TITLE I

1. Section 3, subsection (2) of the Act does not contain the words "Subject to the provisions of Article 4" or their equivalent with which paragraph 2 of Article 3 of the Convention begins. The subsection, the words which are in the Convention but not in the act being placed in parentheses, is as follows:

"SEC. 3. . . .

"(2) ("Subject to the provisions of Article 4) The carrier shall properly and carefully load, handle, stow, carry, keep, care for, and discharge the goods carried."

2. Section 3, subsection (4) of the Act contains a proviso which is not in the Convention reserving the Act relating to bills of lading in interstate and foreign commerce, approved August 29, 1916 (Pomerene Act). The proviso is underlined¹ in the following quotation from the Act:

"SEC. 3. . . .

"(4) Such a bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the carrier of the goods as therein described in accordance with paragraphs (3) (a), (b), and (c), of this section; Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be construed as repealing or limiting the application of any part of the Act, as amended, entitled 'An Act relating to bills of lading in interstate and foreign commerce', approved August 29, 1916 (U. S. C., title 49, secs. 81-124), commonly known as the 'Pomerene Bills of Lading Act.'"

[This proviso is primarily for the protection of subsequent holders of bills of lading. Prior to the enactment of the Pomerene Act a number of cases had arisen in the United States in which shippers had induced representatives of common carriers to sign bills of lading receipting for goods on the shipper's assurance that the goods would later be delivered to the carrier. The shippers would then dispose of the bills of lading through the usual discounting procedure. Subsequently these shippers for various reasons sometimes failed to deliver the goods to the carrier. The courts in the United States held that the fact that the goods never came into the custody of the carrier was a good defense to relieve it of liability to the holder of the bill of lading. The Pomerene Act changed this law so as to place the liability under such situations on the carrier.]²

3. Section 3, subsection (6) of the Act contains a new paragraph, appearing as the second paragraph of the subsection, which is not in the Convention, providing that notice of loss or damage may be endorsed on the receipt given for the goods. The new paragraph is underlined¹ in the following quotation from the Act:

"SEC. 3. . . .

"(6) Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of carriage, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the carrier of the goods as described in the bill of lading. If the loss or damage is not apparent, the notice must be given within three days of the delivery.

"Said notice of loss or damage may be endorsed upon the receipt for the goods given by the person taking delivery thereof."

4. The fourth paragraph of Section 3, subsection (6) of the Act contains a proviso which is not in the Convention to the effect that in all cases suit may be brought within one year. The proviso is underlined ¹ in the following quotation from the Act:

"(6) . . .

"In any event the carrier and the ship shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss or damage unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered: Provided, That if a notice of loss or damage, either apparent or concealed, is not given as provided for in this section, that fact shall not affect or prejudice the right of the shipper to bring suit within one year after the delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered."

5. The condition "if it shows the particulars mentioned in paragraph 3 of Article 3" appearing near the end of paragraph 7 of Article 3 of the Convention is not in the Act. Section 3, subsection 7, of the Act, the language which is in the Convention but not in the Act being placed in parentheses, is as follows:

"SECTION 3. . . .

"7. After the goods are loaded the bill of lading to be issued by the carrier, master, or agent of the carrier to the shipper shall, if the shipper so demands, be a 'shipped' bill of lading; Provided that if the shipper shall have previously taken up any document of title to such goods, he shall surrender the same as against the issue of the 'shipped' bill of lading, but at the option of the carrier such document of title may be noted at the port of shipment by the carrier, master, or agent with the name or names of the ship or ships upon which the goods have been shipped and the date or dates of shipment, and when so noted, (if it shows the particulars mentioned in paragraph 3 of Article 3,) the same shall for the purpose of this section be deemed to constitute a 'shipped' bill of lading."

6. Section 4, subsection (2) (j) of the Act contains a proviso which is not in the Convention affirming the responsibility of the carrier for his own acts in strikes, lockouts, et cetera. The proviso is underlined ¹ in the following quotation from the Act:

"SEC. 4. . . .

"(2) Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible for loss or damage arising or resulting from—

"(j) Strikes or lockouts or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, whether partial or general Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve a carrier from responsibility for the carrier's own acts;"

¹ Italicized.

7. Section 4, Subsection 2 (q) of the Act differs from Article 4, paragraph 2 (q) of the Convention in that the word "and" is used at two places near the beginning of the paragraph in the Act where "or" is used in the Convention. Section 4, subsection (2) (q) of the Act is as follows:

"SEC. 4. . . .

"(2) Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible for loss or damage arising or resulting from—

"(q) Any other cause arising without the actual fault (or) and privity of the carrier (or) and without the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier, but the burden of proof shall be on the person claiming the benefit of this exception to show that neither the actual fault or privity of the carrier nor the fault or neglect of the agents or servants of the carrier contributed to the loss or damage."

8. Section 4, subsection (4) of the Act contains a proviso which is not in the Convention to the effect that deviation for the purpose of loading or unloading cargo or passengers is prima facie unreasonable. The proviso is underlined¹ in the following quotation from the Act:

"SEC. 4. . . .

"(4) Any deviation in saving or attempting to save life or property at sea, or any reasonable deviation shall not be deemed to be an infringement or breach of this Act or of the contract of carriage, and the carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom: Provided, however, That if the deviation is for the purpose of loading or unloading cargo or passengers it shall, prima facie, be regarded as unreasonable."

9. Section 4, subsection (5) of the Act contains phraseology in the first paragraph by which the reservation which the Senate made in giving its advice and consent to the ratification of the Convention substituting lawful money of the United States in place of "gold value" is adopted. In this subsection $500 is substituted for 100 pounds sterling pursuant to the privilege reserved by the Contracting States in the second paragraph of Article 9 of the Convention. The words "the transportation of" are used before "goods" near the beginning of the subsection, and the words "binding or" which appear in the Convention are omitted from the next sentence of this subsection. The language appearing in Section 4, subsection (5) of the Act, but not in Article 4, paragraph 5 of the Convention, is underlined¹ and the words "binding or" are placed in parentheses in the following quotation from the Act:

"SEC. 4. . . .

"(5) Neither the carrier nor the ship shall in any event be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the transportation of goods in an amount exceeding $500 per package lawful money of the United States, or in case of goods not shipped in packages, per customary freight unit, or the equivalent of that sum in other currency, unless the nature and value of such goods have been declared by the shipper before shipment and inserted in the bill of lading. This declaration, if embodied in the bill of lading, shall be prima facie evidence, but shall not be (binding or) conclusive on the carrier."

¹ Italicized.

10. Section 4, subsection (5) of the Act contains a sentence in the second paragraph which is not in the Convention to the effect that in no case shall the carrier be liable for more than the amount of damage actually sustained. The sentence is underlined¹ in the following quotation from the Act:

"SEC. 4. . . .

"(5) . . .

"By agreement between the carrier, master, or agent of the carrier, and the shipper another maximum amount than that mentioned in this paragraph may be fixed: Provided, That such maximum shall not be less than the figure above named. In no event shall the carrier be liable for more than the amount of damage actually sustained."

11. Section 4, subsection (5) last paragraph of the Act contains the phrases "the transportation of the" before "goods" and the words "and fraudulently" after "knowingly", which do not appear in the Convention. This paragraph of the Act, the expressions mentioned being underlined,¹ reads as follows:

"SEC. 4. . . .

"(5) . . .

"Neither the carrier nor the ship shall be responsible in any event for loss or damage to or in connection with the transportation of the goods if the nature or value thereof has been knowingly and fraudulently misstated by the shipper in the bill of lading."

12. In Section 8 of the Act reservations are made saving from the operation of the Act the provisions relating to the liability of the owners of seagoing vessels in certain Acts of the Congress of the United States,—namely the Shipping Act of 1916 and sections 4281 to 4289 inclusive of the Revised Statutes of the United States or any amendments thereof,—all of which this Government considers to be within the scope of the reservation in Article 8 of the Convention.

TITLE II

The provisions of Title II of the Act may be regarded as supplementary to the provisions of Title I, which, with the enacting clause taking the place of Article 10, correspond to the first ten articles of the Convention.

The provisions of sections 9, 11 and 12 in Title II of the Act are designed primarily to make clear that the provisions of Title I shall not be construed to affect certain features of American law and practice. Section 9 provides that a common carrier by water may not discriminate between competing shippers similarly placed in time and circumstance; section 11 provides that where under the customs of any trade the weight of any bulk cargo inserted in a bill of lading was ascertained or accepted by a third party other than the carrier or the shipper, and that fact is stated in the bill of lading, the bill of lading shall not be deemed to be prima facie evidence against the carrier as to the weight, and that the accuracy of the weight at the time of shipment shall not be deemed to have been guaranteed by the shipper; section 12 provides that nothing in the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act shall supersede any part of the Act of the United States entitled "An Act relating to navigation of vessels, bills of lading and to certain obligations, duties, and rights in connection with the carriage of property," approved February 13, 1893, (commonly known as "The Harter Act"), or of any other law which would be applicable in the absence of that Act, insofar as they relate to the duties, responsibilities and liabilities of the ship or carrier prior to the time when goods are loaded on or after the time they are discharged from the ship.

By section 10 an amendment is made to section 25 of the Interstate Commerce Act by adding at the end of paragraph 4 thereof a proviso to the effect that insofar as any bill of lading authorized under that paragraph relates to the carriage of goods by sea it shall be subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act.

Section 13 provides in effect that the Act applies in respect of foreign trade of the United States, including the foreign trade of territories and possessions. This section also provides that the Act does not apply to contracts for the carriage of goods by sea between ports of the United States and between ports of the United States and its possessions, or between the latter, namely in coastwise trade, but the Section also provides for the recognition of express statements applying the provisions of the Act in shipments in such trade, when they are made in bills of lading.

By section 14 authority is conferred on the President to suspend on not less than ten days notice any or all of the provisions of Title I upon certification by the Secretary of Commerce that the foreign commerce of the United States in its competition with the commerce of foreign nations is prejudiced by the operation of any of the provisions of Title I of the Act or by the laws of any foreign country or countries relating to the carriage of goods by sea.

The foregoing differences from the Convention, made in the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, are intended primarily (1) to clarify provisions in the Convention which may be of uncertain meaning thereby avoiding expensive litigation in the United States for purposes of interpretation and (2) to coordinate the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act with other legislation of the United States.

No. 221 EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Paris, February 18, 1937.

EXCELLENCY:

Proposal for modification of decree.

I have received Your Excellency's note enclosing a copy of the decree of the French High Commissioner in Syria, No. 292/LR of December 20, 1934, which was destined to make precise the privileges granted in the exchange of notes between M. Poincaré and Ambassador Herrick, dated, respectively, November 2, 1923,¹ and December 18 of the same year,¹ for the American educational, religious and philanthropic institutions in Syria and the Lebanon. I note that you invite the comment of my Government.

This matter has been made the subject of considerable correspondence between the Embassy and the Ministry, and the Consulate General at Beirut and the High Commission, and my Government has always reserved the rights granted it by the Convention between the United States of America and France regarding the Mandate for Syria and the Lebanon, dated April 4, 1924, and more specifically mentioned in the exchange of notes above referred to, and therefore will consider Decree No. 292/LR of December 20, 1934, as an interpretation of the privileges granted, subject to two modifications:

First, the liberalization of the amounts to be imported free of duty by the American University of Beirut. The desire for this modification arises from the fact that scientific instruments, equipment for teaching, hospitals, etc., which must all be imported by the University, create a proportion of importation relative to the number of students far higher than similar importations which might be required by secondary institutions and other foundations. Therefore, the creation of a special category for institutions of university standing might be in the public interest in the Mandated areas, particularly since devaluation has lessened the import value of the present allowances.

Second, it is suggested that, in case the American educational, religious and philanthropic institutions appeal from a decision of the customs inspectors, either as to amounts or classifications, no payment be made until the appeal shall have been heard and decided by the highest customs authorities. The reason which motivates this request is that appeals under the present régime tie up philanthropic funds for considerable lengths of time until decisions are acted upon, after which claims may be entered for the return of the money, and there is a long tie-up of funds destined entirely for eleemosynary purposes, as well as unnecessary administrative delay and inconvenience to both parties.

Should Your Excellency be able to consent to the two above mentioned modifications of Decree 292/LR of December 20, 1934, my Government will be most happy to consider the decree so modified as a satisfactory interpretation of the rights granted it by treaty and interpreted in the exchange of notes, by which it receives most favored nation treatment in this respect.

I avail myself of this occasion to renew to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest consideration,

WILLIAM C. BULLITT

MONSIEUR L'AMBASSADEUR,

J'ai reçu votre note en date de ce jour par laquelle vous avez bien voulu exposer les observations de votre gouvernement sur le régime douanier appliqué aux établissements scolaires, religieux et philanthropiques américains, et suggérer certaines modifications que votre Gouvernement croit être nécessaires pour atténuer la difficulté d'interprétation des droits accordés par la Convention conclue entre les Etats-Unis d'Amérique et la France concernant le Mandat pour la Syrie et le Liban, en date du 4 avril 1924, et l'échange des notes du 2 Novembre 1923¹ et du 18 décembre de la même année.¹

Mon gouvernement, dont l'action à ce sujet a été motivée par le désir d'interpréter l'esprit de ses engagements internationaux au mieux des intérêts des Etats du Levant sous mandat français, est heureux d'accepter les modifications que vous suggérez d'apporter à cette interprétation et prendra les mesures nécessaires en vue d'apporter aux textes en vigueur les modifications suivantes:

Le paragraphe d) de l'article 248 du code des douanes sera rectifié comme suit:

d) Articles et produits importés par les établissements d'enseignement général ou technique pour l'instruction de leurs élèves:

L'art. 251 du code des douanes sera complété comme suit:

"A titre général, les droits exigibles sur chaque importation privilégiée doivent être consignés dans les caisses de la douane. Toutefois, cette dernière peut accepter, aux lieu et place de la consignation précitée, la garantie d'une banque préalablement agréée par le chef de contrôle de la douane intéressée, toutes les fois que le montant des droits liquidés excède mille livres syriennes, ou le dépôt d'un engagement de l'établissement bénéficiaire étranger, transmis par son consul."

Veuillez agréer, Monsieur l'Ambassadeur, les assurances de ma très haute considération.

PARIS, February 18, 1937.

MR. AMBASSADOR:

Acceptance of proposed modifications.

I have received your note of to-day's date setting forth the observations of your Government on the customs regime for American educational, religious and philanthropic institutions, and suggesting certain modifications which your Government feels would make less difficulty in the interpretation of the rights granted by the Convention between the United States of America and France regarding the Mandate for 43 Stat. 1821.

² Ainsi dans l'original.

Syria and the Lebanon, dated April 4, 1924, and the exchange of notes of November 2, 1923,¹ and December 18 of the same year.¹

My Government, which has been moved in its action in this matter by the desire to interpret the spirit of its international engagements for the best interests of the States of the Levant under French Mandate, is pleased to accept the modifications of that interpretation which you suggest, and will take the necessary measures in order to make the following modifications in the texts of the current laws:

Paragraph (d) of Article 248 of the Customs Code shall be rectified as follows:

(d) Articles and products imported by establishments of technical and general education for the instruction of their pupils:

The value of merchandise annually admissible in franchise may not exceed 1,500 Libano-Syrian piasters per pupil for establishments of primary and secondary grade; and 2,500 Libano-Syrian piasters per pupil for establishments of university grade.

Article 251 of the Customs Code shall be completed as follows:

"In general, the sums receivable on any privileged importation shall be paid into the account of the Customs. However, the latter may accept in lieu of the above-mentioned payments the guarantee of a bank previously consented to by the head of the interested Customs office, whenever the total of the amounts to be paid in shall exceed 1,000 Libano-Syrian pounds; or the deposit of a pledge by the foreign beneficiary establishment, transmitted by its Consul."

Please accept, Mr. Ambassador, the assurances of my highest consideration, portant additif et modificatif No. 14 au Code des Douanes

Le Haut-Commissaire de la République Française,

Vu les décrets du Président de la République française en date des 23 novembre 1920 et 16 juillet 1933,

Vu l'arrêté No. 137/LR, du 15 juin 1935, dit "Code des Douanes", et les arrêtés subséquents portant additifs ou modificatifs Nos. 1 à 13 à ce Code,

ARRÊTE:

ARTICLE 1. L'arrêté No. 137/LR, du 15 juin 1935, dit "Code des Douanes" est modifié ou complété dans les conditions ci-après:

Article 248—paragraphe d—dernier alinéa.—A remplacer par le texte suivant:

Article 251.—A compléter comme suit:

. . . , ou le dépôt d'un engagement de l'établissement bénéficiaire étranger, transmis par son consul.

Article 334.—Premier alinéa à remplacer par le texte suivant:

L'Administration des Douanes est dispensée des formalités de timbre pour tous les actes qu'elle peut être appelée à produire en justice ou à requérir, ainsi que du paiement de tous frais judiciaires occasionnés par les instances qu'elle peut avoir à engager ou à soutenir en justice. Elle est exonérée également de tous frais d'exécution sans que le privilège du Trésor puisse être opposé au plain exercice de ses droits.

Article 351.—Nouvelle rédaction:

Pour le recouvrement de tous droits, amendes, confiscations et restitutions, l'Administration des Douanes dispose d'un privilège général sur le patrimoine mobilier des redevables. Ce privilège s'exerce en toute circonstance, même en cas de faillite et par préférence à toutes créances, excepté celles pour la conservation de la chose, pour frais de justice exposés par les tiers, et les créances bénéficiant d'un privilège général sur les meubles.

Il est de premier rang sur les sommes consignées par les redevables préalablement à l'opposition et à l'appel.

Article 351 bis nouveau.—

La caution qui paye à la Douane le montant garanti est subrogée dans les droits, privilèges et hypothèques de l'Administration.

En outre, la Douane peut, sans le consentement du débiteur, céder et transférer à tous tiers, mêmes aux co-débiteurs solidaires ou non et alors même que le droit serait litigieux ou l'objet d'une instance judiciaire, toute créance qui lui est due à n'importe quel titre, et conférer au cessionnaire ou bénéficiaire subrogation dans ses droits, privilèges et hypothèques à l'encontre du débiteur et de sa caution.

La subrogation consentie par la Douane s'exerce toujours au profit du titulaire dans les mêmes conditions que l'exercerait l'Administration.

Dans tous les cas, le subrogé entre dans les droits, privilèges et hypothèques de l'Administration après paiement, à la caisse de la Douane, du montant de la créance. Le titre de subrogation est constitué, sans autre formalité, par la quittance délivrée par la Douane qui précise les conditions et limites de la subrogation.

ARTICLE 2.—Le Secrétaire Général et l'Inspecteur Général des Douanes sont chargés, chacun en ce qui le concerne, de l'exécution du présent arrêté.

CUSTOMS

DECREE NO. 53/L.R. of March 27, 1937, making modification No. 14 to the "Code des Douanes"

Decree of French
High Commissioner
with modifications.

The High Commissioner of the French Republic, Considering the decrees of the President of the French Republic dated November 23, 1920, and July 16, 1933,

Considering Decree No. 137/LR of June 15, 1935, called "Code des Douanes", and subsequent decrees making modifications Nos. 1 to 13 in this Code,

DECREES:

ARTICLE 1.—Decree No. 137/LR of June 15, 1935, called "Code des Douanes" is modified or completed as follows:

Article 248—Section d—Last paragraph.—To be replaced by the following text:

The value of merchandise admitted annually free of duty may not exceed 1,500 Syrian piasters per pupil for establishments of primary or secondary instruction, and 2,500 Syrian piasters for university establishments.

Article 251.—To be completed as follows:

. . . , or the deposit of a guarantee of the foreign institution in question transmitted by its consul.

Article 334.—The first paragraph to be replaced by the following text:

The Customs Administration is exempted from stamp formalities for all instruments which it might be called upon to produce or to demand judicially, as well as from payment of all judicial expenses occasioned by the actions which it might have to initiate or to defend judicially. It is likewise exempted from all costs of executions of judgments, and the Treasury's preferential claim cannot be alleged against the full exercise of its rights.

Article 351.—New text:

For the recovery of all rights, fines, confiscations and restitutions, the Customs Administration disposes of a general privilege upon the movable patrimony of its debtors. This privilege may be exercised under all circumstances, even in case of bankruptcy and by preference over all debts, except those for the conservation of the subject matter (res), for judicial costs incurred by third parties, and claims benefited by general privilege upon household effects.

It has first claim on sums deposited by the debtors as a preliminary to an opposition or appeal.

Article 351 bis, new.—

The bondsman who pays to the Customs the amount guaranteed is subrogated in the rights, privileges and mortgages of the Administration.

Furthermore, the Customs may, without the consent of the debtor, cede or transfer to any third party, even to joint debtors and even when the right may be doubtful or the object of judicial action, any debt which is due to it by any right whatsoever, and may confer upon the grantee or beneficiary subrogation in its rights, privileges and mortgages against the debtor and his bondsman.

The subrogation granted by the Customs shall be exercised always for the benefit of the titular owner in the same conditions under which the Administration would exercise it.

In any case, the person subrogated enters into the rights, privileges and mortgages of the Administration after payment into the funds of the Customs of the amount of the obligation. The quality of subrogation is established, without further formality, by the receipt delivered by the Customs which defines the conditions and limits of the subrogation.

ARTICLE 2.—The Secretary General and the Inspector General of Customs are charged, each within his own province, with the execution of the present decree.

1. The Administration of origin is entitled to collect from the sender of each parcel the postage and the fees for requests for information as to the disposal of a parcel made after it has been posted, and also, in the case of insured parcels, the insurance fees and the fees for return receipts, that may from time to time be prescribed by its regulations.

(b) Opium, morphine, cocaine and other narcotics;

Nonadmissible articles.

(c) Any article the admission of which is forbidden by the customs or other laws or regulations in force in either country;

Letters, etc.

(d) A letter or any document which constitutes an actual and personal correspondence. Nevertheless, it is permitted to enclose in a parcel an open invoice, confined to the particulars which constitute an invoice, and also a simple copy of the address of the parcel, with mention of the address of the sender;

(e) Obscene or immoral articles;

The fact that a parcel contains a letter, or a communication having the nature of a letter, may not, in any case, entail return of the parcel to the sender. The letter is, however, marked for collection of postage due from the addressee at the regular rate.

List of Prohibited Articles.

The two Administrations advise each other, by means of the List of Prohibited Articles published by the International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union, of all prohibited articles. However, they do not assume, on that account, any responsibility towards the customs or police authorities, or the sender.

3. If parcels wrongly admitted to the post are neither returned to origin nor delivered to the addressee, the Administration of origin must be informed in a precise manner of the treatment accorded to the parcels.

Parcels wrongly admitted.

ARTICLE VII.

Insurance.

Insurance.

Parcels may be insured up to the amount of 500 gold francs or its equivalent in the currency of the country of origin. However, the Chiefs of the Postal Administrations of the two contracting countries may, by mutual consent, increase or decrease this maximum amount of insurance.

Maximum.

A parcel cannot give rise to the right to an indemnity higher than the actual value of its contents, but it is permissible to insure it for only part of that value.

Limitation.

ARTICLE VIII.

Responsibility. Indemnity.

1. The Postal Administrations of the two contracting countries will not be responsible for the loss, abstraction or damage of an ordinary parcel.

Responsibility.

2. Except in the cases mentioned in the Article following, the Administrations are responsible for the loss of insured parcels mailed in one of the two contracting countries for delivery in the other and for the loss, abstraction of or damage to their contents, or a part thereof.

The sender, or other rightful claimant, is entitled to compensation corresponding to the actual amount of the loss, abstraction or damage. The amount of indemnity is calculated on the basis of the actual value (current price, or, in the absence of current price, the ordinary estimated value) at the place where and the time when the parcel was accepted for mailing, provided in any case that the indemnity may not be greater than the amount for which the parcel was insured, and on which the insurance fee has been collected or the maximum amount of 500 gold francs.

Indemnity.

3. No indemnity is paid for indirect damages or loss of profits resulting from the loss, rifling, damage, non-delivery, misdelivery or delay of an insured parcel dispatched in accordance with the conditions of the present agreement.

Indirect damages, etc.

4. In the case where indemnity is payable for the loss of a parcel or for the destruction or abstraction of the whole of the contents thereof, the sender is entitled to return of the postal charges, if claimed. However, the insurance fees are not returned in any case.

Return of postage on loss of parcel.

5. In the absence of special agreement to the contrary between the countries involved, which agreement may be made by correspondence, no indemnity will be paid by either country for the loss of transit insured parcels, that is, parcels originating in a country not participating in this agreement and destined for one of the two contracting countries or parcels originating in one of the two contracting countries and destined for a country not participating in this agreement.

Loss of transit insured parcels.

6. When an insured parcel originating in one country and destined to be delivered in the other country is reforwarded from there to a third country or is returned to a third country, at the request of the sender or of the addressee, the party entitled to the indemnity in case of loss, rifling or damage occurring subsequent to the reforwarding or return of the parcel by the original country of destination, can lay claim, in such a case, only to the indemnity which the country where the loss, rifling or damage occurred consents to pay, or which that country is obliged to pay in accordance with the agreement made between the countries directly interested in the reforwarding or return. Either of the two countries signing the present agreement which wrongly forwards an insured parcel to a third country is responsible to the sender to the same extent as the country of origin, that is, within the limits of the present agreement.

Parcels reforwarded to a third country, etc.

Responsibility for defects in packing, etc.

7. The sender is responsible for defects in the packing and insufficiency in the closing and sealing of insured parcels. Moreover, the two Administrations are released from all responsibility in case of loss, rifling or damage caused by defects not noticed at the time of mailing.

ARTICLE IX.

Exceptions to the principle of responsibility.

Exceptions to principle of responsibility.

Release; when.

Unconditional acceptance.

Loss, etc., through force majeure.

The Administrations are relieved from all responsibility:

(a) In case of parcels of which the addressee has accepted delivery without reservation;

(b) In case of loss or damage through force majeure (causes beyond control) although either Administration may at its option and without recourse to the other Administration pay indemnity for loss or damage due to force majeure even in cases where the Administration of the country in the service of which the loss or damage occurred recognizes that the damage was due to force majeure. The country responsible for the loss, abstraction or damage must decide, in accordance with its internal legislation, whether this loss, abstraction or damage is due to circumstances constituting a case of force majeure;

Destruction of official documents.

(c) When, their responsibility not having been proved otherwise, they are unable to account for parcels in consequence of the destruction of official documents through force majeure;

Damage through fault of sender, addressee, etc.

(d) When the damage has been caused by the fault or negligence of the sender or the addressee or the representative of either, or when it is due to the nature of the article;

Prohibited articles.

(e) For parcels which contain prohibited articles;

Declared above real value.

(f) In case the sender of an insured parcel, with intent to defraud, shall declare the contents to be above their real value; this rule, however, shall not prejudice any legal proceedings necessitated by the legislation of the country of origin;

Seized, because of false declaration.

(g) For parcels seized by the customs because of false declaration of contents;

Indemnity unclaimed within a year.

(h) When no inquiry or application for indemnity has been made by claimant or his representative within a year commencing with the day following the posting of the insured parcel;

Matter of no intrinsic value, etc.

(i) For parcels which contain matter of no intrinsic value or perishable matter or which did not conform to the stipulations of this agreement or which were not posted in the manner prescribed, but the country responsible for the loss, rifling or damage may pay indemnity in respect of such parcels without recourse to the other Administration.

ARTICLE X.

Termination of responsibility.

Termination of responsibility.

Administrations cease to be responsible for parcels of which they have effected delivery in accordance with their internal regulations for parcels of the same nature.

Reservations.

Responsibility is, however, maintained when the addressee or, in case of return, the sender makes reservations in taking delivery of a parcel the contents of which have been abstracted or damaged.

ARTICLE XI.

Payment of compensation.

The obligation to pay compensation, as well as the postage charges due to be refunded, rests with the Administration to which the office of origin of the parcel is subordinate. However, in cases where the compensation is paid to the addressee in accordance with Article VIII, Section 2, second paragraph, the obligation shall rest with the Administration of destination.

The paying Administration retains the right to make a claim against the Administration responsible.

Payment of compensation.

Ante, p. 297.

ARTICLE XII.

Period for payment of compensation.

1. The payment of compensation for an insured parcel shall be made to the rightful claimant as soon as possible and at the latest within a period of one year counting from the day following that on which the application is made.

Period for payment of compensation.

However, the Administration responsible for making payment may exceptionally defer payment of indemnity for a longer period than that stipulated if, at the expiration of that period, it has not been able to determine the disposition made of the article in question or the responsibility incurred.

Deferred payment.

2. Except in cases where payment is exceptionally deferred as provided in the second paragraph of the foregoing section, the Postal Administration which undertakes payment of compensation is authorized to pay indemnity on behalf of the Office, which, after being duly informed of the application for indemnity, has let nine months pass without settling the matter.

Payment, when delayed nine months.

ARTICLE XIII.

Fixing of responsibility.

1. Until the contrary is proved, responsibility for an insured parcel rests with the Administration which, having received the parcel without making any reservation, and being put in possession of all the regulation means of investigation, cannot establish the disposal of the parcel.

Fixing of responsibility.

Responsible office.

2. When the loss, rifling or damage of an insured parcel is detected upon opening the receptacle at the receiving exchange office and has been regularly pointed out to the dispatching exchange office, the responsibility falls on the Administration to which the latter office belongs, unless it be proved that the irregularity occurred in the service of the receiving Administration.

Loss, etc., detected at receiving exchange office.

3. If the loss, rifling or damage has taken place in the course of transportation, without its being possible to establish on the territory or in the service of which country the act took place, the Offices involved bear the loss in equal shares.

Loss, etc., in transit.

4. The Administration paying compensation takes over, to the extent of the amount paid, the rights of the person who has received it, in any action which may be taken against the addressee, the sender, or a third party.

Rights taken over by paying office.

5. If a parcel which has been regarded as lost is subsequently found, the person to whom compensation has been paid must be informed that he is at liberty to take possession of the parcel against repayment of the amount of compensation.

If lost parcel is found.

ARTICLE XIV.

Repayment of compensation.

Repayment to country effecting payment.

1. The Administration responsible for the loss, rifling, or damage, and on whose account the payment is effected, is bound to repay the amount of the indemnity to the country which has effected the payment. This reimbursement must take place without delay, and at the latest within the period of nine months after notification of payment.

Without expense.

2. These repayments to the creditor country must be made without expense for that Office, by money order or draft, in money valid in the creditor country or in any other way to be agreed upon mutually by correspondence.

ARTICLE XV.

Fee for customs clearance.

Customs clearance.

Fee.

The office of delivery may collect from the addressee either in respect of delivery to the customs and clearance through the customs or in respect of delivery to the customs only, a fee not exceeding 50 gold centimes per parcel.

ARTICLE XVI.

Parcels are delivered to the addressees as quickly as possible in accordance with the conditions in force in the country of destination. This country may collect in respect of delivery of parcels to the addressee a fee not exceeding 50 gold centimes per parcel. The same fee may be charged, if the case arises, for each presentation after the first at the addressee's residence or place of business.

ARTICLE XVII.

Warehousing charges.

Warehousing charge.

The country of destination is authorized to collect the warehousing charge fixed by its legislation for parcels addressed "General Delivery" or which are not claimed within the prescribed period. This charge may in no case exceed five gold francs.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Customs charges.

Customs charges.

Collectible by country of destination.

The parcels are subject to all customs laws and regulations in force in the country of destination. The duties collectible on that account are collected from the addressee on delivery of the parcel in accordance with the customs regulations of the country of destination.

ARTICLE XIX.

Customs charges to be cancelled.

Cancellation, if returned or redirected.

The customs charges on parcels sent back to the country of origin or redirected to another country shall be cancelled as far as the customs regulations allow, both in the Netherlands and in the United States of America.

ARTICLE XX.

Recall and change of address.

So long as a parcel has not been delivered to the addressee, the sender may recall it or cause its address to be changed. The Postal Administration of the country of origin may collect and retain, for this service, the charge fixed by its regulations. The requests for recall or change of address of parcels to be delivered in the United States of America shall be addressed to the Central Administration at Washington; those relating to parcels for delivery in the Netherlands shall be addressed to the offices of destination.

Recall and change of address.

ARTICLE XXI.

Certificate of mailing. Receipts.

The sender will, on request at the time of mailing an ordinary (uninsured) parcel, receive a certificate of mailing from the post office where the parcel is mailed, on a form provided for the purpose; and each country may fix a reasonable fee therefor.

Certificate of mailing.

Furnished sender on request.

The sender of an insured parcel receives without charge, at the time of posting, a receipt for his parcel.

Receipt.

ARTICLE XXII.

Return receipts and inquiries.

1. The sender of an insured parcel may obtain an advice of delivery upon payment of such additional charges, if any, as the country of origin of the parcel shall stipulate and under the conditions laid down in the Regulations.

Return receipts and inquiries.

Advice of delivery; charge.

2. A fee may be charged, at the option of the country of origin, on a request for information as to the disposal of an ordinary parcel and also for an insured parcel made after it has been posted if the sender has not already paid the special fee to obtain an advice of delivery.

Inquiry charge.

3. A fee may also be charged, at the option of the country of origin, in connection with any complaint of any irregularity which prima facie was not due to the fault of the Postal Service.

Irregularity.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Missent parcels.

Ordinary parcels, when missent, are reforwarded to their correct destination by the most direct route at the disposal of the reforwarding Administration. They must not be charged with customs or other charges by that Administration. Insured parcels, when missent, may not be reforwarded to their destination except as insured mail. If this is impossible they must be returned to origin.

Missent parcels.

Ordinary parcels.

Insured parcels.

When the reforwarding involve¹ return of the parcel to the office of origin, the retransmitting Administration refunds to that office the credits received and reports the error by a Bulletin of Verification.

Refund, if parcel returned.

When the reforwarding involves dispatch of a parcel to a third country and if the amount credited to the retransmitting Administration is insufficient to cover the expenses of retransmission which it has to defray, the retransmitting Administration allows to the Administration to which it forwards the parcel the credits due it; it then recovers the amount of the deficiency by claiming it from the office of exchange from which the missent parcel was directly received. The reason for this claim is notified to the latter by means of a Bulletin of Verification.

Reforwarding to a third country.

If, for any reason, sale is impossible, the deteriorated or corrupted articles are destroyed. The sale or destruction gives rise to the making of a report which is sent to the Administration of origin.

5. Undeliverable parcels which the sender has abandoned may, at the expiration of a 30-day period, be sold for the profit of the Administration of the country of destination. However, in the case of an insured parcel, a report is made up, which must be sent to the Administration of the country of origin. In the case of reforwarding or return to a third country, the accrued charges, that is, such of the charges mentioned in Article 9, Section 2 (a), (b), (c), and (d) of the Regulations as are applicable, shall follow the parcel, but in the case that the third country concerned refuses to assume the charges because they cannot be collected from the addressee or sender, as the case may be, or for any other reason, they shall be charged back to the country of origin.

WASHINGTON, October 18, 1937.

DETAILED REGULATIONS FOR THE EXECUTION OF THE PARCEL POST AGREEMENT.

The following Detailed Regulations for the Execution of the Parcel Post Agreement have been agreed upon by the Chiefs of the Postal Administrations of the United States of America and the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Regulations for execution.

ARTICLE 1.

Limits of weight and size.

1. Parcels are admitted up to the weight of 20 kilograms (44 pounds). They may not exceed the length of 1 meter 25 centimeters or 4 feet in any direction, nor have a volume greater than 113 cubic decimeters or 4 cubic feet.

Limits of weight and size.

2. In regard to the exact calculation of the weight, volume and dimensions, the indications furnished by the dispatching office will be accepted save in case of obvious error.

ARTICLE 2.

Preparation of parcels.

1. The name and address of the sender and of the addressee must be legibly and correctly written in every case on the parcel itself when possible, or on a label gummed thereto, and must also be written on a separate slip which slip must be enclosed in the package. Parcels will not be accepted when sent by or addressed to initials, unless the initials are the adopted trade name of the senders or addressees.

Preparation of parcels.

Addresses in ordinary pencil are not allowed, but copying ink or indelible pencil on a surface previously dampened may be used.

2. Each parcel must be packed in such a manner that the contents are protected over the whole route, and in such a way as to prevent the contents from damaging other parcels or objects or injuring postal agents. The packing must protect the contents sufficiently that, in case of rifling, the traces thereof may be easily discovered.

Ordinary parcels may be sealed at the option of the sender, or careful tying is sufficient as a mode of closing. Insured parcels must be sealed by means of wax, by lead or other seals.

As a protective measure, either Administration may require that a special imprint or mark of the sender appear on the wax or lead seals closing insured parcels.

The Customs Administration of the country of destination is authorized to open the parcels. To that end, the seals or any other fastenings may be broken. Parcels opened by the Customs must be refastened and also officially resealed.

3. Each insured parcel must be marked or labelled or stamped "Insured" or "Valeur déclarée" in a conspicuous manner on the address side, and in close proximity to such indorsement there must appear the insurance number given to the parcel. The dispatch note must also be marked or labelled or stamped "Insured" or "Valeur déclarée".

4. On the address side of each insured parcel there must be written, both in Arabic figures and in Roman letters, the amount for which the parcel is insured in the currency of the country of origin.

This amount must be converted into gold francs by the sender or the office of origin and the result of the conversion must be added below the original inscription. The amount of the insured value must also be stated in the accompanying dispatch note.

5. The labels¹ or postage stamps affixed to insured parcels must be spaced so that they cannot serve to conceal injuries to the packing. Neither may they be folded over two faces of the wrapping so as to cover the edge.

6. Liquids and easily liquefiable substances must be sent in a double receptacle. Between the first (bottle, flask, box, etc.) and the second (box of metal, strong wood, or strong carton of fiber-board, or receptacle of equal strength), there must be left a space to be filled with sawdust, bran or other absorbent material, in sufficient quantity to absorb all the liquid in case the receptacle is broken.

7. Powders and dyes in powder form must be packed in strong boxes of tin or other metal, which, after soldering, must be placed in turn in substantial outer covers in such a way as to avoid all damage to other articles.

ARTICLE 3.

Customs declarations and dispatch notes.

Customs declarations and dispatch notes.

1. The sender must make out a dispatch note for each parcel in accordance with the forms in use in the country of origin. The sender shall also prepare one customs declaration for each parcel sent from the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and three customs declarations for each parcel sent from the United States of America, upon a special form provided for the purpose, which customs declaration¹ shall give a general description of the parcel, an accurate statement in detail of its contents and value, date of mailing, the sender's name and address, and the name and address of the addressee, and shall be securely attached to the parcel.

However, as an exception to the foregoing provision concerning customs declarations, when more than one parcel is mailed simultaneously by the same sender in one country to the same addressee at the same address in the other country, the sender need prepare only one customs declaration for the entire shipment, in the case of parcels sent from the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and three customs declarations for the entire shipment, in the case of parcels sent from the United States, which customs declarations shall show, in addition to the particulars set forth in the preceding sentence, the total number of parcels comprising the shipment, and shall be securely attached to one of the parcels. The parcels comprising the entire shipment shall be clearly marked in such case with a fractional number, the numerator of which will indicate, in Arabic figures, the number of the parcel and the denominator the number of parcels comprising the shipment; for example, if a single shipment were composed of 15 parcels, each parcel would be numbered, respectively, 1/15, 2/15, 3/15, etc.

2. The Administrations accept no responsibility for the correctness of the customs declarations.

ARTICLE 4.

Return receipts.

Return receipts.

1. As to a parcel for which a return receipt is asked, the office of origin places on the parcel the letters or words "A. R." or "Return receipt requested". The office of origin or any other office appointed by the dispatching Administration shall fill out a return receipt form and attach it to the parcel. If the form does not reach the office of destination, that office makes out a duplicate.

2. The office of destination, after having duly filled out the return receipt form, returns it free of postage to the address of the sender of the parcel.

3. When the sender applies for a return receipt after a parcel has been mailed, the office of origin duly fills out a return receipt form and attaches it to a form of inquiry which is entered with the details concerning the transmission of the parcel and then forwards it to the office of destination of the parcel. In the case of the due delivery of the parcel, the office of destination withdraws the inquiry form, and the return receipt is treated in the manner prescribed in the foregoing Section.

ARTICLE 5.

Receptacles.

1. The Postal Administrations of the two contracting countries shall provide the respective bags necessary for the dispatch of their parcels and each bag shall be marked to show the name of the office or country to which it belongs.

Receptacles.

2. Bags must be returned empty to the dispatching office by the next mail. Empty bags to be returned are made up in bundles of ten, enclosing nine bags in one. The total number of bags returned shall be entered on the relative parcel bills.

3. In case ten per cent of the total number of bags used during the year have not been returned, the value of the missing bags must be repaid to the Administration of origin.

ARTICLE 6.

Method of exchange of parcels.

1. The parcels shall be exchanged, in sacks duly fastened and sealed, by the Offices appointed by agreement between the two Administrations, and shall be dispatched to the country of destination by the country of origin at its cost and by such means as it provides.

Method of exchange of parcels.

2. Insured parcels shall be enclosed in separate sacks from those in which ordinary parcels are contained, and the labels of sacks containing insured parcels shall be marked with such distinctive symbols as may from time to time be agreed upon.

ARTICLE 7.

Billing of parcels.

1. Separate parcel bills must be prepared for the ordinary parcels on the one hand, and for the insured parcels on the other hand.

Billing of parcels.

The parcel bills are prepared in duplicate. The original is sent in the regular mails, while the duplicate is inserted in one of the sacks. The sack containing the parcel bill is designated by the letter "F" traced in a conspicuous manner on the label.

2. The ordinary (uninsured) parcels included in each dispatch sent to the Netherlands shall be advised in bulk on a parcel bill, but by classes of parcels up to 1 kilogram, from 1 to 5 kilograms, from 5 to 10 kilograms, from 10 to 15 kilograms and from 15 to 20 kilograms.

The ordinary parcels included in each dispatch sent to the United States are to be entered on the parcel bills to show the total number of parcels and the total net weight thereof.

The total amounts to be credited by one Administration to the other and the total number of sacks comprising each dispatch must also be shown on the parcel bills.

3. Insured parcels shall be entered individually on the parcel bills to show the insurance number and the name of the office of origin.

In the case of insured parcels for the Netherlands, the parcel bills must also show the indication of the division of weight to which the parcel belongs.

In the case of insured parcels for the United States of America, the parcel bills must also show the total net weight of the parcels.

4. Parcels sent "à découvert" must be entered separately on the parcel bills.

5. Redirected or returned parcels shall be entered individually. Redirected parcels shall be designated as such in the parcel bills by means of the note "Redirected"; returned parcels by the note "Returned". A statement of the charges which may be due on these parcels should be shown in the "Observations" column.

6. Each dispatching exchange office numbers the parcel bills in the upper left-hand corner in accordance with an annual series. The last number of the preceding year must be mentioned on the first bill of the following year.

7. The exact method of advising parcels or the receptacles containing them sent by one Administration in transit through the other together with any details of procedure in connection with the advice of such parcels or receptacles for which provision is not made in this agreement, shall be settled by mutual agreement through correspondence between the two Administrations.

ARTICLE 8.

Verification by the exchange office.

Verification by exchange office.

1. Upon receipt of a dispatch, the exchange office of destination proceeds to verify it. The entries in the parcel bill must be verified exactly. Each error or omission must be brought immediately to the knowledge of the dispatching exchange office by means of a bulletin of verification. A dispatch is considered as having been found in order in all regards when no bulletin of verification is made up.

If an error or irregularity is found upon receipt of a dispatch, all objects which may serve later on for investigations, or for examination of requests for indemnity, must be kept.

2. The dispatching exchange office to which a bulletin of verification is sent returns it after having examined it and entered thereon its observations, if any. That bulletin is then attached to the parcel bills of the parcels to which it relates. Corrections made on a parcel bill which are not justified by supporting papers are considered as devoid of value.

3. If necessary, the dispatching exchange office may also be advised by telegram, at the expense of the Office sending such telegram.

4. In case of shortage of a parcel bill, a duplicate is prepared, a copy of which is sent to the exchange office of origin of the dispatch.

5. The office of exchange which receives from a corresponding office a parcel which is damaged or insufficiently packed must redispach such parcel after repacking, if necessary, preserving the original packing as far as possible.

If the damage is such that the contents of the parcel may have been abstracted, the office must first officially open the parcel and verify its contents.

In either case, the weight of the parcel will be verified before and after repacking, and indicated on the wrapper of the parcel itself. That indication will be followed by the note "Repacked at -----", and the signature of the agents who have effected such repacking.

ARTICLE 9.

Charges.

1. For each parcel (ordinary or insured) exchanged between the contracting countries, the dispatching Office credits to the Office of destination, in the parcel bills, the quotas due to the latter. The terminal quotas to be credited are the following:

Charges.

I. By the United States to the Netherlands:

These terminal charges may be reduced or increased on three months previous notice given by one country to the other. These reductions or increases shall hold good for at least one year.

2. In the event of reforwarding or return to origin of a parcel the redispaching Office recovers from the other Office the quota due to it in accordance with Section 1 above and in addition such of the following charges as may be applicable:

a. the delivery, customs-clearance and storage charges provided for in Articles XV, XVI and XVII;

Ante, p. 300.

c. the non-postal charges of which cancellation is impossible;

d. the charges for reforwarding or return.

3. The amounts to be allowed in respect to parcels sent from one Administration to the other for onward transmission to a third country shall be fixed by the intermediary Administration.

ARTICLE 10.

Accounting.Accounting.

1. At the end of each quarter, each Administration makes up an account on the basis of the parcel bills.

2. These accounts, expressed in francs, accompanied by the parcel bills and, if any, by copies of verification notes relating thereto, shall be submitted to the examination of the corresponding Administration in the course of the month following the quarter to which they relate.

3. The recapitulation, transmission, examination and acceptance of these accounts must not be delayed, and the payment of the balance shall take place, at the latest, at the expiration of the following quarter.

4. The balance resulting from the adjustment of the accounts between the two Administrations shall be effected in the manner which may be mutually agreed upon by correspondence. The expenses of payment are chargeable to the debtor Administration.

Agreement between the United States of America and Canada regarding the exchange of information concerning issuance of radio licenses. Effected by exchanges of notes, signed March 2 and 10, 1937, August 17, 1937, September 8 and 20, 1937, and October 9, 1937.

The Minister of Canada (Marler) to the Secretary of State (Hull)

No. 46:

CANADIAN LEGATION,
Washington, March 2, 1937

SIR:

Agreement with Canada regarding the exchange of information concerning issuance of radio licenses.

I have the honour to refer to the Canadian Legation's Aide Memoire of January 7th, 1937,¹ and the Department of State's reply of January 19th¹ concerning the application of the Power City Broadcasting Corporation and the Niagara Falls Gazette Publishing Company of Niagara Falls, New York, for permission to establish a broadcasting station on a frequency of 630 kilocycles. This exchange of correspondence dealt with the possible interference which might be caused by the proposed station at Niagara Falls to Station CFCO operating on a frequency of 630 kilocycles at Chatham, Ontario.

It may be expected that from time to time the competent authorities of the Government of the United States will receive applications for permission to establish new broadcasting stations on frequency channels shared between Canada and the United States and for alteration in the assignment of such channels. In certain cases the granting of such applications might give rise to interference with Canadian stations operating on the same channel.

I have been instructed to enquire whether the Government of the United States would be agreeable to communicating with the Canadian Government in future before issuing licenses for new stations or altering the assignment of frequencies of existing stations on channels now shared between the United States and Canada, in cases where interference might be caused to the free and unrestricted use of such channels in Canada. The purpose of such a notification would be to give an opportunity to the Canadian Government of expressing their views in connection therewith.

I have the honour to be, with the highest consideration, Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,

HERBERT M MARLER

The Hon. CORDELL HULL,

Secretary of State of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

The Secretary of State (Hull) to the Minister of Canada (Marler)

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, March 10, 1937.

SIR:

I have received your note of March 2, 1937, inquiring whether the Government of the United States would be agreeable to communicating with the Canadian Government in the future before issuing licenses for new stations or altering the assignment of frequencies of existing stations on channels now shared between the United States and Canada, in cases where interference might be caused to the free and unrestricted use of such channels in Canada.

In reply I take pleasure in informing you that a copy of the note under acknowledgment is being transmitted to the Chairman of the Federal Communications Commission. As soon as a reply shall have been received from Mr. Prall, I shall not fail to communicate with you again concerning this matter.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Secretary of State:

R. WALTON MOORE

The Honorable

SIR HERBERT MARLER, P. C., K. C. M. G., Minister of Canada.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, August 17, 1937.

SIR:

Reference is made to your note of March 2, 1937, and my reply of March 10, 1937, in regard to the communication by the United States to the Canadian Government of information concerning the prospective issuance of new radio licenses or the possible alteration of frequencies which may affect the use in Canada of the radio channels involved.

The Government of the United States is prepared to communicate with the Canadian Government regarding proposed action on all applications for new or additional broadcast facilities which may involve interference with existing Canadian stations, provided the Canadian Government will likewise inform the Government of the United States of any new or additional facilities for broadcast stations for which application has been made to it and which may involve interference with existing stations in the United States.

It should be understood in this connection that the determination of interference would be made by means of the current mileage separation tables published by the Federal Communications Commission of this Government or from field intensity measurements combined with mutually agreeable standards of allocation.

I shall appreciate a statement of your Government's acquiescence in the proposed arrangement and an indication of the date upon which it is to be made effective.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

Arrangement between the United States of America and the Irish Free State respecting air navigation. Effected by exchange of notes signed September 29, 1937, and November 4, 1937; effective December 4, 1937.

Sept. 29 and Nov. 4,
1937
[E. A. S. No. 110]

The American Minister (Cudahy) to the Minister for External Affairs of the Irish Free State (de Valera)

No. 7 LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Dublin, September 29, 1937.

EXCELLENCY,

Reference is made to the negotiations which have taken place between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Saorstát Eireann¹ for the conclusion of a reciprocal air navigation arrangement between the United States of America and Saorstát Eireann, governing the operation of civil aircraft of the one country in the other country.

Reciprocal air navigation arrangement with the Irish Free State.

It is my understanding that it has been agreed in the course of the negotiations, now terminated, that this arrangement shall be as follows:

ARTICLE 1.

Pending the conclusion of a convention between the United States of America and Saorstát Eireann on the subject of air navigation, the operation of civil aircraft of the one country in the other country shall be governed by the following provisions:

Tentative provisions.

ARTICLE 2.

The present arrangement shall apply to Continental United States of America, exclusive of Alaska, and to Saorstát Eireann, including the territorial waters of the two countries.

Area affected.

ARTICLE 3.

The term aircraft with reference to one or the other Party to this arrangement shall be understood to mean civil aircraft, including state aircraft used exclusively for commercial purposes, duly registered in the territory of such Party.

Aircraft defined.

ARTICLE 4.

Each of the Parties undertakes to grant liberty of passage to and over its territory in time of peace to the aircraft of the other Party, provided that the conditions set forth in the present arrangement are observed.

Liberty of passage.

Regular air routes, etc., consent required.

It is, however, agreed that no regular air route or service may be established or operated to, within or over territory of either Party, with or without a landing there, except by prior consent of such Party.

Submission of application for operating rights through diplomatic channels.

Any air transport company of either Party applying for operating rights in territory of the other Party, on a route or service between the territories of the two Parties, shall be required to submit its application through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 5.

Jurisdiction over aircraft, passengers, etc.

The aircraft of each of the Parties to this arrangement, their crews and passengers, and goods carried thereon shall, while within the territory of the other Party, be subject to the laws in force in that territory, including all regulations relating to air traffic applicable to foreign aircraft, the transport of passengers and goods, and public safety and order, as well as any regulations concerning immigration, quarantine and customs.

Subject to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and to the laws and regulations therein specified, the carriage of passengers and the import or export of all merchandise which may be legally imported or exported will be permitted in aircraft of the one Party into or from the territory of the other Party and, subject to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and to the laws and regulations therein specified, the aircraft of the one Party, their crews, passengers and cargoes shall enjoy in the territory of the other Party the same privileges as the aircraft of such other Party, their crews, passengers and cargoes enjoy in that territory, and shall not merely by reason of the nationality of the aircraft be subjected to duties or charges other or higher than those which are or may be imposed on aircraft of the territory referred to, or on aircraft of any foreign country engaged in international commerce, or on their crews, passengers or cargoes, it being understood that in this respect the claimant has the choice of national or most-favored-nation treatment.

Each of the Parties to this arrangement may reserve to its own aircraft air commerce as defined in the last paragraph of this article. Nevertheless the aircraft of each Party may proceed from any aerodrome in the territory of the other Party which they are entitled to use to any other such aerodrome either for the purpose of landing the whole or part of their cargoes or passengers or of taking on board the whole or part of their cargoes or passengers, provided that such cargoes are covered by through bills of lading, and such passengers hold through tickets, issued respectively for a journey whose starting place and destination are not both points between which air commerce has been duly so reserved, and such aircraft, while proceeding as aforesaid, from one aerodrome to another, shall, notwithstanding that both such aerodromes are points between which air commerce has been duly reserved, enjoy all the privileges of this arrangement.

fined.

The term "air commerce" as used in the preceding paragraph shall, with respect to the Parties to this arrangement, be understood to mean:—(a) navigation of aircraft in territory of either Party in furtherance of a business; (b) navigation of aircraft from one place in territory of either Party to another place in that territory in the conduct of a business; and (c) the commercial transport of persons or goods between any two points in the territory of either Party.

ARTICLE 6.

Each of the Parties to this arrangement shall have the right to prohibit air traffic over certain areas of its territory, provided that no distinction in this matter is made between its aircraft engaged in international commerce and the aircraft of the other Party likewise engaged. The areas above which air traffic is thus prohibited by either Party must be notified to the other Party.

Restricted areas.

Each of the Parties reserves the right under exceptional circumstances in time of peace and with immediate effect temporarily to limit or prohibit air traffic above its territory on condition that in this respect no distinction is made between the aircraft of the other Party and the aircraft of any foreign country.

ARTICLE 7.

Any aircraft which finds itself over a prohibited area shall, as soon as it is aware of the fact, give the signal of distress prescribed in the Rules of the Air in force in the territory in which the prohibited area is situated and shall land as soon as possible at an aerodrome situated in such territory outside of but as near as possible to such prohibited area.

Aircraft over prohibited areas.

ARTICLE 8.

All aircraft shall carry clear and visible nationality and registration marks whereby they may be recognized during flight. In addition, they must bear the name and address of the owner.

Identification.

All aircraft shall be provided with certificates of registration and of airworthiness and with all the other documents prescribed for air traffic in the territory in which they are registered.

Certificates of registration, etc.

The members of the crew who perform, in an aircraft, duties for which a special permit is required in the territory in which such aircraft is registered, shall be provided with all documents and in particular with the certificates and licenses prescribed by the regulations in force in such territory.

The other members of the crew shall carry documents showing their duties in the aircraft, their profession, identity and nationality.

The certificate of airworthiness, certificates of competency and licences issued or rendered valid by one of the Parties to this arrangement in respect of an aircraft registered in its territory or of the crew of such aircraft shall have the same validity in the territory of the other Party as the corresponding documents issued or rendered valid by the latter.

Each of the Parties reserves the right for the purpose of flight within its own territory to refuse to recognize certificates of competency and licenses issued to nationals of that Party by the other Party.

ARTICLE 9.

The fuel and lubricants retained on board aircraft of either Party arriving in or leaving territory of the other Party shall be exempt from customs duty, even though the fuel and lubricants so retained are used by the aircraft on a flight in that territory, provided that such a flight is part of a journey from or to a place outside that territory.

Fuel and lubricants, exemption from customs duty.

ARTICLE 10.

Wireless apparatus;
license, regulations.

Aircraft of either of the Parties to this arrangement may carry wireless apparatus in the territory of the other Party only if a licence to install and work such apparatus (which licence must be carried in the aircraft) shall have been issued by the competent authorities of the Party in whose territory the aircraft is registered. The use of such apparatus shall be in accordance with the regulations on the subject issued by the competent authorities of the territory within whose air space the aircraft is navigating. Such apparatus shall be used only by such members of the crew as are provided with a special licence for the purpose issued by the competent authorities of the territory in which the aircraft is registered.

The Parties to this arrangement reserve respectively the right, for reasons of safety, to issue regulations relative to the obligatory equipment of aircraft with wireless apparatus.

ARTICLE 11.

Transportation of munitions of war, etc.

No arms of war, explosives of war, or munitions of war shall be carried by aircraft of either Party in or above the territory of the other Party or by the crew or passengers except by permission of the competent authorities of the territory within whose air space the aircraft is navigating.

ARTICLE 12.

Inspection.

Upon the departure or landing of any aircraft each Party may within its own territory and through its competent authorities search the aircraft of the other Party and examine the certificates and other documents prescribed.

ARTICLE 13.

Availability of aerodromes, services, etc.

Aerodromes open to public air traffic in the territory of one of the Parties to this arrangement shall in so far as they are under the control of the Party in whose territory they are situated be open to all aircraft of the other Party, which shall also be entitled to the assistance of the meteorological services, the wireless services, the lighting services and the day and night signalling services, in so far as the several classes of services are under the control of the Party in whose territory they respectively are rendered. Any scale of charges made, namely, landing, accommodation or other charge, with respect to the aircraft of each Party in the territory of the other Party, shall in so far as such charges are under the control of the Party in whose territory they are made be the same for the aircraft of both Parties.

ARTICLE 14.

Landings, and departures from specified aerodromes.

All aircraft entering or leaving the territory of either of the Parties to this arrangement shall land at or depart from an aerodrome open to public air traffic and classed as a customs aerodrome at which facilities exist for enforcement of customs, passport, quarantine and immigration regulations and clearance of aircraft, and no intermediate landing shall be effected between the frontier and the aerodrome. In special cases the competent authorities may allow aircraft to land at or depart from other aerodromes, at which the above-mentioned facilities have been arranged. The prohibition of any intermediate landing applies also in such cases.

In the event of a forced landing or of a landing as provided in Article 7 not at an aerodrome of the class mentioned in the first paragraph of this article, the pilot of the aircraft, its crew and the passengers shall conform to the customs, passport, quarantine and immigration regulations in force in the territory in which the landing has been made.

Ante, p. 321.

The Parties to this arrangement shall exchange lists of the aerodromes in their territories designated by them as customs aerodromes.

ARTICLE 15.

Each of the Parties to this arrangement reserves the right to require that all aircraft crossing the frontiers of its territory shall do so between certain points. Subject to the notification of any such requirements by one Party to the other Party, and to the right to prohibit air traffic over certain areas as stipulated in Article 6, the frontiers of the territories of the Parties to this arrangement may be crossed at any point.

Flight restrictions.

ARTICLE 16.

As ballast, only fine sand or water may be dropped from an aircraft.

Ballast.

ARTICLE 17.

No article or substance, other than ballast, may be unloaded or otherwise discharged in the course of flight unless special permission for such purpose shall have been given by the authorities of the territory in which such unloading or discharge takes place.

Unloading, etc., in flight, restriction.

ARTICLE 18.

Whenever questions of nationality arise in carrying out the present arrangement, it is agreed that every aircraft shall be deemed to possess the nationality of the Party in whose territory it is duly registered.

Nationality of aircraft.

ARTICLE 19.

The Parties to this arrangement shall communicate to each other the regulations relative to air traffic in force in their respective territories.

Exchange of regulations.

ARTICLE 20.

The present arrangement shall be subject to termination by either Party upon sixty days' notice given to the other Party or by the enactment by either Party of legislation inconsistent therewith.

Duration of arrangement.

I shall be glad to have you inform me whether it is the understanding of your Government that the arrangement agreed to in the negotiations is as herein set forth. If so, it is suggested that the arrangement become effective on the 4th day of December, 1937.

Effective date.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of today's date, a translation of which reads as follows:

Proposal by Poland for adherence of Free City of Danzig to agreement for mutual recognition of ship measurement certificates.

"Under instructions from my Government, I have the honor to communicate to Your Excellency the following proposal:

"The Polish Government which is entrusted with the conduct of the foreign affairs of the Free City of Danzig by virtue of Article 104 of the Treaty of Peace, signed at Versailles, June 28, 1919, and of Articles 2 and 6 of the Convention between Poland and the Free City of Danzig, signed at Paris, November 9, 1920, acting for the Free City of Danzig, proposes to the Government of the United States of America, the adherence of the Free City of Danzig to the agreement between Poland and the United States of America for the mutual recognition of ship measurement certificates, effected by exchange of notes signed January 17, March 14, and April 22, 1930, and October 5, 1934, this adherence to become effective from the fifteenth day following the date of the notification whereby the Government of the United States shall have declared its acceptance of the aforementioned proposal.

49 Stat. 3663.

"I should be appreciative if Your Excellency would be good enough to inform me whether the Government of the United States accepts this proposal."

Acceptance by United States.

In view of the following (1) that the tonnage measurement regulations adopted by Danzig have been found by the competent American authority to be substantially the same as those of the United States, (2) that reciprocity now exists between the United States and the Free City of Danzig in the recognition of the tonnage noted in the certificates of registry or other national papers of the vessels of each, and (3) that the present regulations in force in Danzig are not substantially different from those which formed the basis of the present informal arrangement I have the honor on behalf of the Government of the United States to accept the proposal contained in your note of this date. Accordingly, the adherence of the Free City of Danzig to the agreement between the United States of America and Poland for the mutual recognition of ship measurement certificates is recognized as becoming effective from December 19, 1937, the fifteenth day following the date of this note.

Effective date.

MR. MINISTER:

Referring to previous conversations regarding the liquidation of the unpaid balance of the account between Turkey and the United States, in the amount of $23,824.86, covering disbursements by the United States in connection with the representation by it of the interests of Turkey in England, France and certain other foreign countries during the period 1914 to 1917, I have the honor to state that it is my understanding that your Excellency's Government desires to pay this balance in thirteen equal annual installments, in connection with the liquidation of the lump sum of $1,300,000, to be paid by Turkey under the Claims Agreement of October 25, 1934, between the United States and Turkey. MONSIEUR L'AMBASSADEUR,

Me référant à ma lettre No $\frac{10961}{15}$ en date de ce jour, j'ai l'honneur de porter à la connaissance de Votre Excellence que les formalités prévues par la procédure législative pour la ratification de l'Arrangement relatif à la somme de 23,824,86 Dollars provenant des déboursements effectués par les Etats-Unis pour la protection des intérêts turcs en Angleterre, France et certains autres pays étrangers durant la période 1914-1918, n'ayant pu être accomplies qu'aujourd'hui, le versement de la première annuité qui devait avoir lieu le 1er Juin 1936, se fera exceptionnellement pour cette année, avec un retard de quelques jours.

Veuillez agréer, Monsieur l'Ambassadeur, les assurances de ma très haute considération.

Protocol between the United States of America and Greece with respect to the interpretation of Article I of the Treaty of Extradition of May 6, 1931. Signed September 2, 1937.

September 2, 1937
[E. A. S. No. 114]

PROTOCOL

Whereas a difference has arisen between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Greece with respect to the proper interpretation of Article I of the Treaty of Extradition concluded on May 6, 1931, between the United States and Greece, and in particular, with respect to the final clause of such Article which reads as follows:

Protocol between the United States and Greece with respect to the interpretation of Article I of the Treaty of Extradition of May 6, 1931.
47 Stat. 2185.

“Provided That such surrender shall take place only upon such evidence of criminality as according to the laws of the place where the fugitive or person so charged shall be found, would justify his apprehension and commitment for trial if the crime or offense had been there committed.”

Surrender of persons charged with crime.

Whereas it is desirable that such differences should be resolved, it is agreed as follows:

Agreement.

The final clause of Article I of the Treaty of Extradition concluded on May 6, 1931, between the United States and Greece, shall, from and after this date, be understood to mean that the court or magistrate considering the request for extradition shall examine only into the question of the sufficiency of the evidence submitted by the demanding Government to justify the apprehension and commitment for trial of the person charged; or in other words, whether the evidence discloses probable cause for believing in the guilt of the person charged. It is further understood that the quoted treaty provisions do not signify that the court or magistrate is authorized to determine the question of the guilt or innocence of the person charged.

Examination of evidence; limitation.

In faith whereof the undersigned plenipotentiaries have signed the present protocol and affixed thereto their respective seals.

Signatures.

ANKARA, le 1 Octobre 1937.

MONSIEUR LE CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES,

En conclusion des récents échanges de vue, au cours desquels l'honorable Ambassade et mon Département s'accordèrent pour reconnaître l'opportunité de reculer légèrement l'échéance (1^{er} juin de chaque année) qui avait été fixée par les Accords des 25 octobre 1934 et 15 juin 1936 (réclamations des citoyens américains; débours effectués par le Gouvernement des Etats-Unis pour la protection des intérêts turcs à l'Etranger) mais qui, du fait de sa coïncidence avec le début de l'année budgétaire turque, s'est avérée, dans la pratique, peu propice à des remboursements ayant un caractère d'urgence, j'ai l'honneur de soumettre à l'appréciation de Votre Gouvernement, l'adoption de la date du 20 juin, qui présente l'avantage d'être située en une période de dégagement des Services intéressés, consécutive aux laborieuses occupations que leur impose la clôture annuelle des comptes.

Je Vous saurais donc gré, Monsieur le Chargé d'Affaires, de vouloir bien m'accuser réception de la présente et de me faire part de l'accord de Votre Gouvernement, quant à la consécration de la date que je viens de proposer ci-haut à Son agrément.

Veuillez agréer, Monsieur le Chargé d'Affaires, l'assurance de ma haut considération.

ANKARA, October 1, 1937.

MR. CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES,

After the recent exchanges of view, during the course of which the honorable Embassy and my Department came to an agreement to seize the opportunity of slightly postponing the due date (the first of June of each year) which had been fixed by the Agreements of October

Modification of claims agreement with Turkey postponing
payments.
Proposal by Turkey.

⁴⁹ Stat. 3670; ante,
p. 353.

25, 1934, and June 15, 1936 (claims of American citizens; disbursements made by the Government of the United States for the protection of Turkish interests abroad) but which, because of its coincidence with the beginning of the Turkish fiscal year, has proved to be, in practice, little suited for making payments of an urgent character, I have the honor to submit to the consideration of your Government the adoption of the date of June 20, which has the advantage of being in a period of inactivity of the interested services, consequent upon the laborious activities imposed upon them by the annual closing of the accounts.

I should therefore be grateful to you, Mr. Chargé d'Affaires if you would please acknowledge receipt of this communication and inform me of the agreement of your Government with regard to the designation of the date that I have just proposed above.

Please accept, Mr. Chargé d'Affaires, the assurances of my high consideration.

Mr. S. WALTER WASHINGTON,

The American Chargé (Kelley) to the Turkish Minister for Foreign Affairs (Aras)

No. 104 EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Ankara, November 3, 1937.

EXCELLENCY:

Consent to change
by United States.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of note No. 29 dated October 1, 1937, from the Acting Minister for Foreign Affairs, in which His Excellency referred to the recent exchanges of views between the Ministry for Foreign Affairs and the Embassy with regard to a slight postponement of the due date (June 1st of each year) of the payments provided for in the Agreements of October 25, 1934 and of June 15, 1936, because that date coincided with the beginning of the Turkish fiscal year and was therefore an inconvenient time on which to make payments of an important nature. The Acting Minister for Foreign Affairs proposed that June 20th, a more convenient and suitable date, be adopted as that on which the above payments would in future be made.

I am pleased to inform Your Excellency that in view of the foregoing considerations my Government has authorized me to consent to a change of the due date for the payment of the annual installments under the Agreements of October 25, 1934 and June 15, 1936, from June 1st to June 20th. Consequently my Government considers that the Agreements of October 25, 1934 and June 15, 1936, have been supplemented to that extent.

I avail myself of the opportunity to present to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

Temporary commercial arrangement between the United States of America and Italy. Effected by exchange of notes, signed December 16, 1937.

[E. A. S. No. 116]

THE AMBASSADOR OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO THE MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF ITALY

ROME, December 16, 1937.

EXCELLENCY,

Inasmuch as the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between the United States and Italy, signed at Florence, February 26, 1871, which terminated on December 15, 1937, in consequence of the joint notice of denunciation of December 15, 1936, provided for the most-favored-nation treatment in customs matters and negotiations for a new treaty to replace it have not been completed, it seems desirable that steps be taken now to determine the treatment which will be accorded by each country to the commerce of the other during the interval between the date on which the treaty of 1871 terminated and the date on which the proposed new treaty will come into force.

Temporary commercial arrangement with Italy.
17 Stat. 845.

In the course of the negotiations of the proposed treaty, the governments of the two countries have tentatively agreed upon the provisions of Article VIII thereof which deals with customs duties, import prohibitions and restrictions, import licenses, exchange control, and monopolies affecting imports and is annexed hereto.

Tentative agreement to Article VIII of proposed treaty.
Post, p. 362.

It is agreed that on its part the Government of Italy will in fact apply the provisions of Article VIII of the proposed new treaty on and after December 15, 1937, and that the Government of the United States on its part will continue to accord to articles the growth, produce or manufacture of Italy the benefits of the minimum rates of the American tariff as established in its trade agreements with other countries (Cuba excepted), until 30 days after notice by either party of its intention to discontinue such treatment.

Application of, on and after December 15, 1937.

It is understood that the stipulations of this temporary arrangement do not apply to:

Exceptions.

A) Preferential advantages which Italy accords to Austria, Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, and Yugoslavia between December 15, 1937 and December 31, 1937.

B) Preferential tariff advantages which Italy accords to Austria after December 31, 1937 under the terms of the treaty between Italy and Austria signed at Rome on November 30, 1937.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to your Excellency the expression of my highest consideration.

WILLIAM PHILLIPS.

Annex.

Article VIII of the proposed Treaty of Friendships, Commerce and Navigation between the United States of America and Italy

Customs duties, etc.	With respect to (1) the amount and collection of customs duties or charges of any kind, including any accessory or additional duties or charges, coefficients or increases imposed on or in connection with importation, exportation, temporary importation, temporary exportation, or warehousing or transit; (2) the method of levying or collecting such duties, charges, coefficients or increases; (3) all rules and formalities in connection with importation or exportation; and (4) all laws or regulations affecting the sale, taxation, or use of imported goods within the country; any advantage, favor, privilege or immunity which has been or may hereafter be granted by either High Contracting Party to any article originating in or destined for any third country, shall be accorded immediately and unconditionally to the like article originating in or destined for the territory of the other High Contracting Party.
Method of levying or collecting. Rules and formalities.
Laws or regulations.
Import or export prohibitions or restrictions.	Neither of the High Contracting Parties shall establish or maintain any import or export prohibition or restriction on any article originating in or destined for the territory of the other High Contracting Party, which is not applied to the like article originating in or destined for any third country. Any abolition of an import or export prohibition or restriction which may be granted by either High Contracting Party in favor of an article originating in or destined for a third country shall be applied immediately and unconditionally to the like article originating in or destined for the territory of the other High Contracting Party.
Quantitative restriction or control.	If either High Contracting Party establishes or maintains any form of quantitative restriction or control of the importation, sale, or exportation of any article in which the other High Contracting Party has a considerable interest, including the regulation of importations, sales or exportations thereof by licenses or permits issued to individuals or organizations, the High Contracting Party taking such action: (1) shall establish the total quantity of any such article permitted to be imported, sold, or exported during a specified period, (2) shall immediately communicate to the other High Contracting Party the provisions adopted together with the complete details with respect to the administration thereof, and (3) in the case of imports, shall allot to the other High Contracting Party for such specified period a proportion of such total quantity equivalent to the proportion of the total importation of such article which the other High Contracting Party supplied during a previous representative period, and (4) in the case of exports, shall allot to the other High Contracting Party for such specified period, a proportion of such total quantity equivalent to the proportion of the total exportation of such article which was supplied to the other High Contracting Party during a previous representative period, unless it be mutually agreed to dispense with such import or export allotment.

If either High Contracting Party establishes or maintains, directly or indirectly, any form of control of the means of international payment,¹ it shall, in the administration of such control:

Administration of control of the means of international payment.

(a) Impose no prohibition, restriction, or delay, on the transfer of payment for imports of articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of the other High Contracting Party, or on the transfer of payments necessary for and incidental to the importation of such articles;

Transfer of payments; no prohibitions, etc.

(b) With respect to rates of exchange, and taxes or surcharges on exchange transactions, in connection with payments for or payments necessary and incidental to the importation of articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of the other High Contracting Party, accord unconditionally treatment no less favorable than that accorded in connection with the importation of any article the growth, produce, or manufacture of any third country; and

Rates of exchange, etc.

(c) With respect to all rules and formalities relating to exchange transactions in connection with payments for or payments necessary and incidental to the importation of articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of the other High Contracting Party, accord unconditionally treatment no less favorable than is accorded in connection with the importation of the like article the growth produce, or manufacture of any third country.

Rules and formalities relating to exchange transactions.

With respect to non-commercial transactions each High Contracting Party shall apply every form of control of foreign exchange in a non-discriminatory manner as between the nationals of the other High Contracting Party and the nationals of any third country.

Non-commercial transactions.

In the event that either High Contracting Party establishes or maintains a monopoly for the importation, production or sale of a particular product or grants exclusive privileges, formally or in effect, to one or more agencies to import, produce or sell a particular product, the High Contracting Party establishing or maintaining such monopoly, or granting such monopoly privileges, shall, in respect of the foreign purchases of such monopoly or agency, accord the commerce of the other High Contracting Party fair and equitable treatment. In making its foreign purchases of any article such monopoly or agency shall be influenced solely by competitive considerations such as price, quality, marketability, and terms of sale. Either High Contracting Party shall supply such information with respect to the foreign purchases of every such monopoly or agency as the other Party may at any time request.

Treatment of Government monopolies.

The High Contracting Parties will consult with each other in respect of any matter presented by either Party relating to the application of the provisions of this article.

Mutual consultation respecting provisions of article.

Memorandum of Interpretation of Article VIII.

Paragraphe¹ three.—The total amount of any permitted import, of which a share is to be assigned by either country to the other, shall include all imports of the regulated article, including such imports as may be made through public or private clearing, compensation, or payment arrangements.

Memorandum of interpretation of Article VIII.
Share of imports.

quota.

If the authorities of either country permit imports additional to the amount of any quota which has been established by establishing a supplementary quota, in that event an equitable share of such supplementary quota is to be assigned unconditionally to the other country.

"Representative" base period.

It is also to be understood that the "representative" base period should be one in which the trade of the other country was not being impaired by discriminations and was not seriously affected by conditions of an unusual and temporary character.

"Restriction" defined.

Paragraph four, sub-paragraph (a).—To impose the condition that payment for the importation of any article must be presented in compensation would be to impose a "restriction" on the transfer of payment.

Rates of exchange, determination.

Paragraph four, sub-paragraph (b).—In determining most favored nation treatment with respect to rates of exchange it is suggested that a suitable criterion would be cross rates of exchange in some free market.

IL MINISTRO DEGLI AFFARI ESTERI D'ITALIA ALL'AMBASCIATORE
DEGLI STATI UNITI D'AMERICA

ROMA, 16 dicembre 1937.

SIGNOR AMBASCIATORE,

Con nota in data odierna, l'Eccellenza Vostra mi ha comunicato quanto segue:

"Poichè il Trattato di Commercio e Navigazione tra gli Stati Uniti di America e l'Italia firmato a Firenze il 26 febbraio 1871 e scaduto il 15 dicembre 1937 in conseguenza della reciproca denuncia data il 15 dicembre 1936, assicurava il trattamento della Nazione più favorita in materia doganale, e poichè i negoziati per la definizione di un nuovo Trattato in sostituzione del primo non sono stati portati a termine, sembra opportuno definire il trattamento che sarà accordato da ciascuno dei due Paesi al commercio dell'altro, durante l'intervallo tra la data di scadenza del Trattato 1871 e la data in cui verrà in applicazione il nuovo Trattato.

"Nel corso dei negoziati per il nuovo Trattato i Governi dei due Paesi si sono provvisoriamente accordati sul disposto dell'art. VIII dello stesso che riguarda i dazi doganali, proibizioni e restrizioni all'importazione, licenze di importazione, controllo dei cambi e monopoli concernenti le importazioni, articolo che è allegato alla presente nota.

"Resta inteso che il Governo italiano, da parte sua, applicherà di fatto, a partire dal 15 dicembre 1937, le norme dell'art. VIII del trattato proposto e che il Governo degli Stati Uniti d'America, da parte sua, continuerà ad accordare a tutti i prodotti ed articoli agricoli ed industriali italiani, i benefici della tariffa minima americana secondo quanto è fissata negli accordi commerciali con altri Paesi (ad eccezione di Cuba) fino a 30 giorni dopo la denuncia data da una delle parti della sua intenzione di sospendere tale trattamento.

"E' inteso che le disposizioni del presente Modus Vivendi non si applicano:

1° alle preferenze che l'Italia accorda all'Albania, Austria, Bulgaria, Ungheria e Jugoslavia dal 15 dicembre al 31 dicembre 1937;

2° alle preferenze doganali che l'Italia accorderà all'Austria dopo il 31 dicembre 1937, ai termini dell'Accordo tra l'Italia e l'Austria firmato il 30 novembre 1937 a Roma".

Ho l'onore di portare a conoscenza dell'E. V. che il Governo italiano è d'accordo su quanto precede.

Voglia gradire, Signor Ambasciatore, l'assicurazione della mia più alta considerazione.

CIANO

[Annesso]

Articolo VIII del Trattato di amicizia, commercio e navigazione tra l'Italia e gli Stati Uniti d'America, in corso di negoziazione

Per quanto riguarda (1) l'ammontare e la riscossione dei dazi doganali e dei diritti di ogni altro genere, inclusi diritti o tasse addizionali o accessorie, coefficienti o aumenti imposti sulla, o in relazione all'importazione, esportazione, importazione temporanea, esportazione temporanea, deposito o transito; (2) il metodo di prelevamento o riscossione di tali dazi, diritti, coefficienti o aumenti; (3) tutte le disposizioni e formalità in rapporto con l'importazione e l'esportazione; e (4) tutte le leggi o regolamenti relativi alla vendita, tassazione, od uso delle merci d'importazione nell'interno del paese; ogni vantaggio, favore, privilegio o esenzione che sia stato concesso o possa in seguito venire concesso da una delle Alte Parti contraenti per ogni prodotto originario di, o destinato a qualsiasi terzo paese, sarà immediatamente ed incondizionatamente accordato al corrispondente prodotto originario del o destinato al territorio dell'altra Alta Parte contraente.

Nessuna delle Alte Parti contraenti potrà stabilire o mantenere alcuna proibizione o restrizione all'importazione od esportazione di un prodotto originario del o destinato al territorio dell'altra Alta Parte contraente, che non sia applicato al similare prodotto originario di o destinato ad un terzo paese. Ogni abolizione di una proibizione o restrizione all'importazione o all'esportazione che sia concessa da una delle Alte Parti contraenti a favore di un prodotto originario di o destinato ad un terzo paese, sarà immediatamente e incondizionatamente estesa al similare prodotto originario del, o destinato al territorio dell'altra Alta Parte contraente.

Se una delle Alte Parti contraenti stabilisce o mantiene una qualsiasi forma di limitazione quantitativa o controllo dell'importazione, vendita o esportazione di un qualsiasi prodotto per il quale l'altra Alta Parte contraente abbia un considerevole interesse, inclusa la regolamentazione delle importazioni, vendite od esportazioni del prodotto in oggetto a mezzo di licenze o permessi rilasciati a persone singole od enti, l'Alta Parte contraente che adotta una tale misura dovrà:

(1) stabilire la totale quantità di ciascun prodotto ammessa all'importazione, alla vendita o all'esportazione durante un determinato periodo,

(2) comunicare immediatamente all'altra Alta Parte contraente le disposizioni adottate coi completi dettagli relativi alla loro applicazione; e

(3) nel caso di importazioni dovrà concedere all'altra Alta Parte contraente, per tale determinato periodo, una percentuale del totale quantitativo equivalente alla percentuale della totale importazione di detto prodotto che l'altra Alta Parte contraente aveva fornito durante un precedente periodo rappresentativo di tempo, e

(4) nel caso dell'esportazione, accorderà all'altra Alta Parte contraente, per il periodo considerato una percentuale del quantitativo totale equivalente alla percentuale della totale esportazione di tale prodotto che era stata fornita all'altra Alta Parte contraente durante un precedente periodo rappresentativo di tempo, a meno che non venga stabilito di accordo di rinunciare a tale concessione di importazione od esportazione.

Se una delle Alte Parti contraenti stabilisce o mantiene, direttamente od indirettamente, una qualsiasi forma di controllo sui mezzi di pagamento internazionale, essa dovrà, nell'effettuare tale controllo:

a) non imporre alcuna proibizione, restrizione o dilazione nel trasferimento del pagamento per l'importazione di tutti i prodotti ed articoli agricoli e industriali dell'altra Alta Parte contraente, o sul trasferimento dei pagamenti necessari e relativi all'importazione di tali prodotti;

b) in rapporto ai tassi di cambio ed ai tributi o sovrainposte sulle transazioni valutarie in connessione con pagamenti per, o con pagamenti necessari e relativi all'importazione di tutti i prodotti ed articoli agricoli e industriali dell'altra Alta Parte contraente accordare incondizionatamente un trattamento non meno favorevole di quello accordato all'importazione di qualsiasi prodotto agricolo o industriale di un terzo paese, e

c) in relazione ai regolamenti e formalità relative a transazioni valutarie connesse con pagamenti per, o con pagamenti necessari e relativi all'importazione di tutti i prodotti ed articoli agricoli ed industriali dell'altra Alta Parte contraente, accordare incondizionatamente un trattamento non meno favorevole di quello accordato in relazione all'importazione di prodotti similari agricoli o industriali di qualsiasi terzo paese.

In relazione alle transazioni non commerciali, ciascuna delle Alte Parti contraenti, nell'applicazione di qualsiasi forma di controllo dei cambi esteri non dovrà fare alcuna discriminazione tra i nazionali dell'altra Alta Parte contraente ed i nazionali di un qualsiasi terzo paese.

Nel caso in cui una delle Alte Parti contraenti stabilisca o mantenga un monopolio dell'importazione, produzione o vendita di un determinato prodotto, o conceda dei privilegi esclusivi, formalmente o di fatto, ad una o più agenzie, di importare, produrre o vendere un determinato prodotto, l'Alta Parte contraente che stabilisce o mantiene tale monopolio, o concede tali privilegi monopolistici, dovrà, per gli acquisti che tale monopolio od agenzia farà all'estero, riservare all'altra Alta Parte contraente un giusto ed equo trattamento. Nel procedere nei suoi acquisti all'estero di un qualsiasi prodotto, tale monopolio o agenzia sarà guidata solamente da considerazioni di concorrenza, quali prezzo, qualità, commerciabilità o condizioni di vendita. Ciascuna delle Alte Parti contraenti dovrà fornire tutte le informazioni relative agli acquisti all'estero di ogni monopolio o agenzia che l'altra Alta Parte contraente potrà, in ogni momento, richiedere.

Le Alte Parti contraenti si consulteranno reciprocamente su ogni questione che l'una o l'altra parte potrà sottoporre relativamente all'applicazione delle disposizioni del presente articolo.

Memorandum per l'Interpretazione dell'Art. VIII.

Paragrafo tre.—L'ammontare totale di ogni importazione consentita di cui una quota debba essere assegnata da uno dei due Paesi all'altro, includerà tutte le importazioni della merce sottoposta a regolamentazione, comprese quelle importazioni che possano effettuarsi mediante clearings pubblici o privati, compensazioni, o accordi di pagamento. Nel caso in cui le Autorità di uno dei due Paesi permettessero importazioni addizionali al contingente fissato, stabilendo un contingente supplementare, un'equa parte di tale contingente supplementare dovrà essere assegnata incondizionatamente all'altro Stato.

È inoltre inteso che il periodo base "rappresentativo" dovrà essere uno in cui il commercio dell'altro Paese non veniva diminuito da discriminazioni e non era seriamente influenzato da condizioni di carattere straordinario e transitorio.

Paragrafo quattro, sotto paragrafo (a).—Imporre la condizione che il pagamento per l'importazione di qualsiasi articolo debba avvenire in compensazione, equivarrebbe a imporre una "restrizione" sul trasferimento del pagamento.

Paragrafo quattro, sotto paragrafo (b).—Nel fissare il trattamento della nazione più favorita, in materia di corsi di cambio, si suggerisce che un criterio conveniente potrebbe essere quello di un cambio che sia in parità con quello di alcuni mercati liberi.

Rules superseded.
38 Stat. 1968.

WHEREAS section 412 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code approved June 19, 1934, requires the President to determine the tonnage of vessels upon which toll charges for the use of the Panama Canal shall be based; and

WHEREAS the act entitled "An Act to provide for the measurement of vessels using the Panama Canal, and for other purposes", approved August 24, 1937, which amends the said section 412 and which by its terms becomes effective March 1, 1938, provides, in part, that tolls on merchant vessels, army and navy transports, colliers, hospital ships, supply ships, and yachts shall be based on net-vessel tons of 100 cubic feet each of actual earning capacity determined in accordance with the Rules for the Measurement of Vessels for the Panama Canal prescribed by the President and as may be modified by him from time to time by proclamation after public hearings and six months' public notice:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the aforesaid section 412 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code, approved June 19, 1934, do hereby prescribe and proclaim the Rules for the Measurement of Vessels for the Panama Canal which are annexed hereto and made a part of this proclamation.

The Rules for the Measurement of Vessels for the Panama Canal prescribed by this proclamation shall become effective on March 1, 1938, and shall on that date supersede the Rules prescribed by Proclamation No. 1258 of November 21, 1913.

RULES FOR THE MEASUREMENT OF VESSELS FOR THE PANAMA CANAL

EFFECTIVE MARCH 1, 1938.

ALL VESSELS TO PRESENT TONNAGE DOCUMENT AT CANAL

1. ARTICLE I. All vessels, American and foreign, except warships, floating drydocks, and dredges, including vessels of commerce and Army and Navy transports, colliers, supply ships, and hospital ships, applying for passage through the Panama Canal shall present a duly authenticated certificate stating the vessel's gross and net tonnage as determined by these rules. Vessels of commerce, Army and Navy transports, colliers, supply ships, and hospital ships without such certificate shall, before passing through the Canal, or before being allowed to clear therefrom, be measured, and shall have their gross and net tonnage determined in accordance with these rules.

All vessels to present tonnage document at Canal.

2. All warships, American and foreign, other than transports, colliers, supply and hospital ships, shall present duly authenticated displacement scale and curves stating accurately the tonnage of displacement at each possible mean draft.

Displacement scale and curves.

VESSELS DESIGNATED AS "SUPPLY SHIPS", "COLLIERS", AND "WARSHIPS"

3. It is to be understood that "supply ships" shall include Army and Navy ammunition ships, refrigerator ships, distilling ships, repair ships and tenders, as well as Army and Navy vessels used to transport general Army and Navy supplies; and that "colliers" shall include Army and Navy vessels used to transport coal or fuel oil; and that "warships" shall include armed coast guard vessels and vessels devoted to naval training purposes.

"Supply ships", "colliers", and "warships." Vessels included.

GROSS TONNAGE

Gross tonnage.

SPACES TO BE INCLUDED IN GROSS TONNAGE

4. ART. II. Gross tonnage as determined by these rules shall express the total capacity of vessels, i. e., the exact cubical contents of all spaces below the upper deck and of all permanently covered and closed-in spaces on or above that deck, excepting such spaces as may be hereinafter permitted as exemptions from measurement. Gross tonnage shall include not only all permanently covered and closed-in spaces which are or may be used for stowing cargo and stores or for providing shelter and other comfort for passengers or crew, but also such spaces as are used, or are intended to be used, in navigating and serving the vessel.

Spaces to be included.

5. Only such spaces as are specifically mentioned in article IV, below, shall be exempted from measurement. All other spaces shall be considered as closed in and shall be included in gross tonnage.

Post, p. 374.

SPACES CONSIDERED PERMANENTLY COVERED AND CLOSED IN

6. ART. III. By permanently covered and closed-in spaces on or above the upper deck are to be understood all those which are separated off by decks or coverings, or fixed partitions, and which, therefore, represent an increase of capacity that is or may be used for the stowage of cargo, or for the berthing and accommodation of the passengers, the officers, or the crew. No break in a deck, nor any opening or openings in a deck or the covering of a space or in the partitions or walls of a space, nor the absence of a partition shall prevent a space from being measured and comprised in gross tonnage if means are provided for closing such a break, opening or openings, so that the spaces thus closed in be thereby better fitted for the transport of goods or passengers. The upper deck is the uppermost full length deck extending from stem to stern.

Spaces considered permanently covered and closed-in.

7. In the case of a vessel having a "trunk" or "turret", the deck forming the covering of the trunk or turret shall be considered the upper deck, and all spaces below that deck within the trunk or turret shall be considered as covered and closed in. The space within the turret or trunk shall be measured as are other between-deck spaces.

8. Spaces considered as "permanently closed in" and spaces permitted to be exempted from measurement shall be determined solely by the provisions contained in these rules, and not by any definitions or provisions contained in the measurement rules or regulations of any country.

SPACES EXEMPTED FROM MEASUREMENT AND GROSS TONNAGE

Spaces exempted from measurement and gross tonnage.

Upper deck, etc.

9. ART. IV. The following spaces shall be exempted from measurement and shall not be included in the gross tonnage, and no other spaces shall be exempted:

10. SECTION 1. Spaces on or above the upper deck not permanently covered or closed in, or which may not be readily covered or closed in. In the application of this rule it will be understood that—

(a) Spaces under decks or coverings having no other connection with the body of the ship than the stanchions necessary for their support are not spaces separated off, but are spaces permanently exposed to the weather and the sea and are not to be included in the gross tonnage.

(b) A space within a poop, forecastle, bridge house, or other "permanently covered and closed-in" superstructure or erection may be considered as not permanently covered or closed-in, and may consequently be excluded from tonnage, if the space is opposite an end opening which is not provided with means of closing, and which opening has a breadth equal to or greater than half the breadth of the deck at the line of the opening, and if the space opposite the opening cannot be used to shelter other merchandise than cargo or stores that do not require protection from the sea. If the opening is fitted with a coaming, the space within it is to be included in the gross tonnage if the coaming is more than 2 feet in height. This provision shall be so applied as to exempt from measurement only the space between the actual end opening and a line drawn parallel to the line or face of the opening at a distance from the opening equal to one-half the width of the deck at the line of the opening; provided, that any closed-in space between the open face and the line drawn parallel to it shall be measured. The remainder of the space within a poop, forecastle, bridge house, or other superstructure or erection shall be considered as available for the accommodation of cargo or stores, of passengers or of the ship's personnel, and shall be measured and included in the gross tonnage. (See figs. 1, 2, and 3.)

Post, p. 375.

Should the open space within a poop, forecastle, bridge house, superstructure, or erection between the end opening and a parallel line distant from the opening by half the breadth of the deck become, because of any arrangement, except by convergence of fore and aft bulkheads, of less width than half the breadth of the deck, then only the space between the line of the end opening and a parallel line drawn through the point where the athwartship width of the open space within the poop, forecastle, bridge house, superstructure, or erection becomes equal to, or less than, half the breadth of the deck shall be exempted from measurement. (See figs. 4, 5, 6, and 7.) The remainder of the space within the poop, forecastle, bridge house, superstructure, or erection is to be included in the gross tonnage.

When two erections extending from side to side of the ship are separated by an interval the fore-and-aft length of which is less than the least half breadth of the deck in way of such interval, than whatever be the breadth of the permanent end openings of the erections, the entire erections, less the interval separating them, shall be measured and included in the gross tonnage. (See fig. 8.)

Post, p. 376.

(c) In a poop, forecastle, side-to-side bridge house, or other "permanently covered and closed-in" superstructure or side-to-side erection the space directly in way of opposite openings, the height of which is at least 3 feet, in the side walls of the ship not provided with means of closing and corresponding to each other in the opposite walls of the ship shall be exempted. (See figs. 9 and 10.) Passages running fore-and-aft abreast the engine-room casing and open at both ends shall not be exempted. The deck erection including same shall be considered a side-to-side erection provided its outboard sides are flush with the hull of the vessel.

Post, p. 376.

11. SEC. 2. Spaces in way of opposite side openings at least 3 feet in height not provided with means of closing shall be exempted. In the case of a continuous deck with one or more deck openings (usually designated as tonnage openings) that may be so closed as to permit cargo or stores to be carried in the space under the deck, or under portions thereof, only the spaces under such a deck that are exactly in way of opposite openings at least 3 feet in height in the side walls of the ship not provided with means of closing and corresponding to each other in the opposite walls of the ship shall be exempted; and the remaining spaces under such a deck shall be measured and included in gross tonnage. In case the openings in the side walls of the ship are provided with means of closing no portion of the space under such a deck shall be exempted. (Fig. 11.)

Opposite side, tonnage, etc., openings.

Ante, p. 373.

12. SEC. 3. The spaces framed in round the funnels and the spaces required for the admission of light and air into the engine rooms shall be exempted from measurement to the extent that such spaces are above the deck or covering of the first or lowest tier of side-to-side erections, if any, on the upper deck as defined in Art. III. A deck with one or more deck openings (usually designated as tonnage openings) that may be so closed as to permit cargo or stores to be carried in the space under the deck or portions thereof would be considered as the upper deck. There shall, however, be measured and included within gross tonnage the spaces situated within closed-in side-to-side erections on the upper deck, spaces framed in round the funnels and those required for the admission of light and air to the extent that such light and air and funnel spaces are below the deck or covering of the first or lowest tier of such side-to-side erections on the upper deck. There shall be exempted from the measurement of any superstructure or erection situated above the first or lowest tier of side-to-side erections on the upper deck such portion or portions thereof as are occupied by the spaces framed in round the funnels or by the spaces required for the admission of light and air into the engine rooms. Such exempted spaces must not be used for any other than their designated purpose and must be reasonable in extent.

13. SEC. 4. Space or spaces between the inner and outer plating of the double bottom of a vessel shall be exempted from measurement, except when used, designated or intended for carrying cargo; but the tonnage of such spaces within the double bottom as are or may be used for carrying cargo, shall be determined and included in the gross tonnage. The tonnage of double bottom tanks available for cargo may be obtained by multiplying the liquid-capacity weight by the proper conversion factor to get tons of 100 cubic feet.

Space between inner and outer plating of double bottom.

14. SEC. 5. The cubical contents of hatchways shall be obtained by multiplying the length and breadth together and the product by the mean depth taken from the top of beam to the underside of the hatch cover. From the aggregate tonnage of the hatchways there shall be deducted one-half of 1 percent of the vessel's gross tonnage, exclusive of hatchways, and only the remainder shall be added to the gross tonnage of the ship, exclusive of the tonnage of the hatchways.

Cubical contents of hatchways, determination of.

15. SEC. 6. Companion houses shall be exempted when used solely to protect stairways and ladders leading to spaces below. When used as smoking rooms or for any other purposes than companion houses, the parts so used shall be measured and included in gross tonnage.

Companion houses.

16. SEC. 7. Domes, skylights, and airshafts shall be exempt from measurement. When there is an opening in the floor of a superstructure immediately below a skylight, the exemption shall include the space between the skylight and the opening in the floor of the superstructure immediately under the skylight. The remainder of the superstructure shall be included in the measurement. The space, in addition to the skylight, that may be exempted by this rule is that indicated by A, B, C, D in the following drawings:

Domes, skylights, and airshafts.

17. ART. V. (This section was eliminated on recommendation of Special Committee on Panama Canal Tolls and Vessel Measurement Rules, 1936.)

SPACES AVAILABLE FOR PASSENGERS NOT TO BE EXEMPTED

18. ART. VI. Spaces for the use or possible use of passengers shall not be exempted from measurement except as stated in Article IV, section 1, paragraph (a).

Spaces available for passengers not to be exempted, exception. Ante, p. 374.

19. In case of Army and Navy transports, colliers, supply ships, and hospital ships as defined in article I, the term "passengers" shall include all officers, enlisted men, and other persons who are not assigned to duty and who are not duly inscribed on the ship's rolls.

"Passengers", term construed.

20. ART. VII (This section was eliminated on recommendation of Special Committee on Panama Canal Tolls and Vessel Measurement Rules, 1936.)

Ascertainment of cubical contents of spaces.

MEASUREMENT OF THE CUBICAL CONTENTS OF SPACES MAY BE BY THE MOORSOM SYSTEM IN EACH COUNTRY, OR BY THE MOORSOM SYSTEM AS PRESCRIBED IN THESE RULES

Moorsom system of measurement.

21. ART. VIII. The cubical contents of the spaces included, by these rules, in gross tonnage may, in any country where the Moorsom system of measurement has been adopted, be ascertained under that system as applied in measuring vessels for national registry, provided that system is substantially similar to the Moorsom system of measurement as set forth in article IX of these rules.

RULES FOR THE MEASUREMENT OF CONTENTS OF SPACES

Countries not using Moorsom system.

22. ART. IX. In countries that have not adopted the Moorsom system of measuring spaces within vessels, the cubical contents of any of the spaces included in gross tonnage shall be ascertained according to the Moorsom system as set forth in the following rules: Rule I for the measurement of empty vessels; rule II for laden vessels; rule III for open vessels.

RULE I. FOR MEASURING THE GROSS TONNAGE OF EMPTY VESSELS

Rule for measuring gross tonnage of empty vessels.

23. SEC. 1. The length for the admeasurement of ships having one or more decks is taken on the tonnage deck, which is—

(a) The upper deck for vessels having one or two decks.

(b) The second deck from below for vessels having more than two decks.

24. Measure the length of ship in a straight line along the upper side of the tonnage deck from the inside of the inner plank (average thickness) at the side of the stem to the inside of the midship stern timber or plank there, as the case may be (average thickness), deducting from this length what is due to the rake of the bow in the thickness of the deck and what is due to the rake of the stern timber in the thickness of the deck, and also what is due to the rake of the stern timber in one-third of the round of the beam; divide the length so taken into the number of equal parts required by the following table, according to the class in such table to which the ship belongs:

Class 1: Ships of which the tonnage deck is, according to the above measurement, 50 feet long or under, into four equal parts.

Class 2: Ships of which the tonnage deck is, according to the above measurement, above 50 feet long and not exceeding 120 feet, into six equal parts.

Class 3: Ships of which the tonnage deck is, according to the above measurement, above 120 feet long and not exceeding 180 feet, into eight equal parts.

Class 4: Ships of which the tonnage deck is, according to the above measurement, above 180 feet long and not exceeding 225 feet, into 10 equal parts.

Class 5: Ships of which the tonnage deck is, according to the above measurement, above 225 feet long, into 12 equal parts. (Note: A greater number of divisions is permissible provided there be an even number of divisions.)

25. In the case of a break or breaks in a double-bottom, the length of the vessel is to be taken in parts according to the number of breaks, and each part divided into a number of equal parts according to the class in the above table to which such length belongs.

26. SEC. 2. Then the hold being first sufficiently cleared to admit of the required depths and breadths being properly taken, find the transverse area of the ship at each point of division of the length or each point of division of the parts of the length, as the case may require as follows: Measure the depth at each point of division, from a point at a distance of one-third of the round of the beam below the tonnage deck, or, in the case of a break, below a line stretched in continuation thereof, to the upper side of the floor timber (upper side of the inner plating of the double bottom) at the inside of the limber strake, after deducting the average thickness of the ceiling which is between the bilge planks and the limber strake.

27. In the case of a vessel constructed with longitudinal framing, the depths are to be taken to the upper edge or inner surface of the longitudinal frames, where no double bottoms exist. In the case of a ship constructed with a double bottom, the depth shall be taken to the upper side of the inner plating of the double bottom, and that upper side shall, for the purposes of measurement, be deemed to represent the floor timber of the vessel. This rule for measuring the depth of the hold applies to double-bottom ships having top of double bottom not horizontal. Subject to the provisions of article IV, section 4 of these rules regarding the exemption of double-bottom spaces, if any tank or compartment between the inner and outer plating of the double bottom is used or fitted for the carrying of cargo, the tonnage of the whole of such tank or compartment shall be determined and included in the gross tonnage of the vessel.

Vessel constructed with longitudinal framing, etc.

Ante, p. 377.

28. If the depth at the midship division of the length does not exceed 16 feet, divide each depth into five equal parts; then measure the inside horizontal breadth at each of the four points of division, and also at the upper point of the depth, extending each measurement to the average thickness in that part of the ceiling which is between the points of measurement. Number these breadths from above (i. e., numbering the upper breadth 1, and so on down to the fifth breadth); multiply the second and fourth by 4, and the third by 2; add these products together, and to the sum add the first breadth and the fifth. Multiply the quantity thus obtained by one-third of the common interval between the breadths, and the product shall be deemed the transverse area of the upper part of the section; then find the area between the fifth and lower point of the depth by dividing the depth between such points into four equal parts, and measure the horizontal breadths at the three points of division and also at the upper and lower points, and proceed as before, and the sum of two parts shall be deemed to be the transverse area; but if the midship depth exceed 16 feet, divide each depth into seven equal parts instead of five, and measure, as before directed, the horizontal breadths at the six points of division, and also at the upper point of the depth; number them from above, as before; multiply the second, fourth, and sixth by 4, and the third and fifth by 2; add these products together, and to the sum add the first breadth and the seventh. Multiply the quantity thus obtained by one-third of the common interval between the breadths, and the product shall be deemed to be the transverse area of the upper part of the section; then find the lower part of the area as before directed, and add the two parts together, and the sum shall be deemed to be the transverse area.

If depth at midship division of length does not exceed 16 feet.

29. This section applies to vessels with double bottoms, the tops of which have a rise from the middle line to each side. In vessels in which the top of the double bottom is horizontal, or in which there is no double bottom, the depths are to be divided by 4 or 6 (instead of 5 or 7), according to their midship depths do not or do exceed 16 feet respectively. In such cases no subdivision of the lower part is to be made.

Ships built on Isherwood system.

30. In the case of ships built on the Isherwood system the depths are to be taken to the upper edge of the longitudinal frames, where no double bottom exists. In vessels built of concrete the depths and breadths shall be taken to the inner edge of the main frames. It is to be noted that section 2, paragraph 29, provides that in vessels without double bottoms no subdivision of the lower part of the transverse area is to be made. On ships built with transverse frames without double bottoms the depths are to be taken to the top of the transverse frames, and no subdivision of the lower section is necessary.

31. SEC. 3. Number the transverse sections or areas respectively 1, 2, 3, etc., No. 1 being at the extreme limit of the length at the bow, or of each part of the length, and the last number at the extreme limit of the length at the stern or the extreme limit at the after end of each part of the length; then, whether the length be divided according to the table into 4 or 12 parts, as in classes 1 and 5, or any intermediate number, as in classes 2, 3, and 4, multiply the second and every even-numbered area by 4, and the third and every odd-numbered area (except the first and last) by 2; add these products together, and to the sum add the first and last, if they yield anything; multiply the quantity thus obtained by one-third of the common interval between the areas, and the product will be the cubical contents of the space, or cubical contents of each part if the ship is measured in parts under the tonnage deck. The tonnage of this volume is obtained by dividing it by 100, if the measurements are taken in English feet, and by 2.83 if the measurements are taken in meters. The multiplier 0.353 may be used instead of the divisor 2.83.

If ship has a third deck.

32. SEC. 4. If the ship has a third deck the tonnage of the space between it and the tonnage deck shall be ascertained as follows: Measure in feet the inside length of the space at the middle of its height from the plank at the side of the stem to the lining on the timbers at the stern, and divide the length into the same number of equal parts into which the length of the tonnage deck is divided, as above directed; measure (also at the middle of its height) the inside breadth of the space at each of the points of division, also the breadth at the stem and the breadth at the stern; number them successively 1, 2, 3, etc., commencing at the stem; multiply the second and all the other even-numbered breadths by 4, and the third and all the other odd-numbered breadths (except the first and last) by 2; to the sum of these products add the first and last breadths; multiply the whole sum by one-third of the common interval between the breadths, and the result will give in superficial feet the mean horizontal area of the space; measure the mean height of the space, and multiply by it the mean horizontal area, and the product will be the cubical contents of the space; divide this product by 100 (or by 2.83 if the measurements are taken in meters) and the quotient shall be deemed to be the tonnage of the space, and shall be added to the tonnage of the ship ascertained as aforesaid; and if the ship has more than three decks, the tonnage of each space between decks above the tonnage deck shall be severally ascertained in the manner above described, and shall be added to the tonnage of the ship ascertained as aforesaid.

Permanently covered, etc., space on or above upper deck.

33. SEC. 5. If there be a break, a poop, or any other permanently covered or closed-in space on or above the upper deck (as defined above in article III) the tonnage of such space shall be ascertained as follows: Measure the internal mean length of the space in feet, and divide it into two equal parts; measure at the middle of its height three inside breadths, namely, one at each end and the other at the middle of the length; then to the sum of the end breadths add four times the middle breadth, and multiply the whole sum by one-third of the common interval between the breadths; the product will give the mean horizontal area of the space; then measure the mean height and multiply by it the mean horizontal area; divide the product by 100 (or by 2.83 if the measurements are taken in meters) and the quotient shall be deemed to be the tonnage of the space.

Ante, p. 373.

34. SEC. 6. In measuring the length, breadth, and height of the general volume of the ship or that of the other spaces, reduce to the mean thickness the parts of the ceiling which exceed the mean thickness. When the ceiling is absent, or when it is not permanently fixed, the length and breadth shall be reckoned from the main frames of the ship, not from the web or belt frames. The same principle is to hold in the case of deck erections; that is, the breadth is to be reckoned from the main framing or stiffeners of the same, when ceiling is not fitted. When the main framing of the ship is curved or carried upward and inboard so as to permit the building of top-side tanks or compartments outboard of the main framing, the breadth of the ship shall be reckoned from the outboard framing of such outboard tanks, thus including these tanks in the measurement.

Length, breadth, and height, method of measurement.

RULE II. FOR MEASURING THE GROSS TONNAGE OF LADEN SHIPS

35. SEC. 7. When ships have cargo on board, or when for any other reason their tonnage cannot be ascertained by means of rule I, proceed in the following manner:

Rule for measuring gross tonnage of laden ships.
Ante, p. 378.

36. Measure the length on the uppermost full-length deck from the outside of the outer plank at the stem to the aft side of the sternpost, deducting therefrom the distance between the aft side of the sternpost and the rabbet of the sternpost at the point where the counterplank crosses it. Measure also the greatest breadth of the ship to the outside of the outer planking or wales at the middle perpendicular. Then, having first marked on the outside of the ship on both sides thereof the height of the uppermost full-length deck at the ship's sides, girth the ship at the middle perpendicular in a direction perpendicular to the keel from the height so marked on the outside of the ship, on the one side, to the height so marked on the other side, by passing a chain under the keel; to half the girth thus taken add half the main breadth; square the sum, multiply the result by the length of the ship taken as aforesaid, then multiply this product by the factor 0.17 in the case of ships built of wood, and by the factor 0.18 in the case of ships built of iron or steel. The product will give approximately the cubical contents of the ship, and the tonnage can be ascertained by dividing by 100 or by 2.83, according as the measurements are taken in English feet or in meters.

37. SEC. 8. If there be a break, a poop, or other permanently covered and closed-in spaces (as defined above in article III) on or above the uppermost full-length deck, the tonnage of such spaces shall be ascertained by multiplying together the mean inside length, breadth, and depth of such spaces and dividing the product by 100, or 2.83, according as the measurements are taken in English feet or meters, and the quotient so obtained shall be deemed to be the tonnage of the spaces, and shall be added to the other tonnage in order to determine the gross tonnage or total capacity of the ship.

Permanently covered, etc., spaces on or above uppermost full-length deck.
Ante, p. 373.

RULE III. FOR MEASUREMENT OF OPEN VESSELS

Rule for measurement of open vessels.

38. SEC. 9. In ascertaining the tonnage of open ships, the upper edge of the upper strake of the shell plating is to form the boundary line of measurement, and the depths shall be taken from an athwartship line, extended from upper edge to upper edge of the said strake at each division of the length.

DEDUCTIONS FROM THE GROSS TONNAGE TO ASCERTAIN THE NET TONNAGE

(A) DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED FOR ALL VESSELS

Deductions from gross tonnage to ascertain net tonnage.
Post, p. 383.

39. ART. X. The following spaces (enumerated below in secs. 1 to 11 of this article) shall be deducted from the gross tonnage in order to ascertain the net tonnage of vessels not propelled by engines, and no other spaces shall be deducted. These deductions will also be allowed for vessels propelled by engines, with additional deductions for vessels propelled by engines, listed under (B) article XII. Unless otherwise expressly stipulated, these spaces shall be deducted whether located above or below the upper deck.

Ascertainment of volume or cubical contents of deducted spaces; remainder.
Ante, p. 378.

40. The volume or cubical contents of deducted spaces shall be ascertained in the manner specified in article VIII or article IX of these rules. The remainder, resulting from deducting from the total space included in gross tonnage the sum of the cubical contents of the spaces whose deduction from gross tonnage is permitted by these rules, shall be the Panama Canal net tonnage of vessels upon which tolls and other charges based upon net tonnage shall be paid by vessels of commerce, Army and Navy transports, colliers, supply ships, and hospital ships (as defined in art. I) for passage through the Panama Canal. One hundred cubic feet, or 2.83 cubic meters, shall constitute 1 gross or net ton.

Ante, p. 373.

Passenger spaces.

Ante, p. 377.

41. Spaces for the use, or possible use, of passengers (as defined in art. VI) shall not be deducted from the gross tonnage, except in so far as their deduction may be specifically provided for in the following sections (1 to 11) of this article of these rules.

Army and Navy transports, colliers, etc.

DEFINITION OF STORES AND CARGO CARRIED ON ARMY AND NAVY TRANSPORTS, COLLIERIES, SUPPLY SHIPS, AND HOSPITAL SHIPS

Definition of stores and cargo carried.

Ante, p. 373.

42. Spaces available for the stowage of stores (other than boatswain's stores) or cargo shall not be deducted from gross tonnage. In case of Army and Navy transports, colliers, supply ships, and hospital ships, as defined in article I, the term "stores (other than boatswain's stores) or cargo" shall include, in addition to goods or cargo ordinarily carried as freight on vessels of commerce, the following articles:

(a) On transports, food, stores, luggage, accouterments, and equipment for passengers.

(b) On colliers, coal, coaling gear, and fuel oil not for the use of the colliers.

(c) On supply ships, stores, supplies of all kinds, distilling machinery and distilled water (other than fresh water stored in peak tanks for the vessels own use), machines, tools and material for repair work, mines and mining material, torpedoes, arms, and ammunition.

(d) On hospital ships, food stores for passengers, medical stores, and hospital equipment.

(e) Guns mounted on transports and supply ships, for defense of the ships, and ammunition required for use in such guns shall not be classed as cargo.

DEDUCTIONS FROM GROSS TONNAGE ALLOWED VESSELS IN DETERMINING NET TONNAGE

43. SECTION 1. The tonnage of the spaces or compartments occupied by, or appropriated to the use of, the officers and crew of the vessel shall be deducted. The term "officers and crew" shall include the personnel inscribed on the ship's rolls, i. e., the ship's officers, engineers, doctors, apothecary, sick attendants, sailors, apprentices, firemen, mechanics, and wireless operators including clerks, pursers, stewards and other members of the personnel provided by the ship for the care of the passengers as well as armed guards on vessels of commerce. The spaces or compartments occupied by the officers and crew shall include their berthing accommodations, spaces provided for medical attention, including the medicine locker and dispensary, mess rooms, ward and dressing rooms, bath and washrooms, water closets, latrines, lavatories, or privies for their exclusive use, and passageways designed primarily for serving these spaces. Room provided for a pilot and so designated, shall be deducted, but spare rooms and linen lockers are not to be deducted.

Spaces for use of vessel's officers and crew.
"Officers and crew", defined.

44. SEC. 2. On hospital ships the spaces or compartments occupied by doctors, apothecary, and sick attendants duly inscribed on the ship's rolls, shall form part of the deduction under section 1 of this article. Spaces provided for the medical attention of the officers and crew of a hospital ship shall likewise be deducted; but spaces fitted for the transportation, or for the medical attention, of other persons than those duly listed in the ship's rolls shall not be deducted.

Hospital ships.

45. SEC. 3. The spaces appropriated to the use of the master shall be deducted.

Spaces for master.

46. SEC. 4. Cook houses, galleys, bakeries, laundries, and rooms for ice machines, when used exclusively to serve the officers and crew, and the condenser space, and distilling rooms, when used exclusively for condensing and distilling the water for the officers and crew, shall be deducted.

Cook houses, galleys, etc.

47. SEC. 5. Spaces used for anchor gear, including the chain locker; steering gear; capstan; the wheel house; the dynamo; the chart room used exclusively for keeping charts, signals, and other instruments of navigation; offices for the master, chief officer, and chief engineer; lookout houses; spaces for keeping electric searchlights, radio appliances, and wireless telephone apparatus; carpenter shop; fumigating and fire-fighting machinery; and other spaces actually used in the navigation of the ship, shall be deducted. Such spaces upon vessels of commerce as may be devoted to the mounting of guns and to the stowage of ammunition for the guns thus mounted shall be deducted. The deduction of all spaces, enumerated in this section, must be reasonable in extent and be subject to the limitations stipulated below in Article XI.

Spaces for anchor gear, etc.

48. SEC. 6. In case of a ship propelled wholly by sails, any space, not exceeding $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent of the gross tonnage, used exclusively for storage of sails shall be deducted.

Post, p. 384.

Ship propelled wholly by sails.

49. SEC. 7. Spaces used exclusively for boatswain's stores, including paint and lamp rooms, shall be deducted. The deduction is not, however, to exceed 1 percent of the gross tonnage in ships of 1,000 tons gross and upwards, nor more than 75 tons in any ship however large. In vessels from 500 to 1,000 tons gross the limit is fixed at 10 tons and in vessels from 150 to 500 tons at not more than 2 percent of the gross tonnage. In vessels under 150 tons at not more than 3 tons.

Spaces used for boatswain's stores.

Spaces used for engineer's shops.

Space occupied by donkey engine and boiler, etc.

Passages, etc., designed for serving deducted spaces.

Water ballast spaces.

Peak tanks.

Public rooms.

Marking and use of deducted spaces.

Subject to national laws.

Post, p. 385.

Vessels propelled by engines.

Additional deductions allowed.

Ante, p. 373.

50. Spaces used exclusively for engineer's shops shall be deducted. This deduction is in no case to exceed 5 percent of the actual propelling machinery space nor be more than 50 tons for any vessel.

51. SEC. 8. The space occupied by donkey engine and boiler shall be deducted even though not connected with the main pumps of the ship. The space occupied by the pumps used exclusively for handling feed water, ballast, bunker fuel, or for freeing the ship of water shall also be deducted, but the space occupied by the pumps used for handling cargo shall not be deducted.

52. SEC. 9. Passages and passageways designed primarily for serving deducted spaces shall be deducted.

53. SEC. 10. Water ballast spaces, other than spaces in the vessel's double bottom, shall be deducted if they are adapted only for water ballast, have for entrance only ordinary circular or oval manholes whose greatest diameter does not exceed 30 inches, and are not available for the carriage of cargo, stores, or fuel. Peak tanks shall also be deducted when adapted only for carrying fresh water for the vessel's own use, can be entered only as above stated, and are not available for the carriage of cargo or fuel. If used to carry oil or other fuel these spaces shall be regarded as part of the vessel's fuel space and shall not be subject to separate deduction.

Tonnage of tanks may be obtained by using liquid capacity times the conversion factor with one-sixth off for frames in case of peak tanks and one-twelfth off in case of wings or deep tanks when they cannot be readily measured.

54. SEC. 11. Spaces appropriated to the use of the passengers solely as public rooms shall be deducted. These shall include such spaces as social halls, smoking rooms, music rooms, libraries, lounges, dining saloons, gymnasiums, children's play rooms, elevators, foyers, promenades, veranda cafes, bar rooms, barber shops, novelty shops, and passageways designed primarily for serving such spaces. Water closets, toilets, lavatories and wash rooms designed primarily to serve public spaces will be considered as part of the public spaces and be deducted accordingly. Water closets, toilets, lavatories, baths and wash rooms designed primarily to serve nearby staterooms in the same tier will be considered as part of the staterooms they serve and not subject to deduction.

THE MARKING AND USE OF DEDUCTED SPACES SHALL BE ACCORDING TO NATIONAL LAWS

55. ART. XI. Each of the spaces enumerated in article X, sections 1 to 11, unless otherwise specifically stated, shall be subject to such conditions and requirements as to marking or designation and use or purpose as are contained in the navigation or registry laws of the several countries, but no space, other than fuel spaces deducted under article XIII of these rules, shall be deducted unless the use to which it is to be exclusively devoted has been appropriately designated by official marking. In no case, however, shall an arbitrary maximum limit be fixed to the aggregate deduction made under article X.

(B) ADDITIONAL DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED FOR VESSELS PROPELLED BY ENGINES

56. ART. XII. The Panama Canal net tonnage upon which tolls and other charges based upon tonnage shall be paid by vessels of commerce, Army and Navy transports, colliers, supply ships, and hospital ships, as defined in article I, propelled by engines, for passage through the Panama Canal, shall be the tonnage remaining after the following deductions have been made from the gross tonnage. One hundred cubic feet, or 2.83 cubic meters, shall constitute 1 gross or net ton. Vessels propelled partly by sails and partly by engines shall be classed as "vessels propelled by engines."

ADDITIONAL DEDUCTIONS FROM GROSS TONNAGE ALLOWED VESSELS PROPELLED BY ENGINES

57. SECTION 1. The spaces specified above in article X shall be deducted from the space included in gross tonnage to ascertain net tonnage in the case of vessels propelled by engines as in the case of vessels not propelled by engines.

Additional deductions from gross tonnage.
Ante, p. 382.

58. SEC. 2. The space occupied by the engines, boilers, coal bunkers, fuel oil tanks, including settling tanks, lubricating oil tanks, and shaft trunks of vessels with screw propellers; spaces within a closed-in side-to-side erection that are framed in around the funnels or that are required for the introduction of light and air to the engine room to the extent that the framed-in spaces around the funnels and the light and air casings are located below the deck or covering of the first or lowest tier of such erections, if any, on the upper deck, as defined in article III, and are contained in closed-in side-to-side erections; spaces necessary for the proper working of the engines, and spaces occupied by the donkey engine and boiler when situated within the boundary of the engine room or within the light and air casing above the engine room and when used in connection with the main machinery for propelling the vessel, shall be deducted. When the shafts of screw propellers pass through open spaces not inclosed within tunnels, the spaces allowed in lieu of the tunnels must be of reasonable dimensions suitable for the vessel in question. When any portion of the engine or boiler rooms is occupied by a tank for fresh water, the space thus taken up shall not be deducted.

Space occupied by engines, boilers, etc.

Ante, p. 373.

59. Donkey-engine and boiler spaces, when deducted according to article XIV below, shall not be made a separate deduction.

Donkey-engine and boiler spaces.
Post, p. 387.

60. The portion of the framed-in spaces around the funnels and of the light and air casings that extend above the deck or covering of the first or lowest tier of side-to-side erections, if any, on the upper deck, as defined in article IV, section 3, and surrounding the said space or spaces are exempted from measurement and form no part of the space deducted under this section.

Framed-in spaces around funnels, etc.

Ante, p. 375.

61. SEC. 3. The deductions made for propelling power, including all those provided for in section 2 of this article, shall in no case exceed 50 percent of the gross tonnage. In other respects the spaces enumerated in section 2 shall, except as otherwise specifically stated, be subject to the requirements as to designation or marking and use or purpose contained in the navigation or registry laws of the several countries.

Propelling power, space deduction restriction.

62. SEC. 4. The deductions made for propelling power provided for in section 2 of this article shall be made according to the provisions of article XIII or of article XIV, as the owner of the vessel may elect.

Provisions governing propelling power deductions.

63. SEC. 5. This section was eliminated by recommendation of Special Committee on Panama Canal Tolls and Vessel Measurement Rules, 1936.

PROPELLING POWER DEDUCTION FOR VESSELS WITH BUNKERS HAVING MOVABLE PARTITIONS, OR HAVING FUEL-OIL COMPARTMENTS THAT MAY BE USED TO STOW CARGO OR STORES

Vessels with bunkers having movable partitions, etc.

64. ART. XIII. In ships that do not have fixed bunkers, but transverse bunkers with movable partitions, with or without lateral bunkers, and in ships with fuel tanks which may be used to stow cargo or stores, measure the space occupied by the engine rooms, and add to it for vessels with screw propellers 75 percent and for vessels with paddle wheels 50 percent of such space.

Propelling power deduction.

Engine rooms, space defined.

Ante, p. 373.

65. By the space occupied by the engine rooms is to be understood that occupied by the engine room itself and the boiler room, together with the spaces strictly required for the working of the engines and boilers, with the addition of the spaces taken up by the shaft trunks in vessels with screw propellers, the spaces which enclose the funnels and the casings necessary for the admission of light and air into the engine room to the extent that such spaces are located below the upper deck (as defined in article III) or below a deck with openings, usually designated as tonnage openings, which may be so closed as to permit the carriage of cargo or stores under the deck or a portion thereof, and donkey-engine and boiler spaces when the donkey engine and boiler are situated within the boundary of the main engine room, or of the light and air casing above it and when they are used in connection with the main machinery for propelling the vessel. When the shafts of screw propellers pass through open spaces not enclosed within tunnels, the spaces allowed in lieu of tunnels must be of reasonable dimensions suitable for the vessel in question. When a portion of the space within the boundary of the engine or boiler rooms is occupied by a tank or tanks for the storage of fuel oil, lubricating oil, or fresh water, the space considered to be within the engine room shall be reduced by the space taken up by the tank or tanks for fuel oil, lubricating oil, or fresh water. Note that fuel-oil settling tanks are not to be included in the propelling-power space, no matter where situated. Store-rooms, dynamos, ice machine, etc., situated in the confines of the engine room and not bulkheaded off, may be included in engine-room space. If bulkheaded off, they shall not be included in engine-room space but be given separate deductions when they qualify under article X and then listed under item 5 on page 2 of the Panama Canal Certificate.

Ante, p. 382.

Ascertainment of cubical contents of spaces occupied by engine room.

66. The cubical contents of the above-named spaces occupied by the engine room shall be ascertained in the following manner: Measure the mean depth of the space occupied by the engines and boilers from its crown to the ceiling at the limber strake; measure also three, or, if necessary, more than three, breadths of the space at the middle of its depth, taking one of such measurements at each end and another at the middle of the length; take the mean of such breadths; measure also the mean length of the space between the foremost and aftermost bulkheads or limits of its length, excluding such parts, if any, as are not actually occupied by, or required for, the proper working of the engines and boilers. Multiply together these three dimensions of length, breadth, and depth, and the product will be the cubical contents of the space below the crown. Then, by multiplying together the length, breadth, and depth, find the cubical contents of the space or spaces, if any, which are framed in for machinery, for enclosing the funnels, or for the admission of light and air, and which are located between the crown of the engine room and the uppermost deck or covering of the first or lowest tier of side-to-side erections, if any, on the upper deck, as defined in article III. Add such contents, as well as those of the space occupied by the shaft trunk and by any donkey engine and boiler located within the boundary of the engine room or of the light and air casing above the engine room and used in connection with the main machinery for propelling the ship, to the cubical contents of the space below the crown of the engine room; divide the sum by 100 or by 2.83, according as the measurements are taken in feet or meters, and the result shall be deemed to be the tonnage of the engine and boiler room and shall be the tonnage taken as the basis for calculating the deduction for propelling power.

Ante, p. 373.

67. If in any ship in which the space for propelling power is to be measured the engines and boilers are in separate compartments, the contents of each compartment shall be measured separately in like manner, according to the above method; and the sum of the tonnage of the spaces included in the several compartments shall be deemed to be the tonnage of the engine and boiler rooms, and shall be the tonnage taken as the basis for calculating the deduction for propelling power.

Where engines and boilers are in separate compartments.

PROPELLING POWER DEDUCTION FOR VESSELS WITH FIXED BUNKERS, OR HAVING FUEL-OIL COMPARTMENTS THAT CANNOT BE USED TO STOW CARGO OR STORES

Vessels with fixed bunkers, etc.

68. ART. XIV. When vessels are fitted with fixed coal bunkers or with fuel-oil tanks which cannot be used to stow cargo or stores, and when such bunkers, tanks, and fuel compartments have been certified by official marking to be spaces for the vessel's fuel, the deduction for propelling power may either be in accordance with the provisions of article XIII above, or by deducting the actual tonnage of the spaces enumerated in article XII, section 2, as measured in accordance with the following provisions, as the owner of the vessel may elect: Measure the mean length of the engine and boiler room, including the coal bunkers. Ascertain the area of three transverse sections of the ship (as set forth in the rules given in articles VIII or IX for the calculation of the gross tonnage) to the deck which covers the engine. One of these three sections must pass through the middle of the aforesaid length, and the two others through the two extremities. Add to the sum of the two extreme sections four times the middle one, and multiply the sum thus obtained by the third of the distance between the sections. This product, divided by 100 if the measurements are taken in English feet, or by 2.83 if they are taken in meters, gives the tonnage of the space measured. If the engines, boilers, and bunkers are in separate compartments, measure each compartment, as above set forth, and add together the results of the several measurements. The bunkers measured for fuel deduction shall include only those bunkers that are absolutely permanent, from which the coal can be trimmed directly into the engine room or stoke-hole, and into which access can be obtained only through the ordinary coal chutes on deck and from doors opening into the engine room or stokehole. Thwartship bunkers that can be in any way extended are not to be included in the measurements for deductions. When any portion of the engine or boiler rooms is occupied by storage tanks for fresh water, the space considered to be within the engine and boiler rooms shall be reduced by the spaces taken up by the tanks for fresh water.

Propelling power deduction.

Ante, p. 385.

Ante, p. 385.

Ante, p. 378.

69. The contents of the shaft trunk shall be measured by ascertaining, and multiplying together, the mean length, breadth, and height. The product divided by 100, or 2.83, according as the measurements are taken in English feet or in meters, gives the tonnage of such space. When the shafts of screw propellers pass through open spaces not enclosed within tunnels, the spaces allowed in lieu of tunnels must be of reasonable dimensions suitable for the vessel in question.

Contents of shaft trunk, measurement.

70. The tonnage of the following spaces below the deck or covering of the first or lowest tier of side-to-side erections, if any, on the upper deck, as defined by article III, is ascertained by the same method, viz:

Spaces below deck, etc.

(a) The spaces framed in around the funnels.

(b) The spaces required for the admission of light and air into the engine room.

(c) The spaces, if any, necessary for the proper working of the engines.

(d) Spaces occupied by the donkey engine and boiler when used in connection with the main machinery for propelling the ship and when situated within the boundary of the engine room or of the casing above the engine room.

(e) Tanks (other than double-bottom compartments) fitted for the stowage of fuel oil and lubricating oil not already included by measurement under the provisions of paragraph 68.

NO SPACE MAY BE DEDUCTED UNLESS INCLUDED IN GROSS TONNAGE

No space deduction unless included in gross tonnage.

71. ART. XV. Under no circumstances shall any space which has not been included in the gross tonnage be deducted from gross tonnage.

DEDUCTED SPACES, IF USED, MUST BE ADDED TO NET TONNAGE

Deducted spaces, if used, must be added to net tonnage.
Ante, p. 385.

72. The use of the whole or any portion of a deducted space, other than fuel spaces deducted under article XIII, to stow cargo of any kind or stores other than boatswain's stores, or to provide passenger accommodations, shall be evidence that the entire space thus wholly or partially occupied is a part of the actual earning capacity of the ship, and the entire space shall be added to, and become a part of, the net tonnage upon which Panama Canal tolls shall be collected.

Officials authorized to measure vessels and issue certificates.

73. ART. XVI. Only such officials as are authorized in the several foreign countries and in the United States to measure vessels and to issue tonnage certificates for purposes of national registry, and such other officials as are authorized by the President of the United States, or by those acting for him, to measure vessels and to issue Panama Canal tonnage certificates, shall have authority to measure vessels for Panama navigation or to issue Panama tonnage certificates.

Tonnage certificates issued under these rules.

TONNAGE CERTIFICATES ISSUED UNDER THESE RULES MAY BE CORRECTED BY OFFICIALS AT THE PANAMA CANAL

Subject to correction.

74. ART. XVII. Tonnage certificates presented at the Panama Canal shall be subject to correction by the official or officials authorized by the President of the United States, or by those acting for him, to administer these measurement rules, insofar as may be necessary to make the certificates conform to these rules.

PANAMA CANAL TONNAGE CERTIFICATES

75. ART. XVIII. The Panama Canal tonnage certificates issued by the measurement authorities of the United States and the several foreign countries shall correspond in substance and form to the sample certificate appended to these rules. Blank certificates in English will be furnished by the Secretary of War or the Governor of the Panama Canal upon request of the measurement authorities of foreign countries. The measurement authorities of any foreign country may also provide themselves with Panama Canal measurement certificates printed in English or in the language of the foreign country, provided such certificates strictly correspond in substance and form to the sample certificate appended to these rules; and provided further, that if it is desired to have a certificate in the language of the foreign country, there must also be a corresponding certificate issued to the vessel in English.

RULES APPLYING TO VESSELS OF WAR, OTHER THAN ARMY AND NAVY TRANSPORTS, COLLIERIES, SUPPLY SHIPS, AND HOSPITAL SHIPS

Rules applying to vessels of war, other than transports, etc.

TOLLS UPON WARSHIPS SHALL BE LEVIED UPON ACTUAL DISPLACEMENT UPON ARRIVAL AT CANAL

76. ART. XIX. The toll on warships, other than Army and Navy transports, colliers, supply ships, and hospital ships, shall be based upon their tonnage of actual displacement at the time of their application for passage through the Canal. The displacement tonnage of such warships shall be their displacement before the vessels have taken on such coal, fuel oil, stores, or supplies as may be purchased and taken on board after arrival at the Canal for transit through the same.

Toll on warships.

"WARSHIPS" DEFINED

77. ART. XX. "Warships" in the meaning of articles XIX to XXIV shall be considered to be all vessels of war, other than Army and Navy transports, colliers, hospital ships, and supply ships, as defined in article I. Warships are vessels of Government ownership that are being employed by their owners for military or naval purposes.

reasons satisfactory to the Governor of the Panama Canal, not have on board the duly certified document or documents specified in article XXII, the Governor of the Panama Canal, or the officials authorized to act for him, shall then determine the displacement of the vessel, using such reliable data as may be available, or by taking such dimensions of the vessel and using such approximate methods as may be considered necessary and practicable. The displacement tonnage so determined shall be considered to be the displacement of the vessel.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

November 9, 1937

A PROCLAMATION

I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of November 1937 as a day of national thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving Day, 1937.
Thursday, November 25, 1937, designated as.

The custom of observing a day of public thanksgiving began in Colonial times and has been given the sanction of national observance through many years. It is in keeping with all of our traditions that we, even as our fathers in olden days, give humble and hearty thanks for the bounty and the goodness of Divine Providence.

The harvests of our fields have been abundant and many men and women have been given the blessing of stable employment.

A period unhappily marked in many parts of the world by strife and threats of war finds our people enjoying the blessing of peace. We have no selfish designs against other nations.

We have been fortunate in devoting our energies and our resources to constructive purposes and useful works. We have sought to fulfill our obligation to use our national heritage by common effort for the common good.

Let us, therefore, on the day appointed forego our usual occupations and, in our accustomed places of worship, each in his own way, humbly acknowledge the mercy of God from whom comes every good and perfect gift.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, [SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.
